'Evangelism In Action' Is Topic At Burgess EUB

A very important phase of church emphasis of this quadrannium in the Burgess Avenue EUB Church has been evangelism. During the year each church selects a time appropriate and convenient for its day of evangelism emphasis. This day is customarily set by the denomination or conference. This Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. Lane, will stress this phase of the denominational program. The sermon theme, "Evangelism in Action."

The Youth Fellowship will meet this Sunday night somewhat earlier for choir practice. The usual meeting will be resumed at 6:30 with the Otterbein College Life Recruits being present. In the absence of Rev. Lane at the 7:30 evening service, the Recruits will have charge of the service bringing special music and message of the evening. The Youth Choir will also sing.

The first Sunday of each month is Youth Night at church with the loose offering channeled into the Youth Program. Rev. Lane is at present in a two weeks' evangelistic campaign at Pataskala . . . date Feb. 26 to Mar. 11 inclusive.

A group from the Burgess Avenue Church will go to Washington Avenue for a group rally Monday evening, Mar. 8.

Jesus' Kingdom Was Spiritual in Essence But Indestructible

PERHAPS the most cynical words in the Bible were uttered by Pilate when he said, "What is truth?"

This was Pilate's reply to the words of Jesus: "Thou sayest that I am a King. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Everyone that is of the truth heareth my voice."

Refusing to take these words seriously, Pilate could not resist jesting with the clamorous enemies of Jesus, "Shall I crucify your king?" As a result, soldiers were quick to take up the cruel jest. They crowned Jesus with thorns, robed Him in purple and taunted, "Hail, King of the Jews."

It is ironic that out of that rude, sadistic satire, the crown of thorns emerged as the noblest symbol of royalty the world has ever known.

And it is almost equally ironic that many people, to this very day, believe that Jesus intended to set up a physical kingdom on earth. Bible readers, however, know that the Kingdom Jesus spoke of was spiritual in essence.

For this reason the kingdom of Jesus is indestructible. It is built in the hearts of men. And until such day as despotic tyrants can seize and inspect the treasures locked in a man's heart and enter every nook and cranny of a man's mind, it can never be invaded.

But, by the same token, the rule of Jesus cannot be forced upon hearts or minds. Attempts to establish theocracies by force and build Christian states through external authority and power will fail. The truth that Pilate mocked shall only, and always, live in those that heareth His voice.

Friends Church Men's Group Installs Officers

"Men With Missions," the men's movement of the Highland Avenue Friends Church, met last Thursday evening with 19 men present.

A panel discussion then followed which was led by Paul R. Langdon entitled the "Home Side of Missions."

Refreshment chairman, Bob Brown, with his helpers Dick LeRoy and Don Drake, served cherry pie alamode and coffee.

Hilltonia EUB Selects Easter Choir Director

The music committee of Hiltonia EUB Church has chosen Mrs. Ursula Roberts, 379 S. Eureka-av, to train and direct the choir in the Easter Cantata to be given at the church on Easter Sunday evening.

Mrs. Roberts is the organist of the church and also acting choir director. She has had several years experience in the musical field in the church as well as other organizations. Mrs. Ellis Belle Kreitzman, S. Richardson-av, is the accompanist for the choir.

By Orville Howard

The three 9B English classes are responsible for gathering and preparing the news for the Hilltop Record and the West Side News. The two classes of Miss Hortense Mohr will prepare the news for the last twelve weeks of the semester.

The store, managed by Mrs. Pack, will feature dry cleaning, laundry and hat cleaning services in addition to shoe repairing. The shop will specialize in children's shoe repair work.

Civic Leaders, Groups Protest Grant of Local Liquor Permit

Further evidence of the determination of local civic groups and leaders to strongly oppose a local liquor permit was reflected in letters addressed this week to Governor Frank J. Lausche and State Liquor Director William Bryant by a school head and West Broad Street Elementary PTA.

The letters of protest are:

Governor Frank J. Lausche

At the joint meeting of the West Broad Parent-Teacher Association and Mothers' Study Group today the following action was taken:

To protest the issuance of class D-5, TRF permit by the Department of Liquor Control to Albert Hawraney, 2814-2820 West Broad St., Columbus, Ohio.

To protest the issuance of such permits to any additional business places in this community.

The West Broad Street Parent-Teachers Association numbers more than one thousand members.

Very truly yours,
Ruth Draper, President
Frieda Haueisen, Secretary

William C. Bryant, Director
Department of Liquor Control

This letter is to register a strong protest against the issuance of class D-5, TRF permit by the Department of Liquor Control to Albert Hawraney, 2814-2820 West Broad St., Columbus, Ohio.

These premises are within five hundred feet of West Broad Street Elementary School. It is on the direct route of children from elementary, junior and senior high schools. Every day hundreds of youths must pass this location on their way to and from school.

In my work with more than nine hundred children I deal daily with tragic problems of children whose lives and personalities are being warped because of alcoholic parents. You, too, are familiar with similar tragedies and significant evidences of the harmful influence of this type of business.

Moreover, such phases of business are already too numerous on the Hilltop and many property owners, parents and business people feel keenly that the Liquor Control Department should not issue another license for a business of this nature in our community.

I urge you to give this matter your serious attention.

Very truly yours,
Matilda L. Stuart, Principal
West Broad Elementary School

By Jack Gookin and Ralph Meyer

The fifth period 8A English class under the supervision of Mrs. Verona Rothebush, is planning the semester's work around the unit of "Recreation and Teenage Living."

Some plan to go to the State Hospital and see how recreation is used to help people regain mental health.

Some of the girls will assist at the Gladden Community House in the community's recreation program there.

Some are making scrap books for shut-ins. All are engaged in the recreation of reading books of various kinds of animals, sports, adventure, careers, teenagers, and they are also looking for the recreations mentioned in these books.

Hilltop Man Authors Text For Firemen

Thousands of textbooks roll off the presses each year on hundreds of different subjects, but there's only one text on a fascinating topic and it's now in its third edition.

The third printing of "The Firemen's Textbook" is off the presses. The book, co-authored by Ralph W. Cassell, 2855 W. Broad-st, and Rudolph P. Pritsell, 1440 Linwood-av, was begun while the two taught classes in fire-fighting 16 years ago.

Under the encouragement of Chief W. G. Strickfaden, they composed their first text on the subject, the only known reference book on the subject. At the time of the text's writing, Strickfaden was a battalion chief, Cassell a captain and Pritsel, a fireman. Cassell is now an assistant chief and Pritsel a captain.

The book contains more than 5,000 entrance and promotional questions and their answers. It includes a dictionary of technical terms used in fire fighting engineering and a foreword by Fire Chief Strickfaden. In the foreword, Chief Strickfaden points out that firemen who study are advanced more rapidly than those who depend merely on length of service.

Local Junior Achievement Company Introduces A Cosmetic Product To Hilltop Retail Market

SHOWN ABOVE are three members of the J. A. Chemical Products Co., a Junior Achievement project sponsored by the American Zinc Oxide Co. of Columbus. At work on their product, "Jayco Almond Hand Lotion", are David Priest of West High, John Coughlin of St. Charles, the company president, and Jerry Witherspoon of West High School.

The J. A. Chemical Products Company, a small business owned and operated by local high school students and licensed to operate under charter by Junior Achievement, Inc., has recently introduced its product, "Jayco Almond Hand Lotion", to the retail market in the Hilltop area.

Junior Achievement was organized in Columbus last September. One of its main purposes is to teach the youth of America our nation's free enterprise system. Instead of studying textbooks the youths learn by actual experience. Junior corporations are organized, stock is sold to secure initial capital, a product is produced and sold through retail channels, and the members pay wages to themselves and dividends to the stockholders. The experience that the student member gains from these operations will prove to be infinitely valuable to him after graduation from high school.

The J. A. Chemical Products Co. is sponsored by the American Zinc Oxide Company of Columbus. The company members state that their product, "Jayco Almond Hand Lotion", is a greaseless lotion that is both soothing and softening to the hands. Hilltop members of this youthful, enterprising company include John Coughlin, president of the company and son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Coughlin, 2957 Fremont-rd; Richard Knipfer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knipfer, 286 S. Souder-av; David Priest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Priest, 616 Larcomb-av, and Jerry Witherspoon, son of Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Witherspoon, 2988 Wicklow-rd.

Hilltop stores now featuring the new product are Seiller's Department Store, Ben Franklin Dime Store, Broad-Hague Drug Store, Fox Food Shop, Goodwin Drugs, Guard Drugs, Spangs Drugs, Todd's Drugs and the Variety Store.

Given an opportunity cheerfulness will ride with you every mile of life's journey.

Red Cross Drive Report To Be Given Tuesday

Mrs. Harrold Kay, vice chairman of the western area of the volunteer residential solicitors in the 1951 Red Cross Fund Campaign, will give a report of the progress of her workers Tuesday, Mar. 6, and Thursday, Mar. 8, at 12 o'clock at the Southern Hotel.

The 1951 campaign will run from Feb. 28 to Mar. 21 with the goal set at $385,000. The national slogan of the campaign is "Mobiliza for Defense." It is most fitting at this time when all of the services of the Red Cross are being expanded to meet the needs of the armed forces and civil defense.

Mrs. Richard Argo is the chairman of all the volunteer residential solicitors of which there are 2000 workers.

There will be further report luncheons Monday, Mar. 12, Wednesday, Mar. 14, and Friday, Mar. 16, concluding with a victory dinner scheduled for Mar. 21 at the Southern Hotel.

Another Teen-Age Driver Is Given Probation

Richard D. Ramey, teen-age driver of the car which struck and severed the leg of Columbus Transit Co. bus driver, Edward Klein, 31, 161 S. Burgess-av, on Feb. 5, was given a suspended sentence to Boys' Industrial School last Wednesday and his driving rights revoked for three years by Genevieve Taylor, Juvenile Court referee, who heard the case.

Ramey's car struck Klein while the bus driver attempted to replace the bus' trolley at Cleveland and Reynolds-av. Police stated that the streets were slippery and Ramey was blinded by oncoming headlights.

Got Your Bright Blue Auto Tags Yet?

License tag business down at the Robinson store, Wayne and Broad, has been quite brisk since it started last week but many thousands of car owners still are putting off the purchase of their tags.

Last year, it will be recalled, the local registrar ran out of tags a couple of days before the deadline and was unable to get more tags from the state, with the result that several hundred local people were disappointed and had to go downtown and buck the larger lines to get their tags. This year the early bird will get the tag!

End Men Are Named For Minstrel Show

Announcement was made this week of the selection of end men for the 22nd Annual Hilltop Minstrel Shows which will be staged at West High School, April 12 and 13. The selections were made following tryouts Sunday at the local school auditorium.

Selected to provide the mirthful part of this year's production are end men, Chubby Distlehorst of Distlehorst Market, W. Broad and Eureka; Marvin Southworth of Southworth Poultry, Sullivant-av; Joe Goodwin of Goodwin Pharmacy, Sullivant-av, and Bill Coon of the Hilltop Record advertising staff.

C. Carlton Hartley, general chairman of the show for this year indicated that there may be several openings left for those who might wish to participate.

Open House Planned

Open House will be held at the new South Franklin School, located on Frank-rd, just east of Briggsdale, Sunday, Mar. 11, 1 to 4 p. m. The board of education of Franklin Local School District has invited everyone interested in the new school to attend its opening.

Police Cruiser Dispersal Plan Meets Opposition

A bombshell was dropped into the midst of plans for creation of police sub-stations in the various city parks throughout Columbus, when the City Attorney, Richard W. Gordon warned this past Saturday that danger lurked in the proposal by virtue of reverter clauses in deeds from original owners.

The reverter clause, according to the city attorney, provides that if the park properly is used for any purpose other than that specified in the deed, the property automatically reverts to the heirs of the donor. Most of the deeds, he said, specify that the property be used solely for recreation purposes.

Gordon said that though he had not time to check all deeds that he was certain there are reverter clauses in deeds of at least one West Side park, that being Westgate. Of Glenwood he was not certain and Sunshine does not come under the regulation since it was created by public subscriptions.

The City of Columbus at one time almost lost use of Goodale Park, Gordon said, when the reverter clause threatened to be enforced. Such a clause, he pointed out, provides automatic reversion to original owners and no court action is necessary.

To emphasize his arguments against establishing police stations in city parks, Gordon says he knows that some heirs of park donors are waiting and hoping the city will use the parks for purposes other than recreation so that the property will return to them.

In the meantime several have voiced objection to the plan of using the parks by city police, pointing out that police presence may have the effect of causing children who might be borderline delinquents staying away from the recreational facilities offered at such parks as Glenwood and Sunshine. This would be especially true, it is said, where police substations would be located in the present shelterhouses. An alternative to the plan was offered, in that structures for police be placed in the parks if necessary but at a distance well removed from the center of park activity.

Mayor James Rhodes has pointed out that the substations are to be placed in the parks, "for the protection of the parks" and that legislation to that effect will be drawn.

Safety Director Cook says the stations are being so located in the parks because of public demand.

Police Inspector Scully points out that police presence in the parks would curb vandalism.

Browne Is Elected

Carl F. Browne, 645 S. Harris-av, was elected president of the Big Brothers Association, at the 18th annual meeting in the Maennerchor Hall, succeeding Paul W. Clements.

Bib Brothers Association is a "Red Feather", Community Chest supported agency, through which Columbus businessmen give fatherless boys of the community needed companionship, encouragement and guidance.

Third Bronze Star Awarded Hilltop Man

Lowell M. Cooper

A third Bronze Star Medal was awarded for bravery in action in Korea to Warrant Officer Lowell M. Cooper, 535 Belvidere-av, Feb. 16. He was awarded the first two Bronze Stars for bravery in World War II action.

Cooper's award was made upon his command of a detail to recover a quantity of previously unknown type of enemy ammunition. His citation reported he and the detail completed the dangerous mission in a most satisfactory manner and made important data available to intelligence personnel.

W/O Cooper entered military service in Sept. 1940, and served in New Guinea and Leyte.

Road Program Also Covered By Bond Issue

Speaking before the Metropolitan Committee, Thursday, Robert K. Levy, Sr., president of the Union Co., backed up the proposed bond issue for the building of expressways in Columbus.

Mr. Levy said, "All areas of the city and all of its people are either directly or indirectly affected adversely by the traffic congestion which occurs in downtown Columbus and on the main arteries leading to and from it."

He assured his audience that the proposal to invest in major "trafficways" is not extreme; Columbus, he added, would only be "getting in step with other large Ohio cities."

Cost of the project will be shared by the city, county and federal government with the latter paying the greatest amount. The city's share of the $39 million expressways belt will be $5,850,000 of the total and the county's share only $2,500,000.

The inner belt will be bounded by Goodale-st, Washington-av, Fulton-st and Sandusky-st.

The outer belt will include widening and improving existing roads for the most part and the building of several bridges. The roads include Frank, Clime and Georgesville-rds, Dering, Wilson, Trabue, Bethel and Rathbone-rds.

Fire Truck Mires; Flames Destroy Briggsdale Home

Deep mud, combined with fire and strong winds last Wednesday caused a family of eight near Briggsdale to be made homeless. A city fire truck bogged down in mud and was unable to reach the flaming home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parsons of 2439 Lindberg-dr.

With home and all clothing destroyed by the wind swept flames the Parsons' were given temporary shelter with a relative, Mrs. Emma Long, 2405 Lindberg-dr.

The mother, Mrs. Geraldine Parsons, discovered the blaze in a mattress shortly after 2 p. m. Wednesday. Two of the children playing with matches had started the blaze. She grabbed up the baby, 10-month-old Martha Ann, and herded three other children, Mary, 5, Marie, 4, and Roger, 2, to safety. The father was at work and two other children, Barbara, 9, and George, 12, were in school.

Fire equipment summoned from Columbus mired down in the mud about 300 feet from the blazing home.

Two of the children were ill at the time of the blaze and efforts are currently being made to obtain clothing and medical aid for the family. Columbus Charity Mewsies offered clothing for the smaller children.

Clyde Williams, 2535 Wyuwood-av, a member of the newly formed Franklin Township Fire Department, summoned the city fire department and pointed up the necessity of speeding delivery of the new fire truck slated for the Briggsdale area. Williams said that the community is composed of easily combustible frame homes and shacks.

Special Bond Issue Plan Provides Improvement For 14 Local Schools

Fawcett Outlines Bond Issue Costs At West High Meeting

A kick-off meeting in behalf of the school bond issue, subject to the approval of the voters, Tuesday, April 10, was enthusiastically received Mar. 5, by teachers and employees of the Columbus Board of Education west of the Scioto River, in a meeting at the West High Auditorium where N. G. Fawcett, superintendent of schools, presented the imperative need for school improvements throughout the city.

One of the fastest growing cities in the country, increased school population and a record residential and industrial building program in Columbus, has been short of phenomenal, Mr. Fawcett pointed out.

Cost, Mr. Fawcett added, is of paramount importance to the taxpayers.

"It is estimated that an average tax rate of 1.126 mills additional (or $1.13 per thousand dollars of property valuation) will take care of all interest and repayment costs of this bond issue," the school executive said.

Hilltop Business Men Elected To Council of Social Agencies

Further evidence of the acceptance of the Hilltop as a community into the pattern of Columbus civic planning was shown during this past week with the election of C. Carlton Hartley, publisher of The Hilltop Record and M. W. Seiller, 29 Eldon-av, president of Seiller's Department Store to important posts in the Council of Social Agencies of the Community Chest for Columbus and Franklin County.

Hartley was elected to the board of directors of the Council of Social Agencies and Seiller as one of the Council's representatives on the budget committee of the Community Chest. The latter post is an important one since the budget committee is responsible for distribution of nearly $1,400,000 Community Chest Funds this year.

TO NAME DEFENSE WARDEN

Civil Defense authorities at city hall said Wednesday that a defense warden for the Hilltop area would be named next week by Civil Defense Head C. F. Weimer.

New Buildings Included For West Side Program

A "package bond issue" plan to provide a $23 million civic improvement for city and county will be presented to voters in a special election on April 10. The proposed bond issues which met with approval of Columbus Metropolitan Committee last Thursday will include: (1) $11,500,000 for schools. (2) $8,359,000 for expressways and (3) $3,338,110 for Port Columbus.

Primary interest of West Side voters is centered on the issue which provides for school improvements. This portion of the bond issue has direct relationship to this area.

A summary of the proposed school building program as related to this section of the city west of the Scioto River reveals that 14 schools will benefit from approval of the bond issues by voters on April 10.

A breakdown on planned local school improvements by the board of education follows:

West Junior and Senior High Schools—remodeling on third floor in order to gain three more classrooms; some remodeling of shops; miscellaneous acoustical treatment where needed; other remodeling and redecorating of a miscellaneous nature.

Sterling Jr. High School—complete remodeling, including fireproofing of stairways, re-corsion, etc.; addition to provide auditorium and better cafeteria facilities.

John Burroughs Elementary School — miscellaneous redecorating.

Broadview Elementary School—new building, of 10 to 12 classrooms and kindergarten.

Pleasant and Franklinton Elementary Schools—replacement by one new building on a new site, to consist of 14 classrooms and kindergarten. This eventually would tie in with a new building near Sullivant Gardens.

Sullivant Gardens—an entirely new elementary school to be established on a site near the Sullivant Gardens Housing Projects. Present plans are that this school consist of from 12 to 18 classrooms plus kindergarten.

West Mound Street Elementary School—a new building of 10 to 12 classrooms and kindergarten.

Westgate—an entirely new elementary school, to consist of from 10 to 12 classrooms and kindergarten on present board owned site.

Avondale Elementary School—complete remodeling.

Bellows Elementary School—complete remodeling.

Chicago Elementary School—complete remodeling.

Dana Elementary School — complete remodeling.

Highland Elementary School — completion of remodeling (modernized toilets, etc.)

West Broad Street Elementary School—new heating plant and other changes of a miscellaneous nature.

Board of education planners point out that the size of new buildings is not definitely set until just before the letting of contracts. The proposed new buildings all include the necessary number of classrooms, kindergarten, health rooms, small auditorium-gymnasium, one or more multi-purpose rooms, office space, etc.

A complete remodeling of a school is understood to generally include fireproof stairways, central heating system, small auditorium-gymnasium, improved (usually fluorescent) lighting, one or more multi-purpose rooms for use as health rooms, small libraries, small kitchen, office space and complete redecorating.

Reason for the request was given as necessary "to conform to the drainage area" of the lots in the addition and adjoining lands.

The petition states that property owners J. P. Garwick and Marion Ross have provided a 50-foot wide strip of land to which that short thoroughfare could be moved.

At least one Hilltop spot was seeing plenty of traffic for business during this past week as license tags went on sale at the C. C. Robinson Co., corner of W. Broad-st and Wayne-av; under the auspices of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club. Shown above is a portion of the crowds which lined up to receive their shiny new auto tags of blue and white. Despite previous warnings, however, many persons lined up to get tags and then were disappointed because they had failed to bring with them a certificate of title (bill of sale) or memorandum certificate of title bearing the proper stamp certifying previous issue of tags.

A spring and summer gardening project designed to assist in the current war effort by preservation and growing of food and to provide interested families a method by which they can aid themselves was announced this week by the agricultural committee of Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

Local Housewives Report Operation Of Gyp Artist

An alleged flim-flam artist is reported to be operating on the Hilltop.

At least three and possibly more Hilltoppers have been taken by the man who claims to be hungry and in need of work. He is reported to request odd jobs like tree topping, trimming, yard work and house repairing.

He is paid to start a job and finds that he needs new tools or additional material. After he gets a free meal, is paid in advance for his work, and succeeds in borrowing money to pay his rent or buy the material for the job, he disappears.

Franklin Township Firemen Take To The Air

SHOWN HERE are the three planes which are now to become an integral part of Franklin Township's newly organized fire department. The planes in cooperation with the new equipment and volunteer firemen will act as fire spotters and relay information to radio equipped fire fighting equipment.

Franklin Township firemen, in addition to taking on their new fire truck at the Franklin Heights fire station Sunday afternoon, revealed that they are going all out in a modern approach to locating and fighting fires in their sector of Franklin County. The fire laddies have "taken to the air."

Three planes based at Jones Flying Field on Sullivant-av will form the air spotting portion of the volunteer firemen, according to Franklin Twp. Fire Chief James Moffitt. It was pointed out that in their flights from the field, pilots will keep a lookout for fires in the area which might otherwise be reported too late for firemen to do much good. Reports would be relayed from the plane via radio to the fire house.

Moffitt also said that the planes could be used to aid in directing firemen to out-of-the-way places by the shortest routes as viewed from the air. The local fire eaters' trucks are equipped with radio so that contact can be maintained with its air arm.

Sunday saw the christening of the second of the trucks slated for the 90 man Franklin Township fire department. One truck is already in service at San Margarita, the second received last week is destined for the Franklin Heights sector of the township and the third slated for the Briggsdale area is yet to be received.

On hand for the christening ceremonies at the new truck were 25 volunteer firemen from the Franklin Heights department and a registered nurse who has volunteered her services to the local department.

Hilltop Couple Arrested By Police After Dog Attacks Child Near Home

A Hilltop man and wife were arrested Saturday following an attack by their show dog on four-year-old Jerry Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Smith, 2184 Safford-av. Warrants were filed against William Cook and his wife, Anna, 2178 Safford-av, following the attack on the Smith child.

According to police reports the child was bitten by the dog on Feb. 21 when the two Smith children, David and Jerry were playing in front of their home. It was reported that the dog charged into the street knocked the smaller boy down and began tearing at him. Police indicated that the child's life was saved by his brother, David, 15, who beat off the dog.

Doctors at St. Carmel and Children's Hospital reported 12 puncture wounds on the child's body as a result of the attack.

The Cook couple's arrest followed their alleged refusal to get rid of or destroy the animal. They posted bonds of $25 each to appear in police court.

In Passing

By ESTHER WEAKLEY MYSTERY

The sky was dark and dull at dawn,
A storm came up at noon;
The rain made freshets across my lawn
And everywhere was gloom.
(I saw a red-bird's wing!)

The branches on the trees were bare,
The grass was brown and dry.
"There is no beauty anywhere"—
My heart's protesting cry.
(I heard a robin sing!)

The air was cold throughout the day,
I saw some flecks of snow;
But underneath the dreary gray
I felt a surge and flow—
(And oh, I know it's spring!)

Since 1932, whenever an important dance, benefit performance or other event taking place in Columbus and central Ohio is announced, you'll usually find the notation: "Music by Chuck Selby's Orchestra." This is too well known for any elaboration here, so this item will concern his television show which he calls Musically Yours. It may be seen on WTVN at 5:15, Monday through Friday. The television show is strictly a hobby, but I've a suspicion that he likes doing it because it gives him the opportunity to do so much good for so many people. Each day on his program a shutin is remembered in a very wonderful way—by a gift of flowers from Chuck Selby and Lou Vierick, the Florist. It is appropriate that April 24 is Chuck's first anniversary on WTVN, since that is "Courage, Incorporated Day." He has worked hard for this organization. He doesn't just "talk a good game" but follows through with personal visits to shutins. He takes an active part in all community welfare and public service enterprises; was President of Columbus Junior Chamber of Commerce last year, and is now a member of the Board of Directors. While his fine orchestra is his bread-and-butter, this man accomplishes so many things that nobody knows about; he probably couldn't enumerate them, himself. His Gal Friday is Donna Greuser, West High student, who helps with his mail and other details and appears with him on his t-v show. He told me he was born in Columbus and has lived here all his life. Married, he is the father of two children. He says Columbus has been very good to him and that he is proud of his friends. Why shouldn't Columbus be good to him—he is certainly very good to and for Columbus, and Columbus should be button-bustin' proud of him. It is, from all reports. He is one of the most modest and unassuming men it has been my privilege to know.

Those Quizzes of Faye Walker's in "The Sunday Dispatch Magazine" are most interesting, but I'm not telling you anything you don't already know. You also know that Faye is one of the state's outstanding poets; she writes many articles and fillers for fiction magazines. All this and she is a charming gal and a loyal friend.

If you'd like a pleasant evening, go to 142 N. Ogden-av and visit Mrs. Hope White Gibson. She will show you her etchings (couldn't resist that, Hope) and make you glad you went. Seriously, Hope's oil paintings are wonderful. She has a large oil of the Smokies that makes you want to start for North Carolina, and other paintings too numerous to mention here. She also does beautiful water colors and charcoal etchings, and has exhibited her work in the Southern Hotel Art Gallery and other places. The Hilltop may well be proud of this talented lady. She also writes very good poetry.

This poem from "Overland Life" could be more truth than poetry:

MEMO TO THE YOUNGER GENERATION

Blessings on thee, little man,
Barefoot boy, with cheek of tan;
Trudging down a dusty lane
With no thought of future pain.
You're our one and only bet
To absorb the national debt.
Little man with cares so few,
We've got lots of faith in you;
Guard each merry whistled tune—
You are apt to need it soon.
Have your fun while you can,
You MAY be a barefoot man.

Hilltop Driver Recovers $10; Fraud Revealed

A Hilltop man had ten dollars returned to him recently by the United States postal officials following his application for a driving job with a fraudulent Fort Worth, Texas, concern.

William McCoy, 425 S. Warren-av, sent $10 to a company in the Lone Star State which had advertised for drivers promising to pay 13 cents a mile and guarantee three 360-mile trips a week. The $10 was required as bond of the driver applicants.

McCoy was informed by Postal Inspector E. C. Wilks of Ft. Worth that Robert McCalmott Seaton of Ft. Worth had pleaded guilty to using the mails to defraud and had been sentenced to 18 months, and placed on probation for a year.

Today McCoy had his ten bucks back and is now wary of glittering promises offered by out-of-state concerns.

Childhood Accidents

A campaign is being organized in Columbus and Franklin County to reduce the number of accidents to children. Accidents, it has been found, are the leading cause of death between the ages of one and 15.

The Metropolitan Health Council of Columbus and Franklin County, a division of the Council of Social Agencies, has set up a special committee on Childhood Accident Prevention, to make a special study of accident causes and will organize an educational program to attract attention to the principal causes of accidents. The peak of its campaign this spring is planned for Child Health Day, May 1, and the week immediately following.

Special programs for gathering statistics on accidents have been set up for the month of March, with the participation of schools, hospitals, physicians, Fire Department emergency squads, Health Department and others.

Records are available only on fatal accidents, and since many non-fatal accidents easily might have been fatal, the committee is seeking statistics on all accidents.

There is no doubt but that childhood accidents have taken heavy toll and the campaign of education of children against accident is one which merits full support, of parents, schools, church and community. Safety Councils in our local schools can and will do much toward lowering the incidence of accidents.

Time Out for Some Questions

READER COMMENT

Letters To The Editor

This newspaper invites letters from its readers on subjects of timely interest. All letters, however, must be not more than 400 words in length and all must be signed by the writer. The writer's name will be omitted if requested.

Dear Sirs:

When people came to America from Europe, they brought with them their ideals and customs. The thing closest to their hearts was religion and next to religion was education. As soon as they had provided a place to live in, they planned and erected buildings for education. In a comparatively short time, eight colleges were founded, each of which was sponsored by a denomination, with one exception. The purpose of the colleges was to prepare man for the ministry. Note the close relation of education and religion.

To prepare for college entrance Latin-grammar schools and the academy were established. However these schools benefited only a few. So private schools began to spring up, but many parents could not afford to pay the expense of private schools. The desire of parents to educate their children created a sentiment so strong that plans were made for schools in which all children, rich or poor, might receive an education. After a long and hard fight, by 1865 the free school system was firmly established.

Following the free school system consisting of eight grades, there was a demand for something to take the place of the Latin-grammar school and academy that would bridge the gap between the common school and the college. By 1885 this was accomplished. This step was known as the high school.

Children received their common or grade school education in a one-room school building commonly called "The Little Red School House" and their high school education in a separate building.

For a while this plan satisfied the people. But as time moves on ideas change and a movement was launched to combine the one-room schools with the high school. Out of this plan grew the centralized schools of today. These schools provide a twelve year course of study divided into an 8-4 plan or where there is a junior high it is divided into a 6-3-3 plan, six years for grades, three for junior high and three for senior high. The twelve years prepare the children for college entrance.

Villages and cities passed through a period of development similar to the rural experience, but because of the density of population their systems grew more rapidly.

J. A. Downey.

Dear Editor:

The suggestion of extending the Hague Ave. bus to W. Mound St. should be applauded. Are we at last going to be linked closer to the Hilltop merchants? It takes so long to go all the way down town and around to the Hilltop stores, our theaters, our doctors up on Broad St., that by the time we get down town it seems almost best to shop down town.

This is the way I felt before I got a car. So I know the hundreds of neighbors all around here are having similar thoughts.

Again I say "Bravo" to the golden suggestion of last week. I'm signing my name, but for personal reasons, please omit it.

A Reader

Dear Editor:

I recently noticed some articles in your newspaper about flood control, talk of levies, etc.

May I make a suggestion: Why can't the conservancy district build a large overflow channel starting at the river, above Grandview-av. passing through the State Institution grounds, angling out to Central-av and then following best course across fields to the Scioto River. This could be under the street on Central-av, as wide and deep as necessary.

This would be expensive but that proposed Mill Creek dam is also very expensive.

Of course this would be a problem for the engineers, but it seems to me this should FOREVER END the threat of a flood to the West Side.

Very truly yours,
H. T. Maloney

Dear Sirs:

Westgate Gardens will operate again this year, meeting at Mary Magdalene Church Sunday, Mar. 11 at 2 p. m. Will you please donate a write up in this week's Record? These gardens are south of Fremont between Huron and S. Westgate-av.

C. F. Dresback,
President Westgate Garden Club

Dear Sir:

To indorse the bond issue for 11¼ million dollars which is to be voted on April 10.

The West Broad Parent Teachers Association numbers more than one thousand members.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. Robert W. Draper, Pres.
Mrs. Carl V. Haueisen, Sec.

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By WILSON HARRIS

Although far removed from hostile Korean fire, ranking brass of the Quartermaster General are going to be on the receiving end of a Congressional barrage. A new order has aroused the ire of the vigilant House Small Business Committee headed by Wright Patman (D.Texas).

C. W. Harder

The Army has ordered all buying to be on a negotiated basis, preferably with a list of "red ticket" firms, numbering less than 100.

This means there will be no bidding. In fact, it is now ordered that an officer secure special permission to advertise for bids.

Thus, it is now against Army orders for anyone to attempt to save on defense costs. Higher price leaps are apparently expected to over-awe the enemy.

This order, unless rescinded, will be reflected in local payrolls throughout the country.

Up until this order, small firms, despite all the obstacles of red tape thrown at them, were taking a big share of orders away from monopolies.

In fact, the success of small business is obvious.

This new order which virtually assures monopolies will sell everything from beans to cannons is strong evidence of that success.

No doubt, high brass will seek to justify order on grounds it saves time of personnel.

New disclosures may force brass to beat a hasty retreat on this ground. It is now fenced with less than 3,000,000 in armed forces, staff at Pentagon, both male and female, civilian and service is 28,740. At World War II peak, with over 12,000,000 under [redacted] staff was [redacted] 27,000.

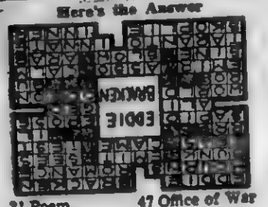
The "crack-down" on brass will be non-partisan.

It is situations like this that prompted Sen. Robt. Taft (R. Ohio) to state to this column, "I think it is vitally important that the problems of small business in this semi-mobilization effort be constantly placed before the public. Our experience in the last war shows that the easy course for the government and those who purchase for the government is to deal only with the large companies."

And the newly appointed Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Justice Department's Anti-trust division H. Graham Morison, in his first public statement says there will be no relaxation of the anti-trust law prosecutions.

Not only is it essential to protect private enterprise, he emphatically states, but in this era of aerial warfare, it is essential to obtain a wide dispersal of production facilities.

ECA Bulletin 1900 announces 88 million American tax dollars have been pledged to guarantee a loan by Austria to Tito's Jugoslavia.



Which has caused Washingtonians to remark, "That's like an insurance company underwriting the life of a tight-rope walker."

GOOD HEALTH

Answer to Question No. 1:

1. The two most dangerous periods for accidents are between the ages of one and four and again after 65. Most accidents occur in the home; one third in the dining room or kitchen; about one fourth on porches or in the yard and one fifth in living or sleeping rooms. People over 65 should be especially careful and among other things should not climb ladders. People of every age can prevent accidents by using normal precautions.

Answer to Question No. 2:

2. The most common immunizations are against typhoid and paratyphoid fever, diphtheria, lockjaw, whooping cough, spotted fever, typhus fever and smallpox.

Answer to Question No. 3:

3. According to a recent survey, the life expectancy of the residents of Nebraska, South Dakota and Minnesota is greatest. This applies to both the male and female population of those states. In all three states the women live, on the average, between three and four years longer than the men.

West Garners Three Tourney Wins; Starts Semi-Final Play On Friday Against Central

Cowboy Cagers Minus Head Coach Facing Stiff Test By Pirate Five

Coach Fred Heischman and the five first stringers on the West High basketball squad are currently the main topic of conversation out at West through all of this week.

The Cowboys, winners of three straight tournament affairs, were one of the four remaining teams of the original field of 22 to survive the tournament and grab a spot in the semi-finals to be staged in the Fairgrounds Coliseum Friday night.

At 7:30, West will tackle Central's Pirates, who defeated West twice in the City League this year by 44-37 and 79-65 scores. An hour and one-half later, East's defending champs oppose the CBL champs, Grandview. The two winners collide Saturday evening in the finals at 8.

Coach Heischman, filling in for hospitalized Head Coach George Williams, will be expected to stick to his same five of Jerry Trabue and Rog Smith at the forwards; Bob Thornton at Center, and "Jake" Johnson and Russ Friend at the guards for the Central encounter.

Williams was operated on Saturday morning for a torn tendon, and will probably miss the Central game. He guided the team to their first tourney win Tuesday night over Linden, but in practice Thursday, he tripped over a loose ball and has been "benched" ever since.

Linden

Although West had easily trounced the very same team only four days earlier by 12 points, the Cowboys considered themselves a bit on the lucky side to escape with a 49-43 win over the Panthers in the first tourney fray.

Three points was the biggest margin West could collect in the first half at any interval; but the Cowboys broke loose in the third period to snare margins of nine points on three different occasions.

West held at 32-24 lead at the third period's finish, and seemed on their way to an easy win, despite a famine on shots—at least, compared to their remarkable accuracy a couple days earlier.

The Cowboys stomped to a 44-27 lead with four minutes left in the game when Linden's Bob Himler put on a fantastic show. He stole the ball on three occasions, grabbed a pass on two others, and drove in for five baskets in the last four minutes, and sandwiched around his free toss, the West lead started to dwindle, and West was forced to stall out the contest.

Rog Smith put on a remarkable rebounding show, snaring practically every Linden shot on their board, in addition to sharing high point honors with Jake Johnson, 14. Jerry Trabue and Himler each had 12.

Bexley

West fans died a thousand deaths in the Bexley fray, which West finally pulled out by the skin of their teeth in an overtime fracas by a 52-51 score.

The Cowboys displayed a well-balanced attack with every starter but one scoring at least 12 points, but just when West apparently had the game "in the bag," Bexley made a thriller of it.

West was hitting on their shots in the first half. They snared a 16-6 first period score and a halftime count of 26-12. However, in the third quarter, West started out like a flash, romping nine straight points right off the bat to hold a convincing 34-20 lead.

Fans had just about decided the winner when Bexley's determined crew fought back to 42-37 at the period's end. Then the impossible happened.

With 1:06 left in the game, West led 49-46, and started to play deliberate ball. Chick Wahoff of the Lions sank a hook and narrowed the lead to one point with 0:27 left at a time-out.

Previous to the time-out, Bob Bernlohr of the Lions was fouled in a shot attempt and came back with two free tosses seconds later to hand Bexley a 50-49. Time was a big element as West worked the ball down the court. Rog Smith was fouled in the corner and sank the one valuable toss to send the game into overtime.

In the fifth period Berlorh's gratis toss was matched by Russ Friend's fast break shot—and that was all. Bernlohr was high with 17 points while Trabue had 14; Smith, 13; and Johnson and Friend, 12.

South

West played, without much doubt, their best game of the season in last Saturday's contest in the quarter-finals against South. The final count was 79-61, West's biggest offensive production of the year—also the largest of the tournament.

The Cowboys really scorched the nets, not with so much accuracy, but with perfectly good timing—coming at the most-needed GAL 2—COWBOY CAGERS dr times. West, earlier in the season, defeated South, 69-53, and on Feb. 6, the Bulldogs won in the second round, 72-61.

Action was the word in this one, as scores came fast and furious. West had two mediocre periods, the first and third when they hit 18 and 18, respectively, while they slammed 21 through in the second and 25 in the last canto.

It looked as though the game was going to be a replica of the Bexley game as West hit a hot first half, but started to wilt in the third quarter period. South started fast in the third quarter and drew to a 43-44 to West Midway in the period.

However, Bob Thornton netted five quick points and Jerry Trabue mashed a fadeaway to put West back into a 10-point lead, which they held the remainder of the night.

Well-balanced scoring again marked the West scoring as Smith had 18; Thornton and Johnson each 16; and Trabue, 15. Little Russ Friend, bagging eight points, was the outstanding individual on the court, as far as floor- play ...

Top City Cage Scorer

Pictured here is the pride of West High School, Jerry Trabue. He recently set a West individual scoring mark for one game by garnering 31 counters and to add to his laurels also captured the high scoring honors of the City High School Basketball League with a total of 227. Jerry edged out East's junior center, Rollie Harris, on the last day of the season. Harris' total was 225.

'Y' Cage Tourney Teams Whittled To Four

By Dave Miller

It's elimination time in the Hilltop "Y" Intermediate Basketball League as it is in many other basketball circles around this locality.

In play held at John Burroughs School last Wednesday evening, the field of eight competing teams was trimmed to only four—two in each class of A and B. The two winners in each division were to clash last night for the championship of that section.

In the Class A, Hoge was to oppose Burgess EUB, and in the Class B group, Hilltop was to play Hillcrest.

The regular league season was concluded Feb. 22, with Highland, Hoge, and Burgess all ending in a co-championship, all winning six of seven games. Highland lost to Hoge, 28-17; Hoge was defeated by Burgess, 20-18; and Burgess lost their lone game to Highland, 26-23.

However, Burgess avenged that latter defeat by handing Highland a stiff setback in the night's headliner. The night's summaries:

St. Paul-Hillcrest

Hillcrest, winless in regular season play of seven games avenged an earlier six point loss to St. Paul by edging the Saints in a close one, 35-33.

Thus, Hillcrest advances to the Class B finals against Hilltop, winner over West Park. St. Paul got off to a quick start, holding a 14-7 first quarter margin and 20-18 halftime lead, but things developed into a nip and tuck fashion in the final half, with a bad third period hurting St. Paul, the latter netting only two free throws in the entire quarter.

Miller of Hillcrest was high scorer with 16, while Joe Balthaser and Sonny Chappalear had 12 and 11, respectively, for the losers.

Hilltop-West Park

Leading only 22-19 entering the final period, Hilltop exploded for 16 points in the final quarter to leave West Park a 38 to 28 loss, and automatic elimination from seasonal play.

Jim Rose and Bob Parker sparked the last quarter spurt for Hilltop, hitting 10 points together as the final winners outscored West Park, 16-9, in the last quarter for the difference.

Rose finished as top scorer with 14 while "one-man-gang" Bryant topped West Park with 13 tallies.

Hoge-Arrows

Arrows playing without star forward Dick Robinson, gave Hoge quite a scare in the third period, but the latter managed to finally grab a convincing 46 to 32 win.

Dave Wahrer paced the Hoge attack all the way, hitting at least a bucket every period, and nine points in the second period and six in the third boasted his game total to 19.

Hoge held a nifty 23-12 halftime bulge, but the Arrows out-counted Hoge 17-10 in the third quarter to draw up to 35-29, but never could quite catch them due to the consistent hitting of Wahrer and Frank Ackers, who had 11, the same number registered by Gilbert Suttle of the losers.

Highland-Burgess

Highland Friends managed to make a game of it for the first three periods, but Burgess exploded in the final period to grab the night's feature contest by a 27 to 23 count.

Burgess led most of the way, by virtue of the hitting of Mo Dobbs and Terry Horn, the former connecting for 12 and Horn striking from mid-court for 11 points.

Burgess only held a 26-19 margin entering the final quarter, and it was still anyone's game, but the EUB's tapped in 11 valuable points in the period to only four for Highland, which more than spelled the difference.

Dave Bill was high scorer for Highland with seven points, in addition to playing a grand floor game.

Charlotte Canter has accepted a position at the Ohio National Bank in Columbus.

Cub Scout News

On Feb. 22, cubs of Den 4, Pack 86, took a trip to Port Columbus, where they watched the planes land and take off. They also visited the control tower and weather bureau. The Scouts on the trip were Jerry Buck, Michael Brady, Larry Barnet, Billy Bisbee, Reed Eagle, Danny Morris, David Morris, Tommy Morrison, David Nippert, Billy Nebinger, Kenneth Reber, and Ronnie Wells, with Den Mother Mrs. R. Eagle, assisted by Mrs. E. Morris and Mrs. C. Brady.

Strikes and Spares

By Gene Urben

For some unknown reason the Hilltop bowlers failed to shoot as many good scores this past week as they have thus far. Even though the scores were somewhat low, Norm Reeves hit for 226 and Clarence Lacy tripled 612. Hirsch & Hirsch Insurance continued their high-scoring ways with 952-2713.

Charlie Neeshan came up with 235 and Chuck Worthington scored 602. Allen Milks connected for a nice 279 but Ben Brew Beer outbowled them in capturing totals with 2708. Howard "Speedy" Kent shot a nice 229-621 to pace the way for Kent Builders as they built an 880-2619. Herb Awe also connected for a 602 in the Recreation loop.

Wally Chrishbaum hit for a big 256 but relinquished totals to Bill Frazure who had 593. Midwest Roofing and Heating had 938-2596. Norm Reeves was again in the spotlight with 237-578. Arco Electric had an 870 but Wahl Builders totaled 2433.

Marguerite Steward had 207 and Edna Latscha 519. Chubby's Market shot 788-2241. Edna Latscha was high for the second time with 196-515 as Corner Cafe had 771-2196. Kate Stewart came up with 202 and Hellen Neeshan a 516. Corner Cafe had 841-2441.

Camp Chase Post News

By John Martindale

Did you ever talk to a Congressman about veterans' problems? One member of Camp Chase Post did just that within the past week. This member really knows the problems of veterans because Robert Konkler is a Legion Department service officer at the Dayton VA Hospital. "Bob" attended the Legion's National Rehabilitation Conference in Washington, D. C., Feb. 26 to Mar 2.

These annual conferences bring together from all over the country those Legionnaires who are working hard throughout the year to better the conditions of those veterans who need help. During such conferences all phases of rehabilitation work are discussed in panel or round table sessions and serves as a clearing house for a variety of problems, interpretations, situations, and cases connected with the disabled veteran and the veteran's dependent.

"Bob" reports one of the high lights of his stay in Washington was meeting another Hilltop boy. They had a banquet to which the National Commander had as his guests ten veterans of the Korean war. Some of these were patients in the Bethesda Naval Hospital and some were from Walter Reed Hospital. One of these was Pfc. James E. Seman USMC whose home is at 367 Derrer-rd. As you can imagine these two boys had quite a chat when they found out that both were Hilltoppers.

Another item of note that "Bob" reports is that the Ohio congressional delegation was very much interested in learning more of the many veteran problems. The Legion group from Ohio was well able to acquaint the Ohio congressmen with their current problems throughout the state.

One of the Legionnaires from Ohio attending this conference was "Bob" Smith, Department Service Director. His many friends in Camp Chase Post will remember that "Bob" has been having a rough time of it as an amputee. He got out of the Dayton Hospital in January and had to get about on crutches while in Washington. We are also glad that "Herb" Michaels was able to attend. He has been for many years one of the sparkplugs of the Legion in Cincinnati, both as a service officer and in junior baseball work. He also has been on the sick list for some time.

Westgate Man Nabs Burglar

Police are holding Richard Lewis, 29, 32 S. Sixth-st, for investigation of burglary after he was found locked in the rest room of the Columbus Automotive Finish Co.

Lewis was apprehended when Robert E. Bailey, 50 N. Westgate-av, president of the company, returned to his office at 32 S. Sixth-st, Sunday afternoon, and found it ransacked and $3.50 missing from a desk drawer. He noticed the rest room door was locked and called police.

Lewis emerged from the rest room and handed Bailey his money. Police said he had broken a locked door to enter the office.

The Low Down On High Ridgers

By One of Them

Folks! You've all heard of talking dolls, birds and so forth, but in our neighborhood we have talking shoes—well almost anyhow. HERB DIXON'S shoes squeak. He got so much kidding that he got busy and rubbed lard on the soles. No luck. Then he soaked them in a little water—then used a liquid polish to get rid of the squeak. The "new" look vanished, and the squeak changed its tone to a higher pitch, that's all. Poor HERB!

Last Tuesday MARIAN HASTON was out swingin' her tennis racquet. She got spring fever on that day and decided to do a little practisin'.

A happy birthday is our wish to AMOS DAVEY who celebrated his 43rd birthday Saturday. A family party was arranged. Amos said he enjoyed himself so much, it was an evening he'll never forget.

NICHOLAS SLAV is a proud father since daughter ELSIE won a cup award for her dancing ability. She will return to New York next month to continue her studies.

MARTY McNICHOLS had his picture taken at a downtown studio. It took him five years to make up his mind to smile into a camera. His wife MURIEL has wanted a photo ever since he returned from war, so she coaxed him into it. And lo and behold! What happens? The real negatives were lost at the studio somehow and the sitting must be repeated. We wonder if MARTY will go all through it again.

He should have have gone to one of our "reliable studios" on the Hilltop. (plug here for somebody). Look in the "Record" Marty and go to a photographer in your own neighborhood.

Found! A broken heel on Belvidere. Owner must have green shoe to match.

A new refrigerator for the HOLMES family. Their main unit went bad—so they figured a new box would be wonderful for the MISSUS. Her birthday is this month and will suffice as a present, she says.

Broken specs were replaced by new ones when BILLIE STOMAD accidentally broke his daddy's eye glasses when they were romping together. Too much play results in destruction, "STOMMIE."

The half million dollar figure represents the cost of care to indigent patients for which no reimbursement was made to the hospitals by government or welfare agencies.

Civic Groups Aid TV Purchase For State School

A project in which many organizations and individuals on the Hilltop have shown interest is that of buying a television set for the use of women at the Columbus State School. There are three sets at the school now but all are in the men's department. Frank Longo, recreation director at the Columbus State School, says: "We have three TV sets now, but we need about 40 more."

The television set will be placed in Oak Grove, a cottage for older women, many of whom have been living at the State School for more than 20 years. Since there are few activities in which these women can participate, a television set would provide both entertainment and inspiration for about 100 women.

Money for this project is being raised by selling all-occasion cards for $1 a box. Groups of Bluebirds, Campfire Girls and Girl Scouts are helping with the sales. These cards may also be purchased in the Occupational Therapy Sales Room at the Columbus State School.

Lure Of Music Draws Interest Of Many At West Hi School

By Myron T. Seifert

"Music washes from the soul, the dust of every-day life," said a sage. And may we add music, good music, in which the music-lover has an active part (rather than as a passive listener) means much.

Teen-agers are naturals in the vocal and instrumental world of music. They love to sing, play and dance.

Cognizant of this, West Senior High School includes in its curricula a wide range of electives in the vocal and instrumental departments under competent supervision.

This semester scores of students find time to do musical chores in addition to an already full schedule. They are:

Kiwanian Nuts Revel At Hilarious Annual Party Dance

The stage production "Helzapoppin", couldn't have topped the banquet and dance given by the agricultural committee of the local Kiwanis, last Thursday evening at Hilliards High School.

The dinner started quietly and with due ceremony, but the aura of correctness and propriety was ended by a group of Hilliards girls, who converged upon the tuxedo-clad officers seated at the head dining table. The girls placed flowers in their buttonholes, massaged tired official brows, gently stroked perfume onto graying noggins, when suddenly the officers' gingham-clad wives burst onto the scene brandishing rolling pins, scrub-brushes and dusters with which they beat the young lovelies away from their hubbies.

After the blushing officers took a little marital chiding, the meal continued, punctuated by furnished exploding matches. Whatever stillness remained in the school's auditorium disappeared during the salad course, screams arose from shocked wives who found plastic cockroaches molded into their salads.

Attempted speeches followed the meal. The speeches were cut short by Al Bettinger's orchestra. Evidently, the orchestra members felt that their music could never be as bad as an after dinner speech.

Bringing the erring course of bers and guests. The prizes included a box of rotten apples, a jug of rotten apples, a jug of hard cider, a bushel of corn cobs, a bale of straw, a pound of limburger cheese, a dead fish, a huge soup bone and several potted geraniums.

Hartley, chairman of the agricultural committee, ended the awards by announcing that the committee had purchased a young calf to be awarded to some student the evening back into line, Emcee C. Carlton Hartley awarded the door prizes to the brave 175 mem- at the Hilliards school. The calf will be awarded to some lucky youth with the provision that the first offspring of the calf will be given in return to the Kiwanian committee, so that it may be awarded to another student, thus allowing the committee to set up a continuing project.

Dancing to the music of Al Bettinger's orchestra wound up the evening.

Before the altar of St. Aloysius Church, Feb. 3, Miss Elsie Cook, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Cook, 31 Stevens-av, became the bride of Mr. William Richard Swicegood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McInturff, 309 S. Warren-av. Rev. John E. Simon performed the formal ceremony in the church which was decorated with baskets of white flowers, palms and candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Leonard Cook, wore a white bridal-satin gown, fashioned with a sheer yoke edged with a deep ruffle of chantilly lace, and long sleeves tapering to points over her hands. From the fitted bodice the skirt fell gracefully over a hoop and swept into a full cathedral train completely encircled by a ruffle of chantilly lace. A full length veil edged by lace fell from a tiara of pearls and rhinestones, and her cascade bouquet was formed of white roses and stephanotis. A four strand pearl choker worn by the bride was a gift of the bridegroom.

The attendants wore matching marquisette gowns in rainbow colors, fashioned with deep yokes edged with shirred bands of taffeta forming a bertha and cap over the shoulders. Floor length, bouffant skirts were draped from the fitted bodices. Mitts and heart shaped bonnets were worn to complete their ensembles and they carried cascade bouquets in contrasting shades.

Miss Norma Acocella, niece of the bride, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn Swicegood, Mrs. Rose Becker, Miss Janet Camarca, Miss Rose mary Cook, Miss Mary Calluccio, and Miss Minnie Targi.

Flower Girl Beverly Baker wore a floor length gown of pink marquisette with blue velvet forming a sash, and forget-me-nots at her shoulder. She carried a miniature bouquet.

Best man for the bridegroom was Mr. James Cook, brother of the bride. Guests were seated by Mr. Jack Swicegood, Mr. Guy Acocella, Mr. Eddie Lee Acocella, Mr. Joe Camarca, Mr. James Valentino, and Mr. Fred Becker.

Master Harry Cook, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother, clad in a navy blue ensemble, greeted her guests at the reception held for 500 people at the K of P Hall. Mrs. Cook's corsage was of pink camellias. Mrs. McInturff wore a blue gown with white accents and her corsage was of pink camellias.

Leaving for their honeymoon at Rochester, N. Y., the bride wore a beige gabardine suit with navy accessories.

The new Mrs. Swicegood is a graduate of Central High School and is employed at the Cardi Beauty Shop. Mr. Swicegood, a West High School graduate, is employed as a machinist by the New York Central Railroad.

The young couple are making their home at 31 Stevens-av.

Mrs. Eugene Wolfe

Mrs. Mae G. Wolfe

In last week's edition of the Hilltop Record we committed the unforgivable error of getting the wrong picture over the wrong name. Through an error the photo of Mrs. Mae G. Wolfe, 484 Lilley-av, appeared over the name of Mrs. Eugene Wolfe, 76 N. Ogden-av.

In the above photos are shown the two women concerned. On the left is Mrs. Eugene Wolfe whose picture didn't get in the right place last week. On the right is Mrs. Mae G. Wolfe whom we incorrectly identified as Mrs. Eugene Wolfe. To both ladies we offer our public apologies.

Mrs. Eugene Wolfe is well known on the Hilltop and familiar to patrons of the Wolfe Electric Service, 2427 W. Broad-st, where she often can be found working. She is a member of Hilltop Kiwanikwe, the 37th Division, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliaries. Mrs. Eugene Wolfe has one daughter, Sylvia, a student at West High School.

Mrs. Mae G. Wolfe is also active in women's organizations. She is immediate past department president and acting national treasurer of the Army-Navy Union Auxiliaries and active in the Disabled War Veterans. She has three children, a daughter, Mrs. J. M. Allen, 2566 Eakin-rd, and two sons, W. J. Wolfe, 336 Sylvan-av, and Robert Wolfe, Cleveland, O.

Chedeayne Exhibit Now At Hilltop Branch Library

By W. "Doc" Campbell

"To be or not to be, that is the question, whether to go or not, to our outstanding Hilltop Library . . . for it is the best branch library in the city, and deserves your support once in a while, to see the current remarkable art exhibition now on display.

This exceedingly brilliant group of thirteen oils by the popular painter, Robert O. Chedeayne of OSU, is a collection, not controversial, but filled with splendid technique and subject matter, to enlist your open and complete enjoyment. Chedeayne loves the rocks and coast of Maine. All of his paintings portray the "vibrant atmosphere" of the delectable coast. The thrill of "purples" dominate his group . . . light houses, fishing boats or great waves dashing against rocks are depicted in realistic detail (not photographic) so that any of you may study his delineations of that unforgetable Maine coast.

Three of his canvasses appeal to my mind. The "Light House" is lovely in its pink and gray shadows and the Light House stands upright, sturdy, against a clear, vibrant sky. The loneliness of the "Light House" is so wondrously painted. It takes you away from civilization's teeming movements to the thought of a "Beacon Light" flashing its warning to lonely vessels nearing that treacherous coast.

Another painting, merely called "Still Life" is more daring in treatment, it is up to date (not that the others are not) but it will be less understood. I like its intentness of flat colors. . . . its brilliancy of execution. Then another, the large painting of "Kitchen Utensils", is definitely remarkable in its detailed drawing . . . in fact, so positive in its composition and realism, that it commands the attention of most segments of peoples, young or old.

The other painting of Maine wharfs and docks in a "purple arrangement," beautiful in its gradations, is truly a lovely exposition of common; old, wharfs, etc. You will love it I am sure! Chedeayne is positively popular. Many homes in Columbus own his paintings. Go see them . . . revel in their realism and color beauty, and be glad you can have a collection so understandable, for the month of March, on the Hilltop.

Warren Avenue Church Nearing Completion

SHOWN ABOVE is a view of the new Warren Avenue Church of the Nazarene currently being built at the corner of S. Warren-av and Whitehead on the site of the old church. The new stone church edifice is now being made ready for its roof and it is the hope of the pastor, Rev. Harris B. Anthony, that first church services might be held some time in the latter part of April or the first of May.

Burgess EUB To Observe Special Services

In observance of World Missions Sunday, this Sunday, Mar. 1, the pastor, Rev. Lane, will preach on the subject "Three Calls to Missions" at the 10:30 a. m. service of Burgess EUB Church.

The new missionary officers will be installed at the morning service and representatives from the society will appear on the program. The Junior Choir will deliver special music under the direction of Mrs. William Clifford and Marolyn Matthews.

A religious film will be shown at 7:30 evening service in observance of the spirit of Missions for the day. The picture is entitled, "South of The Clouds" and has gained for itself considerable praise and recognition. Rev. Lane, having been engaged in a two-week's evangelistic campaign at Pataskala, will conclude the preaching mission this Sunday night.

A service station operator in Birmingham, Ala., got so excited over a football game he absentmindedly scattered $200 along a street. Bet that set many a man in motion.

CAMP FIRE GIRL ACTIVITIES

On Saturday, Mar. 3, 14 of the 31 members of the Pat-Ki-Ga group of Camp Fire Girls passed their Trail Seeker Rank. This is the first of the four ranks required, and, naturally, each girl was very proud to have passed with flying colors.

The girls have been very busy the last two months taking the cooking course offered by the Gas Company. They learned to make several delicious recipes, which should be a good start on the road to being a fine cook. The first lesson consisted of learning to make four different salads, one of them being the art of deviling eggs. One Pat-Ki-Ga deviled so many eggs the first two weeks after this particular lesson that her daddy remarked he was growing pin feathers. All in all, though, the girls had a wonderful time.

The last of January, the group was taken through the city prison. They were very much interested in every department of this complicated system, especially the finger-printing procedure.

On Feb. 7 the girls were visited at their meeting place, St. John Lutheran Church, by Sue Kerr, one of the field directors of Camp Fire Girls. At this meeting a motion was made to give $5 from the group treasury to the Heart Fund.

Bible Comment:

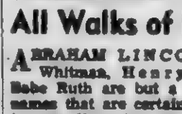
Jesus Chose as Friends Men From All Walks of Life

ABRAHAM LINCOLN, Walt Whitman, Henry Ford and Babe Ruth are but a few of the names that are certain to pop up in any discussion on men whose personal lives truly uphold the principles of democracy.

Few stop to realize that Jesus led the most perfectly democratic life. The proof of any man's involvement in a day-to-day life completely free from bias and prejudice is in the company he keeps.

Let us look at the friends of Jesus.

The disciples themselves were from fishing boats, customs houses, places of learning and all walks of life. Jesus said of them, "I have not called you servants, for the servant knoweth not what the Lord doeth, but I have called you friends."



But among His friends were also great men in authority, like the Roman centurion, whose faith He commended. There was also Nicodemus, the ruler of the Jews who came to Him by night.

Throughout His life Jesus received invitations to feasts and banquets in the homes of such wealthy personages as Simon, the Pharisee. In fact it was prosperous Joseph of Arimathea who claimed the Master's body and gave it burial.

But Jesus also befriended the sick and the needy, some of whom were unkempt and dressed in rags. And those publicly condemned as sinners also "heard Him gladly." His kindness was such that it brought upon Jesus the reproach of the Pharisaic, "this man receiveth sinners and eateth with them."

The rich, poor, sick and strong were the friends of Jesus. And He was a friend to them all.

Can the records of antiquity produce one other life as gloriously democratic?

Shellhaas will preach the first week on the following topics: Monday — "What Must I Do to be Saved?"; Tuesday—"How Can a Man Be Born Again?"; Wednesday, "What Wilt Thou Have Me to Do?"; Thursday—"Who Can Open the Seal?"; and Friday—"Whom Do Men Say That I Am?".

Every Member Church Canvass Planned Mar. 11

Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Rink, 600 S. Roys-av, are chairmen for the West District in the Every Member Canvass of First Congregational Church to be held Sunday, Mar. 11.

Robert F. J. Bauer, 785 Chestershire-rd, is West vice chairman. General chairman for the entire city is Mylin H. Ross, 1786 Coventry-rd, assistant dean of men at Ohio State University.

Every member of First Church has two assignments for Sunday—first, to attend the morning service to hear a special message from the pastor, Dr. Boynton Merrill, and then in the afternoon between 2 and 6, to either be a visitor or to remain at home to receive callers.

During those four hours pledges will be received from First Church's 1500 members to carry out the church program for the new year starting April 1.

As a guide to giving this year, the local church is suggesting that each family subscribe three per cent of its annual income to the church, while also setting aside a similar amount for community health and welfare activities which are not church sponsored.

Spanish Club, West Hi-Y Club, Debate Club Offer Diversified Interests To Many Students

SPANISH CLUB

The purpose of the Spanish Club is to augment the spoken Spanish and to familiarize the members with the Spanish and Hispanic customs, literature and arts, thereby encouraging friendship with the Spanish-speaking countries.

Any student with a "B" average in Spanish is eligible to join.

Meetings are held the third Thursday of each month at 8 in the morning. The meetings carry out the purpose of the club.

One traditional social function is the "carnival" held every second year to entertain the French Club.

WEST HIGH HI-Y CLUB

The Hi-Y is one of the country's oldest high school organizations.

The name, Hi-Y, represents a movement of high school youth who, as members of the YMCA, are committed to a Christian purpose at work in the high school and in the community.

Each Columbus public high school has at least one charter of Hi-Y. Each club works with its own officers in its own school. The clubs are then represented by members on a city-wide Hi-Y council. This council meets once each month at the YMCA to discuss problems in each of the clubs. The council sets up the inter-school Hi-Y athletic meets and schedules. They arrange for out-of-town speakers and entertainment for the clubs to use. The high light of the year is City Government Day when the Hi-Y clubs of Columbus take over the city administration.

The Hi-Y at West High is considered one of the most outstanding clubs in the school. It is generally noted for its active contribution to the yearly school program. It is a standing duty of the club to sponsor the Thanksgiving Day assembly and the Easter Assembly. Then each summer the club sends two boys to Camp Nelson Dodd at Brinkhaven, O., for one week. The purpose of the camp is to train the members to be officers in the club.

To become a member of this club one must commit himself for the purpose and the platform of the organization.

The purpose is: To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

The platform is: Clean living, clean speech, athletics and scholarship.

If any person, regardless of race or creed, can live up to these standards, he is eligible to become a member of the Hi-Y.

The function of the Hi-Y is to help boys achieve a more Christian way of living by developing personal integrity and self-discipline, developing a growing sense of personal worth, maintaining perspective in a world of shifting values, performing useful community service, preparing in thought and action for the post-war world, conserving and strengthening democratic tradition, cooperating with other groups of young people to achieve these objectives.

No person will be admitted to the club unless he has pledged himself to work for and support the club in every way possible.

Adviser is Mr. Sedgewick.

DEBATE CLUB

The Debate Club, under the supervision of its adviser, E. M. Kaylor meets at 8 a. m. the fourth Wednesday of each month. The club is directed in a business-like manner, and gives its members training in parliamentary procedure.

The topics to be discussed are chosen by the program committee with the president acting as ex-officio member. The purpose of the club is to increase the ability of the members to speak effectively.

Former Hilltop Man Leads Fight On Mine Accidents

The son of a former Hilltop grocer will head a new and aggressive drive to cut the number of accidents in the nation's mine transportation systems.

The drive will be conducted by Donald S. Kingery, a long-time resident and a graduate in mining engineering from Ohio State University. Kingery will take over as section chief in the newly created Mine Haulage Safety Section of the Bureau of Mines.

He is at present outlining a program designed to eliminate the recurrence of many of the 255 recorded deaths each year, caused by accidents in mine transportation systems.

The first step in his accident prevention program will consist of an educational series, beginning with short movies depicting bad safety practices and showing what steps can be taken to overcome these hazards. Accidents in the mine transportation series will include accidents in elevators, rail cars, conveyor belts and other types of haulage.

Lectures using blackboard illustrations and the movies will be shown to mine operators and miners.

The trend in mine accidents has been on the rise, according to Kingery, because of the vast expansion of transportation facilities which goes hand in hand-in-hand with a general mechanization of the mine industry. Contributing to the rise are deeper mine shafts, requiring longer load hauling, and the shorter work day which has caused a work day speed-up.

Kingery became interested in mine engineering after he graduated from West High School and while attending Ohio State University he majored in the subject. After he graduated from the university, he spent a three year hitch in the army engineers.

He went to work in an engineering capacity and later a supervisory capacity in coal mines in eastern Ohio and Pennsylvania, after he received [illegible]

Hilltop Record Wins Honors At Newspaper Show

There's a new star in the crown of your Hilltop Record today as a result of last week's annual convention of the Ohio Newspaper Association and the Osman C. Hooper newspaper show. For the ninth time The Hilltop Record was awarded a prize as one of Ohio's better weekly newspapers.

The Record was named first in the display advertising section. Prize winning entry was a two color advertisement on RCA Victor Television over the signatures of Better Home Center, C. C. Robinson Co. and Westgate Electric.

In addition to this award the Record also gained recognition by being accorded an honorable mention in the special editions class, based upon the Progress Edition of Nov. 5.

Climax of the annual newspaper publishers' convention was an open house inspection of the new, modern, Hilltop Record printing plant by publishers and editors from all over Ohio. Specially chartered Greyhound busses transported the publishers to the printing plant for the tour which was sponsored by Wood Newspaper Machinery Corp., manufacturers of the "Cosmopolitan Press" of which The Hilltop Record is proud possessor of the first one in the United States.

West Paper Drive Nets School $900

West High School's recent waste paper drive held on Feb. 28, conducted by the school students, netted a total of 37½ tons of paper, according to an announcement by I. F. Young, school principal. Sale of the waste paper grossed the school a profit in excess of $900, Young said.

Money derived from sale of the waste paper will be used to underwrite some needed school project.

Seniors Vote Caps, Gowns For Graduates

Whether West High seniors who graduate in June, 1951, will be styled in caps and gowns at commencement rites is now contingent upon whether arrangements can be made to procure the necessary wherewithal (both in a supply of caps and gowns and rental fees, to be assessed students).

Seniors voted almost unanimously Monday morning to bedeck the graduates in caps and gowns. The result of the voting showed 152 in favor, 19 opposed.

Hamilton Ditch Suit Dismissal Is Requested

County commissioners and County Auditor Fred C. Dunn have requested dismissal of a petition for $1,027.76 in damages. The petition was filed by William Harvey Jones, 44 E. Broad-st, who lodged the claim because of the projected Hamilton Ditch improvement.

Answering the petition, commissioners said the assessment on Jones' 200 acres in Brown Township, which the ditch crosses, "represents the proportion of the cost of the location and construction of the ditch, improvement of which is of benefit" to his lands.

Name Air Raid Warden Here

Jerry Spears, Jr., 2893 W. Broad-st, has been named zone air raid warden for the Hilltop area. One of the seven zone wardens named for the entire city, Spears will serve under Chief Warden Burton L. West, Sr.

The zone wardens will appoint district wardens who, in turn, will name post and block wardens. The plan calls for the districts of post and block wardens to follow ward and precinct lines whenever possible.

Hilltop Kiwanians Honor Veteran Local Physician

Dr. Howard Whitehead, 2239 W. Broad-st, is pictured above holding the Hilltop Kiwanis Club plaque granting him life membership in the organization and honoring him for his community service.

The plaque presented to Dr. Howard Whitehead reminded him of his 57 years on the Hilltop, 56 of them as a practicing physician.

The plaque read: "The Hilltop Kiwanis Club, Columbus, O., By a resolution of its Board of Directors confers upon Dr. Howard Whitehead Honorary Life Membership, in recognition of valuable and distinguished service to the community."

The dean of Hilltop doctors had previously received honors from Ohio State University's College of Medicine, from the Columbus Academy of Medicine, which he once served as president, and now he has been honored by his own community. Dr. Whitehead felt that this last award was perhaps the best of all. "It means something," he said, "when you're honored by the people you've served."

"Looking back over those years," he said, "they were good years. I went into medical practice because I wanted to help people. I had that opportunity and I've used is. But I'm proud," he added, "that I've never abused the opportunity; I've never tried to gouge anyone."

When he was presented with the plaque at the Kiwanis Club meeting last Thursday, he turned the tables on the awarders by presenting them with a check for the club's welfare program.

The gentle, white-haired, mustached doctor retired from active practice a year ago because of a heart condition.

April Draft For West Side Set At 42

The draft will call five less boys from the West Side in April than it will in March, according to Mrs. Della Wagner, head of Draft Board 42. Forty-two West Siders will be drafted in April as against the 47 to be called this month.

The 42 youths will be selected from the age group born prior to Nov. 1, 1930, according to Mrs. Wagner.

St. Patrick's Day To Be Observed By Kiwanis Club

Rev. W. F. Maloney

"An Irishman's Prerogative" is the subject of an address to be given at the regular meeting of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club Thursday by Rev. William F. Maloney, pastor of St. Aloysius Church. The speech will highlight the Kiwanis observation of St. Patrick's Day.

Rev. Maloney is well known throughout the Hilltop area for his work at St. Aloysius during the past 10 years. He celebrated his Silver Jubilee of Ordination on May 21 of last year by offering of Mass in St. Peters of Rome as part of his Holy Year visitation. Born in Delaware, Rev. Maloney is a graduate of Aquinas and took his Seminary training at Niagara University.

Chairman of the Thursday Kiwanis meeting will be Larry Scales.

Registration Deadline Is Monday

Monday, Mar. 19, is an important red-letter date for many Hilltop citizens, it is the deadline for registration, or re-registration, of many prospective voters, if they hope to vote at the polls on Tuesday, Apr. 10, when the necessary Columbus school bond legislation will be voted upon.

Registration is necessary before voting, according to Franklin County Board of Elections, 314½ S. High-st, where official registration may be completed before Monday, Mar. 19.

Persons in the following categories must re-register: 1. Women who have been married since the last election. 2. Persons who have changed residence more than 40 days before the election—i. e., in this instance, before Mar. 7, 1951. 3. Persons who have not voted within the last two years.

Persons who have just become 21 years of age should be encouraged to register also.

The Board of Elections is open for registration from 8 to 4:30 on Monday through Friday and from 8 a. m. to 12 noon on Saturday. On Mar. 19 the hours will be 8 a. m. to 9 p. m.

New Children's Home Half Completed

Two of the well-designed cottages now under construction for the new Franklin County Children's Home on Frank-rd, just east of Briggsdale, are shown above. The cottages are part of the one and one-quarter million dollar construction approved by voters in 1945.

The kids in the Franklin County Children's Home, 540 Sunbury-rd, don't consider themselves the luckiest kids in town . . . but wait until they get a look at their future home on Frank-rd, which is now more than 50 per cent complete.

The new Children's Home, located just east of Briggsdale, is one of the better examples of modern institutional architecture. The one and one-half million dollar home is composed of nine cottages, an administration building, a medical center and a gymnasium.

The buildings, constructed in oval formation around a small valley, are low, ranch-style, brick units which will house 176 children. Standing on the rim of the valley, each cottage faces a small stream that wanders through the 85-acre plot.

Each cottage was designed as a separate unit and differs from its neighbor in position, elevation and some small touch of decoration.

The project, designed by Inscho, Brand & Inscho, 60 E. Broad-st, will be ready for occupancy in August.

The project was sponsored by the Child Care Committee of the American Legion. Allying themselves with other civic bodies, they proposed a bond issue which was passed by a lop-sided margin in 1945.

The bond issue is providing Columbus with one of the most modern homes for the city's youth—the finest, for the finest.

Ask Merchants To Close On Good Friday

Membership of the church committee of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club headed by their chairman, Wendell Glass, were this week making a plea to merchants in the Hilltop area to close their places of business on Good Friday, Mar. 23, from the hours of 12 noon to 3 p. m.

In past years response to this request has been widespread throughout the area and members of the committee expressed the desire this week that the same support would again be given.

Members of the Kiwanis church committee are Paul Rausch, Dr C. O. Miller, Robert Cramer, Major Arthur West, Rev. Harold Dutt and Howard Lloyd.

West Triangle Club Chooses Queen Friday

From a field of nine candidates for royalty, one will emerge queen at the 24th annual Triangle Club dance to be held at the West High gymnasium tomorrow night (Mar. 16) from 8:30 to 11:30.

The bevy of West High beauties vieing for the queen honor are, seniors: Marcia Patridge, Patty Sands, Joan Melfi; juniors, Olympia Pappas, Carol Perry, Carol Rickert; sophomores, Mary Ann Oberting, Sue Key and Shirley Burns.

Ziggy Coyle and his orchestra will be on hand to lend music to the occasion.

Aids Homeless

Mothers of Brownie Troop 110 gathered clothing and donated it to the Lee Parsons family, whose home in Briggsdale burned last week.

Local Liquor Permit Decision 'Still Under Advisement' by Bd.

No action has as yet been taken toward granting or rejection of a liquor license to Albert Hawraney at 2814 W. Broad-st by the Ohio Liquor Control Department, according to information released from its headquarters at 24 N. Third-st, this week.

A strong protest by Hilltop clergymen and school officials was lodged against issuance of the license on Mar. 2 when hearings were held before the permit division of the liquor department. Specific objections against granting the permit were based upon the fact that both schools and churches are within the 500 foot limitation provided by state law.

A spokesman for the liquor department, however, pointed out that should the permit division deny a license for the W. Broad-st location that an appeal was possible directly to the Liquor Control Board to reverse decision of the permit division. A hearing would then again become necessary with notification to all parties concerned.

HBA Hears Tax Expert's Views

The many intricacies of income tax were served as a dessert course to the members of the Hilltop Business Association at their meeting Tuesday evening by Roger Powell, tax consultant.

Three numbers were presented by the West High Quartet, and an appeal for the coming bond issue for schools was made by Jerry Witherspoon, West senior.

The association voted to endorse the three bond issues being presented by the Metropolitan committee.

Membership in the association was voted to Gateway Realty, Howells Sunoco Service, George Painter Grocery and Schulz Market.

Hilltop Lions To Receive Member Keys

Hilltop Lions Club membership keys will be presented to President George Shaaf, Bob Delon, Jack Schmelzer and Pinky Higgins by District Governor Lawrence R. Holtsberry at their regular meeting, Thursday, Mar. 15.

A separate key award will be made to William Thiempt, who has been hospitalized since an auto struck him. Films will be shown at the meeting by Don F. Smith.

Hilltop Liquor Store To Move

Announcement was made this week by State Liquor Director William C. Bryant that the Hilltop's state liquor store at 2360 W. Broad-st will be moved some time within the near future to an as yet undetermined location. The present plan to relocate the state store, according to department officials, is to make it more accessible to Hilltoppers after the closing of a private agency at 3105 W. Broad-st.

Discontinuance of the private agency now operated by Jean Williams at 3105 W. Broad-st will take place after the relocation of the state owned store, liquor department authorities said. The discontinuance of the privately owned agency is in line with a recent Ohio Supreme Court decision upholding the right of the liquor department to cancel private agency contracts.

Liquor Director Bryant said, "The termination of the contracts is no criticism of the operators of such agencies."

Eight-Year-Old Billie Hart Wins First Skates at Record

THIRD GRADER at John Burroughs Elementary School is Billie Hart, age 8, son of Mrs. Ruby Hart, 148 S. Terrace-av, but that is no indication that he can't hold his own in competition with older youngsters of the Hilltop.

Billie proved it this past week by running off with the first pair of the 500 pairs of skates The Hilltop Record is giving FREE to youngsters for new or renewed subscriptions. Billie dropped into the Record office Thursday afternoon and on Friday he had a pair of brand new skates to wear during these spring days.

It's easy enough to win them—ask Billie Hart—or better yet stop in at The Hilltop Record offices and ask for Mr. Cunningham.

NEW COPY DEADLINES

Deadline for all church schedules and stories to be printed in the Mar. 22 issue is 10:30 a. m. Saturday, Mar. 17. No copy will be accepted after this time.

Effective immediately, a new deadline for all display advertising goes into effect: FINAL deadline for ALL display advertising will be 5 p. m. Monday, week of publication.

AN EDITORIAL

Community's Greatest Asset

Columbus, including the Hilltop community, has been experiencing a dual boom in population and housing, according to records released by the Columbus Board of Education and the Ohio State University Bureau of Educational Research.

During the past decade 17,953 dwelling units have been constructed within the city limits, and a building boom, particularly on the Hilltop, has created a vital housing problem among schools in the community where an influx of population, including births, is already bulging the present structures.

A visit to any local school (and open-house for parents is every day) will convince Hilltop parents of the need for larger and better equipped quarters for their children.

Comparing the total birth rate of the years 1931-1940 inclusive with the years 1941-1950, there has been an increase of 24,689 births in the latter decade in Columbus.

A 1950 survey made by the Bureau of Educational Research, Ohio State University, in conjunction with the Columbus Public Schools, reveals that enrollments are expected to continue on the upgrade during the next 10 years.

At their expected peak: Grades 1-6 will be 40% above the 1949 enrollment; Grades 7-9 will be 66% above the 1949 enrollment; and Grades 10-12 will be 62% above the 1949 enrollment.

The increased birth rate of the past decade has already influenced our lower grades so that even now many of our elementary buildings are overcrowded, especially in recently developed residential areas such as the Hilltop. Next year 1000 additional children will stand at the portals of kindergarten and first grade. CAN WE TURN THEM AWAY?

Your vote on Tuesday, Apr. 10, FOR THE SCHOOL BOND ISSUE will insure better and more suitable quarters for this community's children—YOUR GREATEST ASSET.

License Tag Sale Hours Are Changed

Sale of license tags by the Hilltop Kiwanis Club at the C. C. Robinson Co., W. Broad-st and Wayne-av, will be made during the evenings beginning next week, according to Harold Fox, chairman, who announced new sale hours this week.

Fox said that, beginning Tuesday, Mar. 20, tags would be on sale from 9 a. m. until 8 p. m. in order to permit those who work during the day an opportunity to secure tags before the final rush days.

Everyone seeking tags, however, must present certificate of title, properly stamped, before tags may be issued, Fox warned.

"There Are Irish And Those Who Wish . . ."

By O'Van Atta

Don't bat your prize offspring in the kisser, when he runs in Saturday morning with a comment something like this:

"Hey, I think I got rocks in me widdle head: everything's green this morning, and it isn't even Spring!" . . .

Hold yourself in check and sit down with the little angel on your knee and read him this story:

"It's like this—way, way, long ago, and once upon a time, Ireland wasn't quite the country it is today. So, to straighten things out, St. Patrick went to work and established Christianity firmly in the Isle of Erin.

"St. Patrick was highly respected by the people of Ireland, so they celebrate Mar. 17, the day of St. Patrick's death, as a national holiday."

About this time the offspring will probably wobble on your knee and demand to know about "the snakes I heard those funny lookin' people with the round and the tall hats and the green ties, green socks, green shirts, green suits, and the green three-leafed things in their coat lapels talking about, huh?"

(At this point, do not insert hand into small oral opening—those teeth are sharp, you know; rather speak softly and firmly, thusly:)

"Son, the snakes the members of the Loyal Order of Hibernians referred to are part of the legend that has grown up around St. Patrick. At the time St. Patrick arrived in Ireland, the Emerald Isle was said to be overrun with snakes. Every loyal son o' the sod will tell you that St. Patrick drove the snakes into the sea."

"Well, natch, but what about those green clothes and the green leafy thing in their lapels, already yet?"

Exercise restraint again at the interruption and continue:

"Since green is the color of the Emerald Isle, the Irish always wear it in commemoration of St. Patrick's Day and the green leafy thing you refer to is a shamrock, a type of clover which St. Patrick used to symbolize the holy trinity of the Christian Church."

Invariably at this point you may expect a question something like this:

"Daddy (or Mommy), what's Bock, like those green people was talkin' about?"

"Well, that to which you refer is a special beverage prepared for the day o' the wearing o' the green. Some people insist that no nectar other than it is fit to pass the lips o' a County Cork man on a day like this, b'gorry!"

Sure'n there's somethin' about a day like this a St. Patrick's that brings out a bit a' the soul a' every truee son a' the auld sod . . .

"But, Daddy, we've got a German name . . ."

At this point push out your chest and sing a few bars of "Mother Machree" and admit:

"Sure'n now, neither me mither or me fither carried a true Irish name, but t'weren't their fault, none at all . . . You see, there are only two types of people in this world:

"Those who are Irish, and those who wish they were Irish."

Price May Stymie Cabbage Tossers At Annual Hilltop Minstrel Show

"Same as golden nuggets," says groceryman Jerry Watson of Watson Food Market, 3117 W. Broad-st. Jerry, of course, was referring to the two heads of cabbage he holds in his hands. This vegetable item, according to the veteran Hilltop grocer, is one which has really soared in price.

Housewives, he said, have commented on the rising cost of cabbage and he added, "They're so costly I doubt that there'll be any market for them around Apr. 12 and 13 when the Hilltop Minstrel Show rolls around. They'll be too expensive to toss toward the HRA boys who'll be staging the minstrel. Same as throwing gold nuggets at them."

Jerry, incidentally, is chairman of the advertising committee for the show.

Busy Service Station Owner G. Hamilton Enjoys Hobbies

Glenn Hamilton

Glenn Hamilton, 2804½ Sullivant-av, owner of the Sohio Station at Hague and Sullivant-avs, opened his station in September, 1922. It is the oldest station, still in the hands of the original owner, on the Hilltop.

When Glenn opened his station it was outside the city limits. The city, and the Hilltop in particular, have grown up about him. Only a few streets running off Sullivant-av were paved at that time and an auto was still somewhat of a doubtful thing in bad weather.

Smiling, Hamilton said, "Only other station around then was one at the corner of Sullivant and Central-avs."

Married, the father of one daughter, Hamilton's hobbies are photography and flying. He flies out of Sullivant Avenue Airport.

He is a Mason, a member of the American Legion and the Knights of Pythias.

Our Easter Traditions

Behind each and everyone of our Easter traditions is a meaning.

Little children look forward to the Easter bunny to bring bright colored eggs and candies.

Perhaps you may ask, "What connection has the egg with Easter?" The Easter egg is an ancient symbol of reviving life, often colored for flowers or by Christians, for the blood of Christ.

Many look forward to donning light weight clothing and pretty Easter bonnets which symbolizes a change in season—from cold to warm. Older people realize that Easter means warmer weather ahead and in many cases that means fewer "aches and pains" caused by cold weather.

Easter in the Anglo-Saxon or Norse was the goddess of Spring. Eostre or Ostroa to whom the month Enstur, corresponding to our April, was sacred. Christians and Jews, the world over, century upon century, have looked upon Easter as the holiest time of the year.

The Aramean pascha, which signifies "passing over," in the apostolic times, continued to be celebrated by the Christian and Jewish as the Jewish Pass-over, giving to the feast a Christian significance.

To Christians, Easter commemorates the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ as the chief Christian festival. Because of the early dispute as to the proper date for the resurrection the council of Nice in 325 set up a movable church calendar. However, uniformity was not attained until the 7th century.

Although Easter is almost as old as time itself, it is looked forward to with great anticipation each year as something new and glorious. Given to us by God, the giver of all things, Easter this year marks a new era for the entire world.

May He who arose to save us from sin, see fit to save us from world disaster, grant a new understanding and world peace with the approach of the new season—Easter.

GOOD HEALTH

Answer to Question No. 1:

1. With advancing years common colds become less frequent, but chronic bronchitis, asthma and pneumonia are more common and more serious. It is always a good idea to consult a physician about a heavy cold, because in their early stages many diseases resemble colds.

Answer to Question No. 2:

2. Some persons are born with flat feet. Others acquire them because of wearing out, improper shoes or lack of exercise for the foot muscles. Special exercises or shoes are often prescribed by physicians to help this condition.

Answer to Question No. 3:

3. The bite of the wood tick may cause an infectious disease that has been named "Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever" in the western part of the United States. Recently a similar fever has been found in the eastern portion of the United States and is transmitted by the bite of the dog tick. A vaccine for both types of fever has been developed and the use of antibiotics is effecting cures.

Letters To The Editor

This newspaper invites letters from its readers on subjects of timely interest. All letters, however, must be one more than 400 words in length and all must be signed by the writer. The writer's name will be omitted if requested.

Sir:
Editor

There is much question at the present time as to what should be done about the mess in Korea. Has anyone thought of approaching the matter in a perfectly honest and straight-forward way?

First, admit that we are the aggressors and that we have no business invading Korea or any other country. Second, bring back our army to America. Third, pay for the damage that we have done in Korea.

In order to do this, the following program would be necessary.

First, impeach Truman as a war monger who ordered the invasion of Korea by illegal action, without reference to congress who, under our constitution only, can declare war.

Second, if the dangers of invasion from Communistic Russia are in any serious issue, which is doubtful, build up our home defenses and don't weaken ourselves by a war on the other side of the world.

Third, go to China and Russia, after showing our humility by the above action and tell them we are not warmongers; that the one thing we want to do is to live at peace and in cooperation with all nations. Since the fact that the invasion which took place was contrary to the desires of the majority of the American people, who under our representative form of government, should have, and will in the future have, control of our acts.

In doing this we will not lose face, we will not kill our sons, and if we are fearless in our honesty, we will achieve a lasting peace with all the world.

Yours very truly,

To The Editor:

For a long time after the free school system was in operation there was no systematic plan for grading the pupils. When the child entered school, the first step was to teach him the ABC's and to count. By the time he had learned the alphabet, he was taught that letters formed words. Then followed the primer, the first reader, the second reader and so on until he had completed the sixth reader. His advancement was measured by his ability to read. Along with reading he was taught spelling and writing. As soon as he had learned to count, he was taught simple combinations, and so began arithmetic and the traditional three R's: reading, writing and arithmetic.

The teacher in the one room school taught all the classes from the primer to the sixth reader and to the three R's were added as the pupil advanced, history, geography and grammar. The teacher was kept so busy hearing classes that she had but little, if any, time for individual help. The pupil had to get the lessons himself. He gained his knowledge the hard way, by working for it. What he got, he knew and usually retained. In time, from this custom grew the pedagogical maxim, "The act of acquiring knowledge is of greater value to the child, than the knowledge itself."

Physical education? Oh, yes, we got plenty of exercise in doing the chores morning and evenings at home, walking one to three miles over mud roads to school, and playing games at school.

But time moves on and changes come. The three R's have been supplanted with such symbols as the three H's, head, hand and heart, and the three M's, mind, matter and method. These new ideas of education have added to the regular course of study, athletics, musical training, domestic science, manual training and other activities, until the training attempted is spread over so many things that the criticism of our educational system is that the product of today is not as well prepared for life as in former years, that his education is spread so thin that he lacks efficiency in the business world.

The writer is not offering this criticism, but we have passed through many of the above mentioned changes. We entered school in 1878, commenced teaching in 1883, taught 33 years, and then retired. Fifteen years were spent as principal and eight years as superintendent. We have heard all the criticisms. We leave it to you to decide whether or not they are well founded.

Hilltoppers Win First Game in Knothole Tourney

Hilltop Pumas A.C. won their first game of the City Knothole Basketball Senior Tournament last Saturday evening at Schiller Park, defeating Bexley Panthers, 22-21, in a thriller.

"Kid" Bryant topped the Pumas with nine while Dave Miller had eight. Cliff Everett won the game, sinking a free throw with 15 seconds remaining to break a 21-all tie.

Central Pirates Oust Cowboys From District Tourney Play

It was the old story again last Friday night as Central High's Pirates romped over West's Intercollegiate experts, 39-27, in the semi-finals of the Central District Class A tournament staged in the Fairgrounds coliseum.

It marked the eleventh straight win registered by a Central basketball team over West. The Cowboys defeated Central in an overtime in 1945, and that was the last time they had turned the trick.

The seemingly unstoppable streak continued last Friday as Shadel Saunders' crew eliminated the Willtoppers. East swamped the Bucs, 59-36, the next night to capture the district title for the second consecutive season.

Big Bob (Honey) Smith and Ted Alexander sparked the Pirates in the romp over the Cowboys, which wasn't a push-over by a long shot. Fred Reichenauer again pinch-batted for the injured George Williams, but suffered his initial loss as a varsity coach.

West had more shots at the basket, 76-23, but sank 17, three less than Central, who averaged only 26.5. However, most of West's shots were hurried, much more so than Central's. Alexander and Smith paced the attack in the first half, mainly under the basket, but little Roy Clark was the fellow who broke West's back.

Unguarded, he poured through three quick baskets for Central near the finish of the first half, and then pocketed another midway of the third quarter to spell the evening's difference.

Although West managed to hold Central to only eight points in the final quarter, they scored only 13 themselves, and that, along with earlier mistakes went a long way in deciding the contest.

West's guards, Jerry Johnson and Russ Friend, who, in previous tournament outings, usually took up the scoring slack left when high scorers Jerry Trabue, Bog Smith, and Bob Thornton were bottled under the bucket, were off considerably in the Central fray.

Johnson, who hold hit 43 points in the three previous tourney games, sank only three points in the latter game. His only basket came with 20 seconds left in the game. Friend played his usual bang-up game and both Johnson and Friend played brilliant floor games despite the game's result.

Trabue was the only individual hitting throughout the game. He hit four buckets in the first quarter — usually his off period, and followed up with three in the second, five in the third, and another trio in the final quarter to grab 19 markers and high scoring honors.

The fray was an even affair for the first quarter as things ended in a 14-all deadlock, after most of the period was spent in merely changing hands with the lead. Central pulled away near the end of the half to hold a 26-21 halftime margin.

Central held the lead from then on, and West put on a bid for the lead in the early stages of the final quarter—netting seven quick points to Central's lone bucket to pull within 37-44 with 5:41 left. However, "Red" Cassady and Bob Smith pushed in two quick bunnies to hand Central a lead that was never again threatened.

SPORT SLANT S

By Dave Miller

Another basketball season has come and gone, and the thoughts of most of the Hilltop athletes are now turning to either baseball or track despite the windy days the weather man is still slinging at us.

The track, golf, and baseball candidates reported to their meetings last week, but not much was accomplished outside of helping the coach decide who's who.

Some individual, unknowing to the coaches, listed themselves under all three sports as a tryout candidate in hopes of making at least one of them.

Naturally, the coaches, Rufe Glass of track; student directors, Marvin Schultz and Jim Remington of baseball; Harold Washburn in golf, have a small idea of what their teams are going to be like this spring—but they're keeping that bit of info to themselves.

Baseball

Along the baseball line, some 46 prospects reported to Coaches Schultz and Remington, two West grads, who will guide this year's diamond crew, due to the injury to Head Coach George Williams.

Of this number, six received varsity letters as members of last year's second-place City League entry. Four others received reserve awards, while numerous others who reported came from the championship reserve team of last year; the members of the 1950 West Junior team, who also were the champions of the Junior High loop. Others come from the numerous teams around the Hilltop last summer.

The majority of the try-outs are infielders, 20 boys all reporting as infield prospects. Of this number, two are lettermen—First Baseman Mo Dobbs and Second Baseman Russell Friend. Three others, Eddie Gleitz, Don Mers, and Dwight Reynolds, received reserve numerals in 1950.

Infielders from junior high include Dick Hutchison, John Morrison, John Schultz, and Bill Haire who all stand a good chance of making the squad. Other tryouts include Jim Kidnig, Zing Reeves, Ronnie Krems, Joe Balthaser, Dick Orr, Bill Grant, Bob Southworth, Bob Giuffre, Loren Galloway, Karl Cline and Chuck Leibensperger.

Ron McElwee, the right-fielder last season, is the only returning letterman among the outfielders. Another returner, Walter Meredith, a first stringer as a sophomore last year, has joined the armed services and won't be around this year.

Al Shade is the lone reserve winner from last year while Jan Sullivan, Herb Brown, Mark Langholtz, and Dick Neff return from the junior high squad. Others include "Sonny" Lewis, Russ Gardner, Greg McEttrick, Sonny Chapelear, Chuck Rappold, and Ken Anderson.

"Right now all positions are wide open," said Marv Schultz at the meeting last week. "We'll play no favorites." The statement was especially true of the catching job on the team.

Only four back-stoppers reported, but that quartet are even-steven as far as the coaches are concerned. The number includes Kenny Garber, John Chesher, John Weaver and Ron Farley.

Farley is a letterman from last year, and is the only senior among the group of receivers. Garber caught all the games for the reserve squad last year, and also looms as a good prospect. Chesher, a transfer student from Logan, also will be in the running, although as yet unproven.

The other receiver, John Weaver a stocky sophomore, was a member of the junior high team last year, and warmed the bench as Jimmy Hughes, then only an eighth grader, did the catching. However, this year, when given an even break at the post, may develop capably.

Last are the pitchers, where only 11 boys reported to try their luck. Of this number, Bill South and Ted Fladt are the only letter winners back from '50. Another bright prospect is Don Smith, who starred on the mound for the reserves last year, and of course, fire-balling Bob Thornton, who paced the junior high team to their undefeated year last season. Another junior high pitcher from last year is Roger Rasmick, while Fred Laderer was a member of the West team last year. He's a southpaw.

Hoge Wins "Y" League Crown In Elimination Tournament

Hoge Memorial was crowned the champion of the Class A elimination tourney of the Hilltop Y League held last Wednesday evening at the John Burroughs School, downing Burgess EUB, 37-27.

Hilltop Church of Christ took the Class B title by virtue of their 56-31 trouncing over Hillcrest in the night's opener. The games concluded play in the 1951 Hilltop Y League, the all-star games, originally being scheduled for the following Wednesday, being cancelled.

Special praise should be given to the individuals who spent their time and effort toward making this year the best ever in the cage loop. Jack Downey, Hilltop YMCA secretary, who was in charge of the league, did a grand job, and deserves every bit of praise given him; also O. D. (Red) Lehman, West Junior High coach, who did all the refereeing alone.

Much more was instituted in the "Y" League this year than merely playing basketball. There are hopes in the directors' minds that sportsmanship, learning to "give and take", and so on down the line, were a part of the players' training.

In addition, special praise should be attributed the coaches of the individual teams—especially to Ward Cassell of Hoge, whose team copped the title. Jack Betchol mentored the Class B champs of Hilltop Church of Christ.

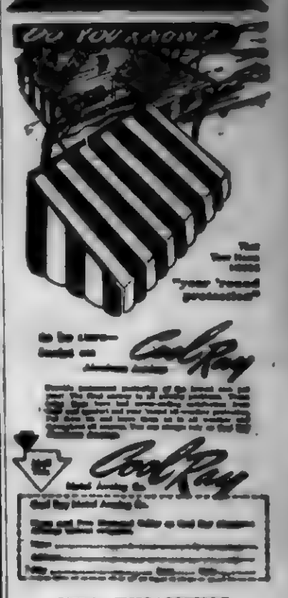
Class A

Hoge revenged their only seasonal loss of the year by trouncing the Burgess Church, 37 to 27, in the night's finale.

The game started out rather slowly, each team feeling the other out, and the first period finished with Hoge holding a most uncertain 6-5 margin. However, Burgess started fouling under the bucket consistently in the next period and, although Hoge could mesh only six of 13 foul tosses in the second canto, they swept to a convincing 18-11 halftime lead, and Burgess never threatened seriously thereafter.

Ted Collins and Dave Wahrer each poured in two buckets in the next period as Hoge outscored the ultimate losers, 10-6, in the third period, but Burgess put up a battle in the final quarter, outscoring Hoge by the same margin—but too late.

Class B



Hilltop didn't experience too much difficulty in romping over the Hillcrest five in the night's opener by a final score of 56-41 to cinch their spot as Class B champs.

Scoring came plenty and fast in the game as Hilltop took advantage of Hillcrest's rather weak defense by meshing the cords for 19 big points in the initial period. Hillcrest could garner only 11 in the same time, and therein lies the story.

In fact, Hillcrest hit 11 points every period except the last, when they hit only eight, while Hilltop netted 19, 14, 13, 10 in their respective periods. It was just a matter of Hilltop hitting better than their opponents—and hitting when the points were the most needed.

Former Hilltop Man Lashes Complacency

First Lt. Thomas J. Miller, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Miller, of 2493 W. Broad-st, and a graduate of West High School and Ohio State University, who is now stationed as medical officer of Portland Squadron Civil Air Patrol at Portland, Me., in a speech recently at Portland decried the lackadaisical attitude of the public about the threat of possible enemy action against that section of the country.

Miller, whose topic for the address was Civil Defense, emphasized the need for educating the public to the need for preparation and outlined present civil defense needs.

As director for atomic defense in Cumberland County, Miller told of a seminar he had recently attended in Philadelphia on the three-fold effect of the atomic bomb—including concussion, wind effects and radioactivity.

The parade will cross in front of the State House to Broad, east on Broad to Grant, north on Grant to St. Patrick's Cathedral for solemn high mass celebrated by Bishop Michael J. Ready. Following the mass the parade will march west on Naghten-st (Old Irish Town) to Third-st, south on Third-st to Broad and again through the State House grounds to the Neil House.

The toastmaster at the breakfast will be Jack Cannon, one of the all-American football greats of Notre Dame. There will be two speakers at the breakfast. First will be Edmund Doyle and secondly Rev. Joseph Lawler, CM. Tickets for this breakfast are still available at the KC Club.

Today's Great Hope for Those Suffering Aches and Pains

Due to Lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Iron and Niacin

Why Settle for Symptomatic Relief - Read How Just a Few of Thousands Have Relieved the Cause of Such Deficiences with Hadacol!

Mrs. Homer Hasnes, R.D. 1, Newport, Ohio: "I have been having aches for a time and I did everything I knew of to help without success. So I took three bottles of HADACOL. I sure feel good now. I couldn't hardly do my housework before, but now I can get my work done good. I went and got me a job at the pottery and really don't feel tired at the end of the day. I do sleep good at night now. Thanks a million for HADACOL. I wouldn't be without it. I am thirty-two years old."

A. M. Hurst, R.F.D. #2, Box 205, Perry, Florida: "I was born September 23, 1873. I heard of your HADACOL having the vitamins B, and B, in liquid form and that sounded good to me. I bought and have taken two small, one large and part of a second large bottle. Now I do not feel any more aches and pains. I intend to keep right on taking HADACOL."

S. L. Pappy, Bayard, Florida: "I feel that I should tell the world about your wonderful HADACOL. I have suffered with aches and pains for the past years, which worried me considerably. But, after taking two large bottles and one small bottle of HADACOL, I am now doing all my work again, and feel better. I sleep good at night, eat hearty all because of your wonderful product. I am seventy-five years of age, and far more active than the average man, and feel sure that if I had not heard about HADACOL, I would not of been able to achieve the things I have done since taking it. I will always praise your wonderful HADACOL."

Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc, the Man Responsible for Today's Great HADACOL

Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc

Senator LeBlanc has been in public life since he was quite a young man and he has always advocated the cause of the oppressed and the downtrodden. It was he who introduced the law in Louisiana that gives every deserving man and woman in Louisiana a pension of $30.00; it was he who introduced the law creating the office of Service Commissioner, the duties of which office is to see that every deserving ex-soldier and veteran receives his just reward from the Federal and State Government; it was he who has consistently fought the battle of the school teachers in the halls of the legislature; he worked untiringly for the farmers and the laboring man.

In view of the fact that this man has worked so untiringly for your cause and in your behalf, don't you believe that it was reasonable to assume that in his untiring efforts he would someday find something to assist you besides rendering governmental assistance.

The word "HADACOL" has become a by-word throughout this Nation. Read the testimonials on this page. Ask your friends who have taken HADACOL the benefits they have received from it. Don't hesitate. Place your confidence in a man who has by his past activities demonstrated to you that he is your friend—that his heart beats in sympathy with your cause—and if you are suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron, don't hesitate—don't delay—buy HADACOL . . . the product made by the best friend you have ever had.

Refuse substitutes.
There's only one true HADACOL

Father Sughru of the Buckeye Lake parish was again the special Lenten services speaker on Sunday at 8 p. m. at St. Cecelia's Catholic Church.

The Columbia Heights Methodist Church will give the Easter cantata, "The Divine Redeemer," by Gounod, for Vesper service on Palm Sunday, at 8 p. m. Henry Warner, 250 Pasadena-av, is director of the choir, and Mrs. William Lamb, 275 Buena Vista, is organist.

Mrs. Malcolm Pennell, PTA program chairman, cordially invites all members to attend the regular March meeting which will be held at the school portable at 8 p. m. Thursday, Mar. 15. "Fun Night" is the title of her program and should be enjoyable to all. The PTA Mother-Singers Group will contribute two choral numbers to the program.

Dance Chorus Prepares for Variety Show at West

The Low Down On High Ridgers

By One of Them

This week's Miss Hi-Ridger is BABY JONES, daughter of MR. AND MRS. EARL JONES. Master Hi-Ridger is BABY LONG, son of MR. AND MRS. JAMES LONG. Both were born last week and came home from the hospital just a few days ago.

Gardener BILL SANDS and family sold their home on Butter-av for some acreage of land near Briggdale. We say "Good-bye" to them this week as they leave. Hope we see them now and then.

A new style hair cut was given to MARGIE WHEELER. The "home office" didn't like it—they wanted Mummie to keep her long hair. But after all MARGIE wanted a "lift"—and the "new haircut" makes her look younger, I do admit.

"He'll love it," said LOUIE HARMON as he saw his son off at the station. JIMMIE HARMON was longing to get in the navy, and now he's "in."

JOHN HORTON is laying off of cigarettes to save money towards a boat he's got his "eye" on. Ever since his graduation last year his aim with his money in his new job is the best. He'll get it, too. Go to it, JOHNNY.

The handy remote television control is the newest thing. The ART MAYERS are another neighbor who owns one. Now if we could sit in our chair and control the weather; the bus schedule; the telephone bell when it rings during a good TV program . . . .

It's certainly nice to see GRANDMA Hairston sturdy on her feet again. She'll be 85 on her next birthday. She had us all worried after her siege of the flu last month. She says, "Those springy days perked me up."

We muscle men have to show our wives who's boss, sometimes. Just three hours ago I told wifey I was hungry. It took her all this time to get hungry herself. We decided on sandwiches. Yep—I had to go "out" to get them. Who's boss? Huh. I wonder.

Visitation Day Is Observed By Adventists

Believing that the true values of life consist of the things of the spirit, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Brown, 586 Larcomb-av, together with other members of the Eastwood Seventh-Day Adventist Church went out Saturday in teams of two to visit their neighbors and present them with a special tract entitled, "God's D Day," prepared for distribution on this special day set aside by the denomination as a nation-wide Home Visitation Day.

The purpose of these visits is to stress every-day religion based on greater church attendance and family Bible study and prayer. The invitation was extended to all those contacted to enroll in the Bible School class. This nation-wide home-visitation day is one of the major evangelistic projects of the denomination for laymen participation this year.

Officials of the Seventh-day Adventist headquarters in Washington, D. C., have estimated that two million home visits will be made by the laymen of this special day set aside for home visitation.

Dual Services Planned For Good Friday

Announcement was made this week that Good Friday services will be held in two Hilltop churches on Mar. 23 from 1 p. m. until 3:30 p. m. under the sponsorship of the Hilltop Ministerial Association.

Services will be held in Burgess Avenue EUB Church at Burgess and Sullivant-ave and the Hillcrest Baptist Church at W. Broad-st and Eldon-av. Rev. R. S. Parr will preside at Burgess and Rev. A. J. Wold at the Hillcrest services.

Three periods of worship will be offered at the one and one-half hour services.

Plan Easter Play At Glenwood Methodist

The Senior Youth Fellowship of Glenwood Methodist Church will present an Easter play, "The Boy Who Discovered Easter" on Palm Sunday evening in Motter Hall. Those taking part are George Brown, Glen Houdashelt, Marcia Brady and Dawn Dennison. This play is under the direction of Annis Turner. Assisting with the production are Bob Johnson and Jack Martin.

Bible Comment:

Free Enterprise Should Be Based On Free Fellowship

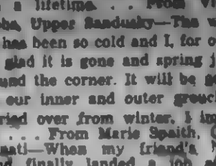
RECENT wage and price policy disputes have brought the words "free enterprise" before the public eye again and again.

And in ensuing discussions, the words have been a convenient label for all the merits and all the absurdities of this nation's economic life.

Yet out of all the palaver on the term, few have described free enterprise as an important part of the Christian ideal, a world rooted in faith, hope and love.

Free enterprise is what we make of it through free fellowship. It can stand for greedy gains by monopolists and unlimited strikes by labor or a reciprocal system of productivity and reward.

Success under such a system can be achieved through ruthless force or a steadfast diligence bounded by the principles of truly Christian conduct.



Jesus, who was somewhat of an economist because he dealt with worths and values, put love at the basis of all living. And Paul declared with clear, strong argument that we are members of one another.

Until such attitudes as these are formed on the subject of loosely restricted competition, free enterprise cannot serve to reveal us as mature members of a responsible society.

In discussing the practice of free enterprise we would do well to start with Paul's words, ". . . by love serve one another."

And in practicing free enterprise, we would be wise to abide by the Ten Commandments, a code of conduct by which every businessman might benefit.

HILL OF TARA

Once there were five broad highways going
To Tara across the plains of Meath;
Through tangled grass the winds are blowing,
And the old kings sleep in death;
Grass-grown the highways, and gone the kings.
Here sheep are feeding; a blackbird sings!
Ancient palace and wall and dwelling
Are part of earth's indifferent mold;
Leaning pillar alone is telling
Of the kings crowned here of old.
Forever vanished are Ireland's kings.
On the leaning stone a robin sings!
Tara, symbol of Ireland's striving!
Still good Saint Patrick with lifted hand
Makes the sign of the Cross, surviving
Change and all in his dear land;
Ireland is living; old kings are dead.
A skylark sings above Patrick's head!

Josephine Hunt Raymond.

Somebody else wrote in and informed me in no uncertain terms (gulp!) that I'm wrong about the Big Show sign-off song. "The Big Show" with Tallulah Bankhead is heard TWICE each Sunday evening (WLW) once on AM and once on FM. The FM show in which I referred and to which I listen, is on from 6 to 7:30. The song, sung by all members of the cast of the show, is Meredith Willson's beautiful "May The Good Lord Bless And Keep You." Hope this clears that.

The television "man of distinction" featured today is better known to my favorite shutin than he is to me so she will supervise this story. She tells me he warned her not to "get gooey" or tell what he eats for breakfast or what color ties he prefers. He's the muscular type so we will restrain ourselves. "He" is Rod Altmeyer of television station WLW-C. I share my favorite shutin's enthusiasm for this young man's ability. Even t-v can't minimize his personality and the capable manner in which he conducts all shows on which he appears. Rod is only 23 years old—and gals, he is single yet! Born in New Kensington, Pa., he is a senior at Ohio State University; will graduate in June. He has not decided whether to continue in television or radio after graduation, or to go into business with his father. His father is owner of several stores in Pennsylvania, but Rod is putting himself through college and certainly deserves a lot of credit for this. He started in radio when he was a sophomore in high school as MC of the high school programs. He did so well that he was offered a permanent position with the station in his senior year. He did not accept the position but entered the service and was sent to Korea. He was station manager of the Pusan station for the Armed Forces Radio Service in Korea. During this time he traveled all over Korea and once was lost for three weeks due to floods they were having there. He finally found himself in a village on the opposite side of the country—an interesting story if space permitted telling it. He also spent some time in Tokyo with the Tokyo AF station; was later returned to Korea, then came to Ohio State. He was with WCOL several months; following that he spent a year at FM Station WVKO, then entered television. He has been at WLW-C more than a year; is news director there, partly because of his experience in Korea and Tokyo. He is an announcer; may be seen at 6 p. m. daily on the Three-City Final Show and on the NBC Newsreel each Sunday evening. Rod also narrates the instructional sound films used in high school and college teaching for the department of photography at Ohio State. His hobbies are dancing, golf, and fishing. He told my f. s. that his greatest t-v thrill to date, was last election night when WLW-C fed the returns of the Taft-Ferguson senatorial race to the NBC network. He also gave her a most interesting view of the future of television as he sees it. One thing he does like about television is that it brings him closer to his fans than does radio. He appreciates their friendliness when they recognize him on the street and stop to tell him so. Rod is very humble about it all and calls it luck. But we call it hard work and what-it-takes.

Excerpts from mail: From W. D. Walker, M.D., Honolulu—A front page story in this morning's paper told of a dead lieutenant found in Korea with an empty memo pad in his pocket. Its last page read "You have run out of memo blanks. Re-order memo blanks. They will last you a lifetime. . . From Viola Krebs, Upper Sandusky—The winter has been so cold and I, for one, am glad it is gone and spring just around the corner. It will be good for our inner and outer grouches carried over from winter. I imagine . . . From Marie Spaith, Cincinnati—When my friend's husband finally landed a job after being out of work a long time, her son asked his dad, "When is your day off?" Their daughter, the practical one, asked, "When is pay day?"

Soil Conservation Is Garden Club Speaker's Topic

Soil Conservationist of Franklin County Lawrence W. Daniels, 187 Demorest-rd, will be guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Highland Garden Club to be held at the home of Mrs. Harry McCue, 3117 Ellis-pl, Monday, Mar. 19. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. R. Kirkpatrick, 239 S. Hurondav, and Mrs. Myron T. Seifert, 46 S. Westgate-av.

Daniels will speak to the Garden Club enthusiasts on the subject "General Principles of Soil Conservation as Applied to Franklin County."

Camp Fire Girls Observe Anniversary

During the week of Mar. 11 to 17 the Camp Fire Girls of West District will join with Camp Fire Girls all over the nation in celebrating their 41st birthday. The 1951 birthday theme is "Everybody Counts."

In observance of the first Camp Fire law, "Worship God", Camp Fire Girls will attend church in uniform on "Go to Church Sunday", Mar. 18.

The Camp Fire program reaches girls of all ages—Bluebirds 7 to 10, Camp Fire 10 to high school and the Horizon Club senior high.

The annual Council Fire for West District will be held May 20 in Motter Hall and Glenwood Church. At this time the girls will be awarded ranks and special honors earned during the past year.

Each Bluebird and Camp Fire leader will receive an invitation for her group to the annual spring tea given by the F. & R. Lazarus & Co. honoring the members of Camp Fire.

Plans are under way for the 1951 camping season at Camp Wyandot, the Camp Fire camp located about 11 miles south of Lancaster. The camp director this season will again be Mrs. Annette B. Fick, a former Camp Fire executive.

In accordance with the high ideals set forth in the National Constitution, Camp Fire Girls strive "to perpetuate the spiritual ideals of the home and to stimulate and aid in the formation of habits making for health and character."

Dog Owners Fined $25 In City Court

The two owners of a chow dog that attacked and severely bit a four-year-old boy, Feb. 21, were fined $25 and costs each in Municipal Court, Tuesday, by Judge Charles Petree.

The injured child, Jerry Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Smith, 2184 Safford-av, suffered a deep laceration on his right thigh and another on the side of his head.

William Cook, 32, and his wife, Anna, 36, 2173 Safford-av, were sentenced by the court on a charge of allowing their dog to run loose.

The dog attacked the boy in his yard. Jerry's two older brothers, Robert, 14, and David, 15, beat the animal off.

The court learned that the dog was checked for rabies and then destroyed by the City Board of Health.

Possession of the business was assumed Monday by Palmer, who has operated his business here for the past five years at the Richardson-Sullivant site and also at 1188 Sullivant-av.

George Cline, 375 Richardson-av, is to be manager of the Eureka-Broad Garage, assisted by Robert Fredrickson of 1885 Guilford-rd. Walter Lotte, Miller-av, will manage the used car lot at Richardson and Sullivant.

The Connors will move to their new location on Mar. 26.

Furniture For Rome School To Be Discussed

New furniture for the new consolidated elementary school under construction just south of New Rome will be discussed at the next meeting of the Prairie Township School Board Apr. 4, according to Clerk Lawrence Karnes of 5344 W. Broad-st.

The furnishings are needed only for the second through the eighth grades, he said, because equipment was purchased recently for the first grades in the several schools at New Rome, Alton and Galloway.

The $450,000 consolidated structure to be located on Norton Rd. was commenced Jan. 1, and will be completed by early 1952. It will house the 700 township pupils in the first eight grades, who are now attending three township schools and one out-of-district school, Brown Township School.

Learn Burned Boy Did Not Cause Gas Tank Blast

Seven-year-old Pearl Littmer of 1384 River-st wasn't to blame for the gas tank explosion in which he suffered third degree burns recently, according to juvenile officials.

During questioning at the Franklin County Juvenile Detention Center this past week another Chicago Avenue school pupil admitted that he had dropped a match in the gas tank of a parked car behind 1381 McKinley-av.

The Littmer youth suffered severe burns and is now recovering at Children's Hospital. Also burned in the explosion was LeRoy Harris, 8, of 1375 McKinley-av.

Young Littmer, Harris and his brother, Jerry, age 9, were playing around the car at the time of the explosion and the elder Harris boy, Jerry, admitted that it was he who had dropped the lighted match into the gas tank.

Ignorance Of The Law Is No Excuse

Elsewhere in today's Record is a story of the appearance of three more rabies cases and also the fact that 60 people have been arrested, saying they didn't know there was a rabies quarantine in effect.

All of which makes us feel that a lot more people should follow the lead of the late Will Rogers who always remarked that "All I know is what I read in the papers."

Civic Groups Lease Summer Camping Site

A 22-acre tract facing Demorest-rd, near Maple Shade swimming pool will become the Hilltop's first camping area. Realizing the need for a picnicking and camping ground for the Hilltop's youth groups, the Hilltop Community Council approved the leasing of the site from E. O. Clime, 4031 Clime-rd.

The Hilltop Business Association demonstrated its approval last Wednesday when Jack Morris, secretary of the HBA, presented the community council with a check for $100 to aid in supporting the project.

A camp council committee was appointed at the Wednesday meeting to compose the by-laws necessary for a well supervised project. The by-laws will be presented to the county in its April meeting.

Members of the committee are Russell Drake, Mrs. H. C. Booth, Jack Morris and E. V. Donaldson.

Zoning Board OK's Briggsdale Zone Change

The County Rural Zoning Board approved the rezoning of a 300-foot strip along Harrisburg-pk and Brigg-rd near Briggsdale from residential to light manufacturing. Projected plans call for the location of a sanding block factory on the 21.5 acre tract at the intersection of the two roads.

Decision on the rezoning is subject to review by the Regional Planning Commission. The group's decision is expected by the first week in April. Final approval will have to be granted by the county commissioners.

The application for the rezoning was submitted by Theodore F. Heyden, 1462 Harrisburg-pk. Carter Products, manufacturers of blocks used for sanding purposes by carpenters, may be moved to the Briggsdale site.

Many Hilltop Customers of Faithful Milkman Express Their Appreciation For His Services

By Myron T. Seifert

Moores & Ross Milkmen Godfrey Might, 368 Morrison-av, whose name is a household word to hundreds of Westgate, Westgate Park and Broadview families, was on the receiving end of his milk route Monday evening, when his legion of customers returned many of his milk bottles—and to his great surprise and enjoyment, this time filled with $680 in green-back U.S. currency, instead of the customary milk tickets.

It was appreciation night for Mr. Might at the home of Mrs. Warren Pemberton, 180 S. Brinker-av, from more than 300 Hilltop families whom he has served faithfully over a period of 14 years—and what a night! Without ceremony the testimonials of 300 families were showered upon Might. The event signalized the high regard and gratitude for a man whose services to his Westgate friends through the years has been invaluable.

The clean-cut, friendly 38-year-old, six foot milkman, rising daily at 5:30 a. m. and serving his customers faithfully, has established a circle of friends in the Westgate, Broadview and Westgate Park area that is short of miraculous.

"It's home to me, and I love its friendly folks," Might has been frequently heard to say.

Always with a sincere smile, and a cheerful word, genial Might has probably had more than his share of responsibilities to shoulder.

With a family of five—and with lovely Mrs. Might returning from a local hospital for a fifth time (last visit there lasted 33 days. She was also a patient at the Cleveland Clinic), Might still maintained his constant and faithful service without complaint or indication of his worries.

The appreciation movement started like this. Several Brinker-av neighbors wanted to send Mrs. Might a floral tribute upon her homecoming from the hospital—and almost all Might's customers wanted to have a share.

Spearheaded by Brinker-av neighbors Mrs. Fred Deubner, 172 S. Brinker-av, Mrs. Warren Pemberton, 180 S. Brinker-av, Mrs. Charles Cooke, 186 S. Brinker-av, and Mrs. Bert Lowry, 192 S. Brinker-av, these four engineered the testimonial project.

Norwich School Board To Ask Special Levy

The Norwich Local Board of Education is submitting a special levy for operation of the schools at the special election April 10. The levy will be for five mills for a period of two years.

Cost of living adjustments for employees and increased cost of school supplies make such a levy necessary in the opinion of the board of education. Competition of other schools and industry for the services of teachers and employees require that adjustments be made in salaries which are in line with increased wages and salaries in practically all lines of business and industry.

The total cost of the proposed levy is 50 cents per $100 of tax duplicate for each of the two years of its existence. Since this is being voted at a special election, a 60% vote favorable to the issue is needed to pass the levy.

Sheron was a student at West High School and enlisted in the Marines April 1, 1948. He was with the First Marine Division. He has been overseas since he finished his basic training. Health Authorities Find Three More Rabies Cases

A new surge of the rabies epidemic in Franklin County was noted this past week by Franklin County Health authorities despite rigid enforcement of quarantine measures and the new compulsory immunization regulation. Three new cases have been reported to the county board of health.

County Health Inspector Howard Reynolds this week reported the finding of rabid dogs owned by John Kidwell, 2440 Briggs-rd, Howard Wedemeyer, 1013 N. N. Hague-av, and Emory Peeler, 4396 Hoover-rd. As a result of the finding of the new rabies cases, 18 more people are now taking anti-rabies treatment. A total of 33 are now under treatment.

Franklin County health officers called attention to the fact that more than 60 persons have been hailed into court since the invoking of the quarantine and setting up of the compulsory immunization regulation. Authorities said that most of the persons before the courts pleaded no knowledge of the present quarantine despite widespread broadcast of the warning through newspapers and via radio.

Emphasis was placed upon the fact that a quarantine on dogs does most definitely exist and that the fact that a dog has been immunized does not mean that the animal can be permitted to run at large.

"There is a quarantine now on," said health officers, "and violators of that quarantine will be arrested. We are going to control rabies in this county and will use every effort in accordance with the law to see that the quarantine is observed and that violators are prosecuted. Rabies must be stamped out."

HCC Acts To Curb Mound-st Auto Speeding

Hilltop Community Council in its meeting of Mar. 14 lashed out at current traffic conditions prevailing on W. Mound-st, and at the same time asked of Mayor James A. Rhodes action on lack of sidewalks from Central-av to Binns-blvd.

It was brought out at the meeting that W. Mound-st had become a speedway and that traffic lights were sorely needed in this section, especially at Hague-av and Mound-st which has become the scene of many accidents, some of them fatal.

Chief points of dissension voiced were expressed in a letter from Jerry Spears, Jr., as president of the Hilltop Community Council to Mayor Rhodes.

The letter addressed to Mayor Rhodes reads:

Dear Sir:

The Hilltop Community Council on March 14, 1951, passed a resolution asking a survey of the traffic conditions on W. Mound-st west of Central-av. The following pertinent facts have prompted our decision:

1. No sidewalks west of Central-av.
2. No control lights to slow vehicles.

We believe that a light at Hague and Mound-sts would accomplish this.

The lives of many school children who attend the W. Mound-st and John Burroughs schools are endangered, because this thoroughfare has become a speedway.

Sincerely,
Jerry G. Spears, Jr., President

Other action adopted at the Wednesday council meeting was to unanimously endorse passage of the bond issue which is to appear before the electorate in a special election slated for April 10.

Local Women's Chorus Seeks New Members

The Hilltop Women's Chorus which meets the first Monday of each month at the Community Church on S. Powell-av, is still seeking new members in order to bring the unit up to full complement.

The call was issued this week to all women of the Hilltop who are interested in singing with choral groups to contact either Mrs. Bartha Masters at RA. 5647; Mrs. Anita Hagans at Jo. 1282 or Grace Martin at Ra. 8564.

Mammoth Paper Drive Scheduled For April 22

Hang onto your scrap paper, old magazines, boxes and newspapers until Apr. 22 because members of the Hilltop Business Association and other service organizations of the Hilltop are "Dreaming of a Bright Christmas" for this year.

According to Clarence Story, chairman of the drive, the organizations hope that the revenue derived from this mammoth Hilltop-wide drive will provide the area with the best lighted and best decorated section of the city.

Plans now call for the drive to begin at noon on Apr. 22. Story asked that newspapers and magazines be kept in separated bundles and requested that they be placed at curbs in front of the homes. In case of bad weather, they should be placed on front porches.

Jo-Ann Heights Residents Win Plea For Water Mains

Action of the Franklin County commissioners Tuesday morning brought to a close a two-year-long fight by residents of the Jo-Ann Heights Addition for installation of water mains. Commissioners gave assent to the installation of nearly 6000 feet of water mains in the residential district.

Petitions filed in July of 1949 by residents of the area urged installation of water mains on both sides of N. Algonquin-av, N. Sylvan-av, Albert and N. Southampton-av, north of the Big Four Railway as well as on Valleyview-dr between Algonquin and N. Southampton-avs. Engineers estimates on the new installation were set at $4.66 per foot.

At the Tuesday morning hearing before the county commissioners more than 40 interested Jo-Ann Heights Addition residents were in the audience. Spokesman for the group was Mrs. Thelma Neal, 367 N. Sylvan-av.

Although objections to installation of the watermains were voiced by two landowners in the vicinity the commissioners voted favorably for the petitioners.

This action by the commissioners marked the second time in recent weeks that the residents of that area have won victories in their efforts for improvements in the area. Prior to granting of the water mains approval was given for installation of storm sewers.

Residents indicated Tuesday that their next efforts would be made to secure sanitary sewers for the area.

Hilltop Man Named To New Police Post

The appointment of Police Sgt. Kenneth E. Miller, 300 N. Hague-av, to a new post of supervisor of the police cruiser-patrols, was announced by Police Chief Frank L. Harrison.

Chief Harrison said that Miller will conduct special training programs in first aid, water and fire rescue work, and emergency cases.

Sgt. Miller was previously assigned to the detective bureau.

Let's Protect Our Investments

Within the past decade population and birth rate of Columbus has increased by leaps and bounds, and corresponding provision for educating youth is lagging.

Since 1949 the population of the capital city has jumped 68,000, a goodly portion of which has been in this section.

Modern buildings, homes and commercial structures have been built, remodeler, etc. in this area, as in other parts of the city. But city schools have failed to keep abreast of the current tempo in providing essentials for educating the juvenile population.

The Columbus Board of Education knows that the citizens of this community desire that the health and safety of their children be given first consideration; therefore, plant repair is imperative for the best physical condition of the school building.

Modernization work, additions to present buildings, new sites, and site enlargements are needed also if the Columbus school plants are to be brought up to acceptable standards, if the health and safety of the school children are to be safeguarded properly, and if the present school buildings are to be kept in good repair.

Following is a summary of the school building program which will require the remainder of the funds from the 1945 bond issue as well as the funds raised by the new bond issue.

New buildings: 13 elementary schools, one combined elementary-junior high school. Total 14.

Remodeling: 33 elementary schools, three junior high schools, four high schools (minor changes), 1 special school (minor change). Total 41.

Additions: Four elementary schools, two junior senior high schools (three to six classrooms), one special school. Total seven.

Remodeling and additions: One elementary school, four junior high schools. Total Five.

Site expansion: Two elementary schools, four junior high schools. Total six.

New sites: 11 elementary schools, 1 combined elementary-junior high school, one junior high school. Total 13.

To safeguard interest of children in this community, Vote For The School Bond Issue, Tuesday, April 10.

DISCUSS MENTAL HEALTH

On Feb. 28, thirteen pupils in the fifth period 8A class visited the Columbus State Hospital as part of their study of "Recreation and Mental Health." Lida Denison, personal director, told them about the causes of mental illness, the size and history of the Columbus institution, and showed them a movie called "City of the Sick." It was made at the local institution and the Tiffin State Hospital.

On Friday, Mar. 1, the pupils gave a panel discussion before the class in which they told the class about their trip. The chairman of the group was Doris Comston. Others who participated were Louella Clark, Jimmy Green, Ann Kendrick, Linda Hammer, Ed Miller, Eva Jane Nicely, Charles Rayburn, Sally Shortridge, Faye Smith, Mary Vincent, Wanda Jordan and June White.

These pupils learned that worry and lack of interest are some of the causes of mental illness and that the development of a variety of interests is essential to good mental health.

READER COMMENT

Letters To The Editor

This newspaper invites letters from its readers on subjects of timely interest. All letters, however, must be not more than 400 words in length and all must be signed by the writer. The writer's name will be omitted if requested.

According to the scriptures the home is the institution which peoples the earth. God said to Adam, "Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth." When man became so wicked that "every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually," God said, "I will destroy them from the earth." After the flood, He spoke to Noah using the same words as He did when He spoke to Adam, "Be fruitful, and multiply and replenish the earth." The scriptures add, "By these (Noah and his three sons) were the nations in the earth divided after the flood."

The word of God places a great responsibility upon the home. It is the foundation of civilization. The children of today become the citizens of tomorrow. Every child has a right to be well born. Parentage of good character is the noblest gift that can be offered children. They bring into their lives a standard that has been set by their ancestors. Like begets like. Not only is this true in the vegetable kingdom, but it is true in the human family. To illustrate, we will cite two families.

Through a period of 200 years, approximately 900 descendants of Jonathan Edwards, a man noted for his strength of character, were listed. Among them were doctors, lawyers, preachers, college officials, governors, authors and writers, managers of railroads and banks, etc. Not a single criminal was found among them. The other family was another kind of fame. Of the descendants of this family over the same period of time 950 were listed. Among them were convicted criminals, thieves, murderers, adulterers, wrecks of incurable diseases, professional beggars and so on. Not one outstanding moral character was found. These cases, extreme though they be, are given to show that parentage counts.

However, be it understood that parentage is not an end in itself. It is only an indication of what the next generation may be.

When we view the world today and note the confusion, the crimes, the wickedness in officialdom, and corruption, we are forced to ask ourselves, are we not living in a decadent world? Something must have gone wrong. Have the homes failed? Are the schools failing to teach morals and obedience? Has the church lived up to its obligations? Or does the fault lie with all three. More to follow.

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Recently this column reported tire rationing would be needless: improbable. Now brace yourself. You could be a pedestrian. Much depends on action obtained by Sen. John Sparkman's (Ala.) Senate Small Business Committee.

A major scandal brews. Its slimy trail reaches around the World. An International Communist clique acted last summer. American boys now fight and die in Korea. Another foreign clique profits on this conflict; threatens American business.

C. W. Harder

Here's some background facts. Germany, birthplace of Karl Marx, creator of International Communism, also took lead in developing the international cartel system. Both systems spread ruin, disaster. Cartels built two vast German War machines that killed millions.

Here's a brief description of a cartel. A monopoly controls supply of basic commodity; keeps out free competition; rigs prices in a nation. An international cartel is a worldwide monopoly.

Cartels control many commodities. Rubber is one.

Sincere public servants like J. Edgar Hoover protect nation against Communist undermining. Other officials wage war on the foreign idea of cartels.

However, there is a difference. An attempt to unseat Hoover starts public indignation.

But Earl W. Glenn, head of National Production Authority for his strength of character, were rubber division, and for 5 years in same post with Commerce Dept. walks plank overnight. His sin? He fought rubber cartel to standstill, so he is replaced by Leland E. Spencer, Vice President of subsidiary of one of America's "big four" in rubber.

A Senate investigation has already unearthed ghoulish facts.

Last fall civilian rubber use was cut to 64%. Over protests of "6 Bigs" Glenn allocated supply so every plant could operate a 40 hour week.

Another curious fact. Once before Spencer was "loaned" to government to break up cartels in postwar Germany.

In 1945 a special investigating committee branded his work a failure. But now in NPA Spencer is associated with two of his associates in that failure, Richard Bronson and Henry Heyman.

The facts are long, involved. There will be more next week. In meantime, if you buy, sell, use cotton, pray for a good crop.

Marshall plan gifts of cotton stripping supply. ECA release #2811 announcing $15 million of cotton to Germany brings total cotton gifts for first 9 weeks 1951 to around $50 million.

Same release announces gift of another $1 million worth of tobacco to Ireland, bringing total tobacco gifts to Ireland to over $8 million, estimated sufficient to give every Irish infant, child, man and woman 30-35 packs of cigarettes.

This has given rise to a new joke in Washington. "Have you heard about the secret Anglo-American plan to dispose of the Irish question? The Marshall Plan is encouraging the Irish to smoke themselves to death."

Caps, Gowns To Be Worn By West Grads

Caps and gowns for Columbus high school graduates at June commencement officially received the nod from the administration and board of education last week.

Individual high schools gave the prospective graduates a free hand in making choice of colors. Last week the class voted unanimously in favor of the caps and gowns. At a meeting held Thursday morning, Mar. 15, at West High, seniors took a poll at this time on the color.

The girl graduate from West High, come June, will wear white caps and gowns, while the boys will bedeck themselves in blue, the students decided at the meeting.

The commencement dress will be rented to the students.

Principal I. F. Young presented the measure to the seniors.

HAVE YOUR SOIL TESTED BEFORE YOU SEED OR FERTILIZE

Our New Soil Testing Laboratory

Is Here Ready To Serve You

Seely's Hardware is the first retail store to offer a complete soil analysis service, to help you grow more beautiful lawns, finer flowers and more productive gardens.

SOIL ANALYSIS ELIMINATES ALL GUESSWORK

HERE'S THE BEST WAY TO GET SOIL READY FOR AN ANALYSIS—

Use a hand trowel to get a sample of soil as deep as the trowel, approximately 4 inches square. Place it in a wide-mouth Mason jar, coffee can or wrap in wax paper. If samples of several 'spots' are taken be sure to mark the location on the container. Bring the samples to Seely's for a soil analysis that will tell you exactly which soil builder to use.

Fair and warm or cold and blustery, do it this week!

A SOIL ANALYSIS NOW CAN SAVE YOU TIME AND MONEY LATER. Call or stop for any additional information.

By One of Them

Here we are again! As cold as it is, it's sort of nice to have Easter come as early as it does this year. It gives us a "lift" and makes us think of spring.

Speaking of spring, HAROLD GREENLEE has a slight infection on his finger which resulted from a different kind of spring — one on his son's tricycle. It was a rusty spring and HAROLD was repairing it. He's still wearing the bandage—mostly I think so he won't have to help with the dishes.

Whenever Arthur Godfrey decides to retire, KATIE WATTS is all set to take his place. She's been practicin' on her "uke". She does quite will with her singing, too, which of course goes with it.

KNOBBY COLES has a hobby which seems to hold his interest. He molds candles from left-over drippings; and on special occasions he enjoys making various colored figures for his own amusement.

A new Philco TV for the BEN EMERSONS. They traded in a seven-inch TV for a 19-inch screen. They like is much better and claim a large screen doesn't bother their eyes as some people fear.

HENRY TOPE bought two new tires and tubes for his old bicycle he's had for 10 years or so. He's off exercising when the weather permits. HENRY says he's been depending too much on his car.

MARILYN HOLDREN reads from two to four books a week. Just wait until she gets a television set—then she won't get so much read. She'll see all her stories on the screen.

If I ever get a TV set, I wonder what my wife will let me see. I haven't bought any for the simple reason I wouldn't get to see what I wanted, anyhow. I do just as well, by saving my money and continue going down to BILL'S. I won't mention his last name, or he'd know who I was. Keep 'em guessin' I say.

"Happy Easter, folks!"

Betty Hutton's Imitator

"Can't Get a Man Without a Gun" is the plaintive plea of pretty Pat Meiser, 422 Racine-av, as she goes into a pantomime act in a take-off of the song popularized by Betty Hutton. Pat is scheduled as one of the featured acts in the Band Parents Variety Show at West High School Mar. 29 and 30. Reserved tickets for the annual shown are to be on sale at Story's Dry Cleaners, 2420 W. Broad-st, Mar. 26.

went along with the gag and said "So I slipped up! Tomorrow I'll knock off a Newark bank, see." etc Just then they heard a gasp and a woman's voice said hysterically, "Oh John, that's the man who robbed the bank." Now the man is expecting the F.B.I at any minute, and my f.s. has decided she'll have to curb what she calls her weird sense of humor. They are both hoping that John's Other Wife didn't have a heart attack; that good, sensible John recognized it for a gag. And I bet they won't soon forget that the man is on a party line.

CHRIST IN WOOLWORTH'S

I did not think to find You there—
Crucifixes large and small,
Sixpence and threepence, on a tray
Among the artificial pearls,
Paste rings, tin watches, beads of glass.
It seemed so strange to find You there
Fingered by people coarse and crass,
Who had no reverence at all.
Yet—what is it that You would say?
"For these I hang upon My cross,
For these the agony and loss,
Though needlessly they pass Me by."
Dear Lord, forgive such fools as I
Who thought it strange to find You there,
When You are with us everywhere.
When You are with us everywhere.

Heard on the Bob Hawks show: Bob was interviewing a contestant who told Bob he had five children. When Bob asked what they were, the contestant said that all but four of them were boys. Heard on "Open House" (WLW): Three small boys were playing Hop-along Cassidy. They swaggered into a saloon in the approved movie and t-v style and one ordered rye at the make-believe bar. The second youngster ordered rye too. Then the third, who probably hadn't seen the show, ordered whole wheat.

Today's Great Hope for Those Suffering Aches and Pains

Why Settle for Symptomatic Relief • Read How Just a Few of Thousands Have Relieved the Cause of Such Deficiences with Hadacol!

Mrs. Homer Hames, R.D. 1, Newport, Ohio: "I have been having aches for a time, and I did everything I knew of to help without success. So I took three bottles of HADACOL. I sure feel good now. I couldn't hardly do my housework before, but now I can get my work done good. I went and got me a job at the pottery and really don't feel tired at the end of the day. I can sleep good at night now. Thanks a million for HADACOL. I wouldn't be without it. I am thirty-two years old."

A. M. Hurst, R.R. #2, Box 246, Perry, Florida: "I was born September 23, 1872. I heard of your HADACOL having the vitamins B_1, and B_2 in liquid form and that sounded good to me. I bought and have taken two small, one large and part of a second large bottle. Now I do not feel any more aches and pains. I intend to keep right on taking HADACOL."

J. L. Perry, Bay-ard, Florida: "I feel that I should tell the world about your wonderful HADACOL. I have suffered with aches and pains for the past years, which worried me considerably. But, after taking two large bottles and one small bottle of HADACOL, I am now doing all my work again, and feel better. I sleep good at night, eat hearty all because of your wonderful product. I am seventy-five years of age, and far more active than the average man, and feel sure that if I had not heard about HADACOL, I would not of been able to achieve the things I have done since taking it. I will always praise your wonderful HADACOL."

Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc, the Man Responsible for Today's Great HADACOL

Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc

Senator LeBlanc has been in public life since he was quite a young man and he has always advocated the cause of the oppressed and the downtrodden. It was he who introduced the law in Louisiana that gives every deserving man and woman in Louisiana a pension of $30.00; it was he who introduced the law creating the office of Service Commissioner, the duties of which office is to see that every deserving ex-soldier and veteran receives his just reward from the Federal and State Government; it was he who has consistently fought the battle of the school teachers in the halls of the legislature; he worked untiringly for the farmers and the laboring man.

In view of the fact that this man has worked so untiringly for your cause and in your behalf, don't you believe that it was reasonable to assume that in his untiring efforts he would someday find something to assist you besides rendering governmental assistance.

The word "HADACOL" has become a by-word throughout this Nation. Read the testimonials on this page. Ask your friends who have taken HADACOL the benefits they have received from it. Don't hesitate. Place your confidence in a man who has by his past activities demonstrated to you that he is your friend—that his heart beats in sympathy with your cause—and if you are suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron, don't hesitate—don't delay—buy HADACOL . . . the product made by the best friend you have ever had.

Before substitutes. There's only one true HADACOL

THE LEGEND OF THE DOGWOOD TREE

According to the legend, in the time of Christ, the dogwood tree was supposed to have attained the size of the oak and other forest trees, and so strong and firm was the wood of the tree that it was chosen as the timber for the Cross. The trees were greatly distressed at having been chosen for such a cruel purpose, and Jesus, sensing their regret and pity for His suffering, made this promise:

"Never again shall the dogwood tree grow large enough to be used for a cross. Henceforth it shall be slander and bent and twisted, and its blossoms shall be in the form of a cross—two long and two short petals. And in the center of the outer edge of each petal there shall be nail prints brown with rust and stained with blood, and in the center of the flower will be a crown of thorns. All those who see it will remember it was on a dogwood tree that I was crucified. And this tree shall not be mutilated or destroyed, but cherished and protected as a reminder of My agony and death upon the Cross."

GOOD FRIDAY

Once more a dark world cringes, hopelessly;
A Lord, betrayed, is crucified again;
Mumblings of war reverberate;
Pitiful garments divided by greedy men . . .
Again the barbarous cross is lifted high
And mothers of sons ask the age-old question
"Why?"

On the way to Buckeye Lake this week, these sure signs of spring were noted—kites flying; kites caught in trees . . . a wobbly calf now and then . . . pussy willows . . . farmers plowing . . . bait shops' signs being re-painted; little boys digging their own bait with the help of a dog or two . . . bedding and clothing hung out to air . . . the lake, calmly awaiting motor boats, swimmers and other things that will disturb it later . . . cottages being cleaned; windows being washed. Which reminds me—ugh!—of housecleaning.

EASTER

Christ crucified
Who died on the Cross for our sins,
Whose heart
Bled for the sorrows of the world,
Christ hated
By those who placed on His head a crown of thorns,
Whose Father
Converted to a hale eternally worn,
Christ glorified
Who arose to forgive our selfish whims,
Whose love
Time and time again has unfurled,
Christ beloved
Bless the sad, bewildered and poor,
Christ omnipotent
Bring peace to all on Easter Morn.
Vivian Pat Martindale.

Lest we forget in these troubled times: "God's in His Heaven, all's right with the world;" Spring is a new beginning; Christ's promise—"Lo, I am with you alway." I need reminding now and then; maybe you do too.

I'll probably get scalped for telling this but it's too good to keep so here I go, back-fencing: My favorite shutin had a phone call from a man on the night of March 12, the day of the Kirkersville Bank robbery. After she had identified his voice she said in her best gunmoll manner, "Why did you pick a day when there was $180 in that bank? The boss ain't gonna like that." The man-in-the-conversation

Housewives Speak On Spring Cleaning Technique

Spring house-cleaning time rolls around once a year no matter how hard we try to ignore the first few reminders. In an attempt to place the Hilltop housewife in a receptive mood it was decided to question a few as to their methods of achieving new shine in their winter-drab homes.

The time to begin concentrating on the housecleaning is "when the sun shows the dust," according to Mrs. Orville Bailey, 130 N. Warren-av. Most women agree that it is best to wait until it is warm enough to turn off the furnace and let the fresh air in the house.

Mrs. T. S. Fox, 25 S. Brinker-av, does her cleaning throughout the year. It is her belief that frequent light cleaning of her enameled woodwork will keep the finish in good condition for years to come. Once or twice a year "hard scrubbings" would soon ruin the light finish, says Mrs. Fox. She also suggests that clothing be aired indoors rather than outdoors. Windows opened wide allow clothes to air satisfactorily without subjecting them to the heat of the spring sun or the many seasonal insects.

Mrs. Michael G. Deck, 66 S. Roys-av, and Mrs. Fred Armentrout, 618 S. Oakley-av, agree that it is more convenient for them to start upstairs and complete the cleaning of one room at a time.

Mrs. Armentrout, who works as a waitress and cashier at the Marina Restaurant, Sullivant-av and Central-av, does all her own cleaning and this year is planning to paint three rooms and a hall. As an extra "household hint" she suggests that plastic shower curtains, drapes, etc., can be very easily shortened by hemming them with Scotch tape.

The only woman we could find who starts her cleaning in the basement was Mrs. Joseph Goodwin, 53 N. Westgate-av. According to Mrs. Goodwin, she and her aunt are the only ones to her knowledge who make their first task that of cleaning the basement.

Secrets of Temperature Changes Present No Mystery To Hilltopper Orval Linebrink, Battelle Scientist

Orval Linebrink, who is in charge of Battelle Institute's instrument laboratory, is shown operating a precision potentiometer used in Battelle's research. This instrument is capable of measuring voltages as small as one ten millionth of a volt. The usual flashlight battery is rated at 1½ volts.

Most people are unable to sense temperature changes of less than four or five degrees, and it's a good home thermometer that is accurate to within one degree, according to Hilltopper Orval Linebrink. But ask Orval the temperature of the air, sea, or land—or anything therein—and he might be able to tell you right down to one thousandth of one degree. That is if he took a reading with some of the equipment he is responsible for at Battelle Institute.

Orval, who with his wife, Ruth, and their children, Kail, 12, Carol, 7, and Jon 4½, lives at 83 Brinkerav, is in charge of Battelle's instrument laboratory. The laboratory takes care of the calibration, service, and repair of the scientific instruments used by Battelle in its research on materials for everything from watches to locomotives—from plastics to iron and steel.

Accurate temperature-measuring instruments are important in much of Battelle's research, and Orval has become an authority on their operation and repair.

Actually, he's an expert in the use of almost all of Battelle's scientific instruments. He and his staff of 10 assistants are in charge of a store of some $200,000 worth of instruments which they lend to other Battelle groups for research as they need them. These instruments form about one-fourth of the equipment Orval and his staff keep in running order.

Orval, who has degrees in mathematics and physics from Ohio Wesleyan University and the University of Michigan, says that some of the most interesting instruments are those capable of recording rapidly changing temperatures. For example, the wall temperature of a jet engine may rise several hundred degrees per second right after the engine is turned on. Rapidly responding instruments will record such changes.

In contrast, in the study of slow changes in the dimensions of metals, we measure temperature changes which may vary less than one degree in a 3000-hour period. Even these tiny changes may be important to Battelle scientists in their work.

Instruments in Orval's charge measure weight and length as precisely as temperature. Imagine a paper clip divided into 100,000 parts. You couldn't see it, but any one of those parts can be weighed by sensitive analytical balances. He also has instruments which will measure things much finer than a human hair—actually to a hundred-thousandth of an inch.

The Linebrinks have lived on the Hilltop 11 years. Orval has served as superintendent of Sunday Schools for the Glenwood Methodist Church. Now he is a teacher in the adult Sunday School class there. He was on the church's Cub Scout committee for several years.

Ruth Linebrink says she's too busy using a yardstick to measure the heights of Kail, Carol and Jon to participate in many outside activities. She has been active in community PTA work. Kail, a Boy Scout, is a collector for the Record.

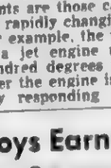
Boys Earning Way To Summer Camp By Selling Soap

Many boys in this area are earning their way to Camp Willson or providing themselves with YMCA memberships by selling soap.

This item, offered by the boys, is a high quality product of a well known and reputable soap company. Many satisfied customers are asking the boys to return for repeat orders.

Most housewives are glad to encourage boys with ambition to earn for themselves and gladly give them an opportunity to test their salesmanship.

In addition to earning money for camp and other helpful programs, the boys receive prizes of choice sporting goods for achieving various levels of sales. Many local boys have already earned flash lights, footballs, baseball gloves, and other items desired by every active boy.



Other parents and boys who are interested in this self help opportunity are invited to call the Boys' Branch YMCA, Ad. 1131 for information.

The tongue, it is believed, has specific organs that respond to different chemicals providing the various tastes.

EASTER SERVICES

Once again nations and men await the sunrise of another Easter morning. Once again the deep spiritual peace of the Resurrection Morn sweeps across the strings of the human heart, bringing to life the greatest love song of the ages . . . the song of a LIFE everlasting, but the song whose lingering melody has lifted mankind from the depths of darkness to the hills where the Hand of God points to the future.

Never in the life of this nation has the 'promise of Easter' been so vitally necessary as in this hour of war, in this hour of crumbled and broken dreams, this hour of heartaches and fear; for EASTER breathes the promise of the Peace which lives within the human heart, whispers of the Hope that shall not die, speaks solace and comfort to the broken in heart, and promises that new life where 'God shall wipe away all tears and where there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away'.

St. Aloysius Carillons Join In Singing Joys And Sorrows Of Easter

The voices of the carillons of Father Schwarz, supervisor of the building of the church, are amplified from the four speakers mounted in the church's bell tower on W. Broad-st.

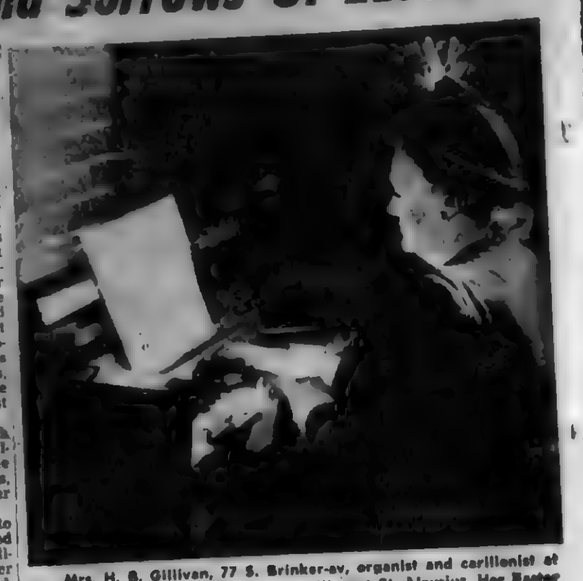
The bells of the world's Christian churches have given clarion voice to the joys and the sorrows of the world for nearly two thousand years. At Eastertime, the bell ringings mingle joy and sorrow, for both are present in the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ.

The voice of the St. Aloysius bells will, for the fourth year, join the song of the world, sorrowing yet glorifying in the story and the [illegible] the basis of Christian belief.

St. Aloysius bells have rung joyously after weddings, and sadly before funerals, since their installation in the church on Christmas eve, 1947. On that night, the chiming of "Adeste Fideles" echoing over the Hilltop, introduced the "carillon" call to midnight mass.

Since then they have sounded the time of day by ringing an excerpt from a hymn to Our Lady of Fatima at 7 a. m., noon, 3 p. m. and 9 p. m. They also call the parishioners to mass by ringing fifteen minutes before each service.

The carillons are solid metal bars, cast to give a certain tone when struck by a metal clapper. The clappers are activated by piano keys. They are so designed that the intensity of the player's "touch" on the keys will be duplicated exactly in the clapper stroke. Chords and arpeggios may be played with ease, as on a piano. The only difference in "play" between a piano and the carillon is that the notes of a chord must be "rolled", or struck a fraction of a second apart, so that the overtones will fit together, rather than erase each other in the amplification system. As on a piano, keys must be released quickly.



The actual sound of the clapper striking the bar is almost inaudible, but electronic boosters amplify the trickle of sound to a roar by the time it reaches the four speakers in the bell tower.

The sound of the carillon's deepest tone is comparable to that produced by a bell weighing approximately 4600 pounds or over two and one-half tons. The entire three-octave set of 38 clappers and bars housed in a small set, about the size of a spinet piano, is capable of producing the same tones and audibility as 10 tons of bells, without requiring a tower massive enough to hold that weight of cast metal.

A small closet in the church houses an automatic clock-controlled apparatus that rings out time on the carillon from metal rolls, similar to those used on a player piano.

The chimes are a memorial to members of the parish who served in the armed forces and a fulfillment of the dream of Father Schwarz, supervisor of the building of St. Aloysius in 1928. It was he, who hopefully added the bell tower to the construction plans of the church. Father Schwarz died seven years before the chimes were installed.

Mrs. H. B. Gillivan, 77 S. Brinker-av, organist at St. Aloysius for 29 years will play the music of the world's praise again this Easter, so that the entire Hilltop area may listen and worship.

Mrs. H. B. Gillivan, 77 S. Brinker-av, organist and carillonist at St. Aloysius, is shown playing the carillon at St. Aloysius. Her Easter music will be heard throughout the Hilltop area.

Westgate Church Schedules Easter Play Sunday

Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Youth Fellowship will present an Easter play, "The Half of My Goods," Easter Sunday at 7:30 p. m. The play is directed by Joe Six.

In the cast are Zacchaeus—Joe Six; Patricia—Louise Bitzer; Matthew—James Conley; Thaddaeus—Edwin Johns; Miriam—Betty Worthington; Rebecca—Delores Saint; a Roman centurion—Jack Six.

The story is about Zacchaeus a Jewish collector of revenues for the Roman government. His wife, Patricia, is a socially ambitious person. They have two children, Miriam a charming little daughter, and Thaddaeus, their son, who is not not altogether to Zacchaeus' liking.

The drama presents a challenge to this generation of men, who are honest, and who are dishonest to live in keeping with the character of Jesus of Nazareth.

Rev. Harold Dutt is the church pastor.

Local Adventist Church Observes Week of Prayer

Young people of the Eastwood Seventh-day Adventist Church together with 300,000 members of the denomination's Missionary Volunteer Societies all over the world united this week in a special week of prayer and spiritual emphasis.

Special services and programs were held at the church on Friday and Wednesday evenings for the senior youth and every day at the church's grade school at Union and Ryan Avenues for the Junior Society.

The "Share-Your-Faith" movement, sponsored by the young people's societies, enlists Adventist youth to engage in activities for winning their friends and neighbors to Christ.

The local Missionary Volunteer Society was one of the honor societies in Ohio for 1950. Honor points are earned by meeting certain specifications.

Young People To Conduct Church Of Christ Service

The young people of the Hilltop Church of Christ will present a special Easter Sunrise Service entitled "As It Begins to Dawn." The service will take place at 6:30 a. m. Easter morning at the church. The choir of the Columbus State School will present three special musical selections: "Were You There," "God So Loved the World," and "The Lord Is My Light."

Among the young people who will take part in the service are Janet Hickman, Dick Price, Gary Koontz, Alice Wilson, Larry Parker, Barbara Adams, Shirley Klopfer, Jack Taylor, Box Dixon, Bob Varner, Sandra Timmons, Ivan Timmons and John Weaver.

Easter observance will be concluded in the evening with a sacred concert by the choir of the church under the direction of Ivan K. Reed. Maurice Bowsher will be the organist.

Luther League Observes Special Easter Service

On Easter Sunday morning His friends found the grave open and empty. An angel said to them, 'He is risen." So again this Easter at 6 o'clock when the sun is rising His friends will gather at St. Matthew Lutheran Church, 80 Martinav, to hear the joyful news of the first Easter.

This sunrise service will be conducted by the Luther League with the sermon by Rev. H. N. Brobst, S. T. M.

A breakfast will follow at 7:30 for those who wish to stay for Sunday School and the celebration of Easter Holy Communion, according to Arthur Brofford, Luther League vice-president.

Rev. E. E. Nietz Is Westgate EUB Speaker Friday

Rev. E. E. Nietz, superintendent of the district, is scheduled as the speaker for the Good Friday Candlelight Communion Service at the Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church Friday at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Harold Dutt, pastor of the church, has extended an invitation to all to attend this communion service.

Meditations will be given by members of the Leagues, including Janet Griffith and James Marcia. The Youth Choir will sing.

Breakfast reservations are being received by Carol Echols.

The combined Junior and Senior Choirs, under the direction of Hazel Parrett, will sing at the regular services at 8 and 10:30 a. m.

Rev. John E. Hydinger, pastor, will preach on "Christ Is Risen! Allelujah!" Reception of new members will take place.

An Easter pageant, "The Risen Lord," will be presented in the church at 7:30 p. m. by members of the Sunday School under the direction of Mrs. Earl Cline, assisted by Mrs. Karl Kruckeberg, Mrs. Earl Miller, Mrs. Leonard Echols, Mrs. John Ricker, Russell Fletcher and Archie Shaw. Readers will be William Farrand and Karl Cline.

Communion To Herald Hoge Easter Services

Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church, 29 S. Eureka-av, will begin its observance of the Easter weekend with Candlelight Communion Services at 8 p. m. on Thursday and Friday evening, according to Rev. A. J. Weld, the pastor.

Sunday services at the church will be conducted by the youth fellowship groups of the congregation, at 7:30 a. m. Taking part in the morning services will be Dorothy Casteel, Margaret Johns, Howard Merriman, Beverly Pack, Judy Smart, Audrey Smith, Carolyn Smith, Bob Wilson and Frances Wright. Music by the Children Singers will be directed by Fred Wells.

"Let The Living Arise" is the sermon topic for the 10:30 services by the pastor. Special music will also be offered at this time by the church choir under the direction of Fred Wells. Numbers selected for this period of worship are: "Sunrise on Easter Morning" by Olds and "Christ Conquereth" by Clokey. Marilyn Ring will sing "Holy City" by Adams.

Bible Comment:

Jesus' Claim to Fame Was Unique In Several Ways

MEN have been famous for the books they have written, for creating powerful organizations, for establishing codes and laws, and for great works of art.

Yet Jesus did none of these.

This is one of the most remarkable aspects of His fame. From a life seemingly casual and spontaneous emerged the figure of one whom the world will never forget. Living with men called from the fishing nets and custom seats, Jesus was to go down in history as a "King of Kings."

It was to the men that came after Him that Jesus left the gigantic task of organizing the church and the laborious writing of that book of books—the Bible.

The opportunities for building up a mighty army of followers were many. To only a few did He say, "Follow me." Many others were entrusted with the harder task of going home and telling of Him.

Nor did Jesus seek in any way to curry favor with those in power or acquire riches. For this very reason, certain outraged persons inquired, "Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners."

Again and again do we have examples of His modesty, His forceful yet unpretentious command of situations. It is one of the most tragic facts of history that even with all of His compassion and sincerity, those whom He loved most failed to understand Him and experienced true faith only after his resurrection.

Jesus was, indeed, unique in many respects. But let us not forget His greatest glory sprang from His divine practice of those virtues within our everyday grasp.

The same of understatement was reached at a dinner party at which a southern gentleman was fighting the Civil War all over again. Finally he concluded his arguments with this undebatable point.

"If the Confederacy, Suh, had had the atomic bomb, we would have won the war between the States."

Camp Chase Post News

By John Martindale

Did you ever have something in mind that you thought should be done and either didn't know how to get it done or just didn't do anything about it? I suppose we all have. If you really have something it is a real practical idea to bring the matter up at a meeting of Camp Chase Post. Not that the Post will fall for just anything—far from it—but if you have something that is workable and necessary then you stand a mighty good chance of seeing it accomplished, somehow. Sometimes the Post will set out to accomplish the fulfillment of such an idea and may find the going tough, but don't give up hope.

Long months ago, one member of the Post brought up the matter of the old Camp Chase Cemetery frontage looking terrible since Sullivant-av was widened. Yes, it does belong to the federal government but that makes it belong to you and me—so that makes it our business. But there you do run into trouble because you know Uncle Sam lives down at Washington and he has a lot of hired help down there and it is sometimes tough going to contact the right man to get the particular job done and then each one seems to have a certain amount of what we call "red tape." It can be done, because now we do have Uncle Sam's promise of a sidewalk along the frontage of the old Camp Chase Confederate Cemetery.

Be sure to mark down on your calendar the date of Thursday, Apr. 26, and plan to attend the annual Post Birthday Party. It will be at the Riviera and everyone will really get their money's worth. Don't tell any one, but some one is going to be mighty lucky that night—maybe it will be you.

One of our Post members has been honored in the State Highway Patrol Auxillary with the appointment of lieutenant. This member, Ralph Moore, is one of the hardest working of the World War II members and quite well fitted for the job. Congratulations, Ralph.

HILLIARDS School Notes

F. H. A. MEETING

The first meeting of the Hilliards High School chapter of the Future Homemakers of America was highlighted by the installation of the new 1950-51 officers. These new officers are Patty Rings, president; Gail DeWolfe, vice-president; Patty Hart, secretary; and Leona Brown, treasurer. The girls were installed by the outgoing officers: Sue Hamilton, president; June Prince, vice-president; Margaret Phillipi, secretary; and Patty Rings, treasurer.

Mary E. Kohler, adviser of the chapter, explained F. H. A. and the degree work to the new members, who were welcomed into the chapter by the officers.. Lois R. MacDonald, the co-adviser, was introduced to the girls; as were the student teachers in home economics at Hilliards High—Jane E. Rector and Lois A. Simonds. The meeting closed with the singing of the F. H. A. Prayer.

The theme for the next meeting is to be "Recreation in the Home." Miss Rector and Miss Simonds are assisting the program committee in planning this meeting.

BASEBALL

The Hilliards High baseball team opens its 1951 schedule Apr. 13 at London. The Wildcats will then play every Tuesday and Friday through the regular season.

The squad consists of Eddie Eberhard, Owen Ervin, John Gardella, Jim Swormstedt, Phil Spangler, Albert Hogan, Charles Kaiser, James Biser, Dave Flynn, John Mowerey, Bill Pritchard, Earl Kaiser, Marc Brown, Wilbur Metheney, Gerald Brown, Charles Tillman, Dick Fisher, Clarence Jewett, Jim Lamb, Jay Kaltenbach, Bob Thompson and Bob Kent. The squad will later be cut down to 15.

Lack Of Pipe Halts New Municipal Golf Course

Tough luck, golfers, but you won't be able to use the new municipal golf course at Wilson and Trabue-rds this year.

According to Nick Barrack, city recreation department head, the course won't open as planned for the 1951 season, because the department just can't obtain the necessary pipe for irrigating the 200-acre greens.

Barrack said, "We tried to get bids on pipe and we tried again. We didn't get a single bid and we can't get the pipe. You can't have the kind of greens that a golf course requires unless you have irrigation pipe to water it."

Work was begun on the 200-acre tract last spring. The grounds were bull-dozed, disced and seeded. Two "excellent" wells were drilled on the course for a water supply. A New York golf-greens architect was hired and a 22-hole course was mapped.

One of the novel features of the projected course was the duplication of each of the par three holes. Each of them had a twin, so that if one par three tee was jammed with players, some of them could move on to the other identical hole.

Plans called for a 6740-yard course with a par of 72.

City recreation officials stated last year that the course's grand opening would be held early in 1951; now they say they're trying for 1952. 'Anybody want to try for 1953?

It Happened Here

Comedians, cartoonists and radio commentators have joked extensively these past few weeks about the various phrases which have emanated from the testimony offered in the Kefauver investigations. The tart phrases, "I refuse to answer on the ground that it might incriminate me," or "I can't recall that" and "I don't seem to remember", are still alive and fresh in the recollections of everyone.

Senator Tobey has been lampooned and criticized for his display of emotion and his "preaching a sermon" too much. Television blossomed out in all its glory bringing into the homes the sordid details of crime, gambling, bribery and other unsavory activities.

The picture painted via the newspapers and the air waves is not a pretty one and concerned parents have asked the question, "What kind of impression is this making upon our children?"

Had most of those parents who have asked that question of themselves been here on the Hilltop last Friday—Good Friday—their answer could have been gleaned first hand.

1951 Band Variety Show Opens Tonite At West Hi

Nostalgic memories of the days of the early 20's and the "Jazz Age" will be stirred Thursday and Friday night at West High School Auditorium when the annual West Band Parents Variety Show is staged. The hit tunes of that age and the songs of yesteryear along with popular tunes of the present day are on tap for those who like music and appreciate the pleasure of turning back time for a brief period.

Complete with the Charleston, the Blackbottom, Big Apple and other popular dances of the post-war years following World War I, the show this year gives promise of being even bigger and better than ever before.

Twenty-three acts have been scheduled for the performance, which will have a two-night stand, and will follow in somewhat this order:

Westinghouse May Build Big Plant In Hilltop Area

The possibility that Columbus and the Hilltop in particular is being considered as a site for a new $3,000,000 plant for Westinghouse Electric Co., was revealed during the past week.

Inquiries have been made concerning the possibility of sewage and water service to a 212 acre tract of land opposite the General Motors plant. The area concerned is currently owned by Nan A. Turner, an heiress to the estate of the late Judge Edward C. Turner. It is located north of West Broad-st and east of Phillipi-rd.

According to early reports on the contemplated new industry it would make parts for navy jet planes and employ several thousand persons. Later the plant would be converted to peacetime production.

Last week a meeting of civic leaders, county officials and other interested parties was held to discuss the possibility of bringing Westinghouse to this locality.

Although the rumor is widespread that Westinghouse is considering the local site, no definite commitments can be obtained as to whether or not the local site is seriously being considered over sites offered by Springfield and Cincinnati.

The new plant if built in the Hilltop area would cover an area of approximately 1,900,000 square feet.

As a result of questions concerning the site, Grover Clements, director of regional planning said that he had assured "interested parties" that sewer and water lines could be run to the tract and that eventually New Rome would be included in the city service.

W. Mound St. Traffic Survey Is Considered

A traffic survey for W. Mound-st as a result of complaints lodged last week by the Hilltop Community Council will soon become a reality, according to announcement from Columbus City Hall this past week.

Consideration will be given the points outlined by HCC President Jerry Spears in a letter last week to Mayor James Rhodes, in which he outlined a need for stricter traffic enforcement on the W. Mound-st thoroughfare as well as installation of a traffic light at W. Mound-st and Hague-av.

Columbus Safety Director Donald D. Cook announced this week that a meeting is now being arranged in which Hilltop Community Council and members of the city traffic commission would meet to discuss the problem.

In addition to traffic control and installation of a traffic light at one of the Hilltop's most dangerous intersections, the council has also asked consideration for sidewalks from Central-av west to Hague-av pointing out that none presently exist and that today's conditions make it extremely dangerous for children in the vicinity who attend W. Mound Street Elementary and John Burroughs schools.

At 1 p. m. Thursday members of the Better Business Committee of Hilltop Business Association are to be closeted with the traffic commission to discuss the HBA's proposal for controlled parking on W. Broad-st and Sullivant-av.

License Tag Deadline Is Saturday P. M.

Those 1950 auto license tags your car has been wearing had better be replaced by midnight Saturday or there is a strong possibility of arrest, according to announcement today by city officials.

In the meantime Hilltop Kiwanis Club members conducting sale of the 1951 tags at C. C. Robinson Co. report that business is rushing, with less than 500 plates remaining on hand. Kiwanians in charge report that they will remain open until 8 p. m. Saturday at the C. C. Robinson Co., W. Broad-st and Wayne-av, to accommodate latecomers.

Unless tags are purchased at the local spot Saturday, tags must be obtained at downtown outlets.

HBA Advances Meeting Date

Willard Burch, representative of the Columbus Better Business Bureau is scheduled as the principal speaker for the regular monthly meeting of the Hilltop Business Association, Tuesday evening, Apr. 3. The meeting has been advanced one week because of the Hilltop Minstrel Show which is sponsored by the association.

Burch in his address to the association will point out the methods by which the Columbus Better Business Bureau helps business and exercises control over advertising and solicitations.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 6:45 p. m. in Westgate Methodist Church.

Earlier Tuesday a session of the executive committee will be held.

Comedians, cartoonists and radio commentators have joked extensively these past few weeks about the various phrases which have emanated from the testimony offered in the Kefauver investigations. The tart phrases, "I refuse to answer on the ground that it might incriminate me," or "I can't recall that" and "I don't seem to remember", are still alive and fresh in the recollections of everyone.

Westinghouse May Build Big Plant In Hilltop Area

The possibility that Columbus and the Hilltop in particular is being considered as a site for a new $8,000,000 plant for Westinghouse Electric Co., was revealed during the past week.

Inquiries have been made concerning the possibility of sewage and water service to a 212 acre tract of land opposite the General Motors plant. The area concerned is currently owned by Nan A. Turner, an heiress to the estate of the late Judge Edward C. Turner. It is located north of West Broad-st and east of Phillipi-rd.

According to early reports on the contemplated new industry it would make parts for navy jet planes and employ several thousand persons. Later the plant would be converted to peacetime production.

Last week a meeting of civic leaders, county officials and other interested parties was held to discuss the possibility of bringing Westinghouse to this locality.

Although the rumor is widespread that Westinghouse is considering the local site, no definite commitments can be obtained as to whether or not the local site is seriously being considered over sites offered by Springfield and Cincinnati.

The new plant if built in the Hilltop area would cover an area of approximately 1,900,000 square feet.

As a result of questions concerning the site, Grover Clements, director of regional planning said that he had assured "interested parties" that sewer and water lines could be run to the tract and that eventually New Rome would be included in the city service.

In addition to traffic control and installation of a traffic light at one of the Hilltop's most dangerous intersections, the council has also asked consideration for sidewalks from Central-av west to Hague-av pointing out that none presently exist and that today's conditions make it extremely dangerous for children in the vicinity who attend W. Mound Street Elementary and John Burroughs schools.

At 1 p. m. Thursday members of the Better Business Committee of Hilltop Business Association are to be closeted with the traffic commission to discuss the HBA's proposal for controlled parking on W. Broad-st and Sullivant-av.

Rail Merger Hearings Will Move Out of Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission will take its hearings on the proposed merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central Railroads on the road this month, then return for further testimony here.

Examiner Jerome K. Lyle said the ICC hearings, which began last August, will be held in Springfield, Ill., on May 17 and then move to Boston for a week starting May 20.

FOLLOWING that, he said, Mayor Robert Wagner of New York will testify here. And, Lyle said, two directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad will be subpenaed to appear sometime after the Boston hearings.

The directors are Richard K. Mellon and C. Jared Ingersoll. The ICC previously had refused a request by Albert D. Brandon, attorney for the Pennsylvania AFL-CIO, that the two men be subpenaed.

But after receiving a new request from Brandon, Lyle said Mellon and Ingersoll would be asked to testify.

HOWEVER, he said, they will be unable to appear next Monday, as originally planned, thus delaying their testimony until after the Boston hearings.

Brandon in his request said that both Mellon and Ingersoll have interests in other firms which have had dealings with the Pennsylvania Railroad and suggested there might be violations of the Clayton Antitrust Act.

But Lyle said that any testimony from Ingersoll and Mellon about the antitrust act would be declared irrelevant.

ICC examiners have heard opposing views on the proposed merger.

GERALD FRANZEN, director of transportation for the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry, said his group supports the proposal.

But Leonard A. Lecht, chairman of the economics department at Long Island University, called it "a piecemeal solution to an underlying transportation problem."

Lecht, appearing on behalf of the AFL-CIO Transport Workers Union, said data submitted by the two big eastern railroads indicates a merger would wipe out 7802 jobs, or 6.5 per cent of the roads' combined 1961 work force.

Mississippi's state motto "Virtus et Armies," translated means "By Valor and Arms."

AIR FORCE UNDERTAKES SURVEILLANCE OF SEAGULLS

LANGLEY AIR FORCE BASE, Va. (AP)—The Air Force made plans for a bird-watching exercise it hopes will solve a major air traffic haard.

Tactical Air Command (TAC) headquarters said jet planes will fly over many islands along the northeast coast during the next two weeks to photograph and count sea gulls and their nesting places.

A TAC SPOKESMAN said the planes would fly at an altitude of about 250 feet from Long Island to the Canadian border under a program financed by the Federal Aviation Agency.

A sea gull knocked out an engine of a trans-Canada jetliner Tuesday on a flight from Scotland to Canada with 100 persons aboard. But the four-jet plane landed safely at London Airport.

President Will Skip Rome On European Visit

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy plans to skip Rome on his trip to Italy next month but he and Mrs. Kennedy will tour the Eternal City together on a state visit next year.

Although the decision remains tentative, there appears to be little likelihood of Kennedy changing his mind. For one thing, he does not want to detract from what promises to be a glittering visit to the Italian capital with the First Lady.

Instead of going to Rome, Kennedy now plans to fly directly from Washington to Milan. He is expected to hold working meetings with the Italian prime minister at a retreat not far from Milan, an industrial city 30 miles south of the Swiss border.

It Happened Here

Comedians, cartoonists and radio commentators have joked extensively these past few weeks about the various phrases which have emanated from the testimony offered in the Kefauver Investigations. The tart phrases, "I refuse to answer on the ground that it might incriminate me," or "I can't recall that" and "I don't seem to remember", are still alive and fresh in the recollections of everyone.

Senator Tobey has been lampooned and criticized for his display of emotion and his "preaching a sermon" too much. Television blossomed out in all its glory bringing into the homes the sordid details of crime, gambling, bribery and other unsavory activities.

The picture painted via the newspapers and the air waves is not a pretty one and concerned parents have asked the question, "What kind of impression is this making upon our children?"

Had most of those parents who have asked that question of themselves been here on the Hilltop last Friday—Good Friday—their answer could have been gleaned first hand.

It was just a small incident—but it spoke volumes — it would have undoubtedly brought

1951 Band Variety Show Opens Tonite At West Hi

Nostalgic memories of the days of the early 20's and the "Jazz Age" will be stirred Thursday and Friday night at West High School Auditorium when the annual West Band Parents Variety Show is staged. The hit tunes of that age and the songs of yesteryear along with popular tunes of the present day are on tap for those who like music and appreciate the pleasures of turning back time for a brief period.

Complete with the Charleston, the Blackbottom, Big Apple and other popular dances of the post-war years following World War I, the show this year gives promise of being even bigger and better than ever before.

Twenty-three acts have been scheduled for the performance, which will have a two-night stand, and will follow in somewhat this order:

Donna Theusen, Ann Cockfield, and Onda McPherson—vocal trio, "I Don't Know Why."

Mary Lou Campbell—jazz toe, "Tip-toe Thru the Tulips."

Bill Grim—sax solo, "Saxophobia."

Westinghouse May Build Big Plant In Hilltop Area

The possibility that Columbus and the Hilltop in particular is being considered as a site for a new $8,000,000 plant for Westinghouse Electric Co., was revealed during the past week.

Inquiries have been made concerning the possibility of sewage and water service to a 212 acre tract of land opposite the General Motors plant. The area concerned is currently owned by Nan A. Turner, an heiress to the estate of the late Judge Edward C. Turner. It is located north of West Broad-st and east of Phillipi-rd.

According to early reports on the contemplated new industry it would make parts for navy jet planes and employ several thousand persons. Later the plant would be converted to peacetime production.

Last week a meeting of civic leaders, county officials and other interested parties was held to discuss the possibility of bringing Westinghouse to this locality.

Although the rumor is widespread that Westinghouse is considering the local site, no definite commitments can be obtained as to whether or not the local site is seriously being considered over sites offered by Springfield and Cincinnati.

The new plant if built in the Hilltop area would cover an area of approximately 1,900,000 square feet.

As a result of questions concerning the site, Grover Clements, director of regional planning said that he had assured "interested parties" that sewer and water lines could be run to the tract and that eventually New Rome would be included in the city service.

W. Mound St. Traffic Survey Is Considered

A traffic survey for W. Mound-st as a result of complaints lodged last week by the Hilltop Community Council will soon become a reality, according to announcement from Columbus City Hall this past week.

Consideration will be given the points outlined by HCC President Jerry Spears in a letter last week to Mayor James Rhodes, in which he outlined a need for stricter traffic enforcement on the W. Mound-st thoroughfare as well as installation of a traffic light at W. Mound-st and Hague-av.

Columbus Safety Director Donald D. Cook announced this week that a meeting is now being arranged in which Hilltop Community Council and members of the city traffic commission would meet to discuss the problem.

In addition to traffic control and installation of a traffic light at one of the Hilltop's most dangerous intersections, the council has also asked consideration for sidewalks from Central-av west to Hague-av pointing out that none presently exist and that today's conditions make it extremely dangerous for children in the vicinity who attend W. Mound Street Elementary and John Burroughs schools.

At 1 p. m. Thursday members of the Better Business Committee of Hilltop Business Association are to be closeted with the traffic commission to discuss the HBA's proposal for controlled parking on W. Broad-st and Sullivant-av.

License Tag Deadline Is Saturday P. M.

Those 1950 auto license tags your car has been wearing had better be replaced by midnight Saturday or there is a strong possibility of arrest, according to announcement today by city officials.

In the meantime Hilltop Kiwanis Club members conducting sale of the 1951 tags at C. C. Robinson Co. report that business is rushing, with less than 500 plates remaining on hand. Kiwanians in charge report that they will remain open until 8 p. m. Saturday at the C. C. Robinson Co., W. Broad-st and Wayne-av, to accommodate latecomers.

Unless tags are purchased at the local spot Saturday, tags must be obtained at downtown outlets.

HBA Advances Meeting Date

Willard Burch, representative of the Columbus Better Business Bureau is scheduled as the principal speaker for the regular monthly meeting of the Hilltop Business Association, Tuesday evening, Apr. 3. The meeting has been advanced one week because of the Hilltop Minstrel Show which is sponsored by the association.

Burch in his address to the association will point out the methods by which the Columbus Better Business Bureau helps business and exercises control over advertising and solicitations.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 6:45 p. m. in Westgate Methodist Church.

Earlier Tuesday a session of the executive committee will be held.

It Happened Here

Comedians, cartoonists and radio commentators have joked extensively these past few weeks about the various phrases which have emanated from the testimony offered in the Kefauver Investigations. The tart phrases, "I refuse to answer on the ground that it might incriminate me," or "I can't recall that" and "I don't seem to remember", are still alive and fresh in the recollections of everyone.

Senator Tobey has been lampooned and criticized for his display of emotion and his "preaching a sermon" too much. Television blossomed out in all its glory bringing into the homes the sordid details of crime, gambling, bribery and other unsavory activities.

The picture painted via the newspapers and the air waves is not a pretty one and concerned parents have asked the question, "What kind of impression is this making upon our children?"

Had most of those parents who have asked that question of themselves been here on the Hilltop last Friday—Good Friday—their answer could have been gleaned first hand.

It was just a small incident —but it spoke volumes — it would have undoubtedly brought

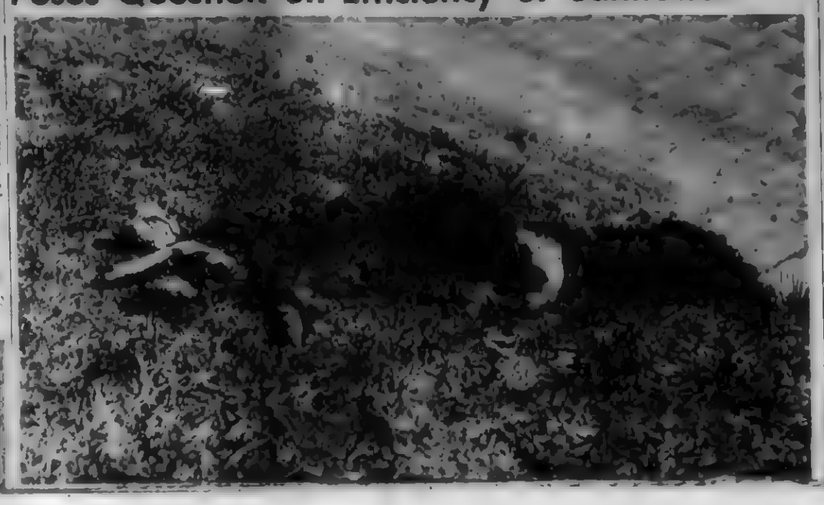
1951 Band Variety Show Opens Tonite At West Hi

Nostalgic memories of the days of the early 20's and the "Jazz Age" will be stirred Thursday and Friday night at West High School Auditorium when the annual West Band Parents Variety Show is staged. The hit tunes of that age and the songs of yesteryear along with popular tunes of the present day are on tap for those who like music and appreciate the pleasures of turning back time for a brief period.

Complete with the Charleston, the Blackbottom, Big Apple and other popular dances of the post-war years following World War I, the show this year gives promise of being even bigger and better than ever before.

Twenty-three acts have been scheduled for the performance, which will have a two-night stand, and will follow in somewhat this order:

Donna Theisen, Ann Cockfield, and Onda McPherson—vocal trio, "I Don't Know Why."



Mary Lou Campbell—jazz toe, "Tip-toe Thru the Tulips."

Bill Grim—sax solo, "Saxophobia."

Westinghouse May Build Big Plant In Hilltop Area

The possibility that Columbus and the Hilltop in particular is being considered as a site for a new $8,000,000 plant for Westinghouse Electric Co., was revealed during the past week.

Inquiries have been made concerning the possibility of sewage and water service to a 212 acre tract of land opposite the General Motors plant. The area concerned is currently owned by Nan A. Turner, an heiress to the estate of the late Judge Edward C. Turner. It is located north of West Broad-st and east of Phillipi-rd.

According to early reports on the contemplated new industry it would make parts for navy jet planes and employ several thousand persons. Later the plant would be converted to peacetime production.

Last week a meeting of civic leaders, county officials and other interested parties was held to discuss the possibility of bringing Westinghouse to this locality.

Although the rumor is widespread that Westinghouse is considering the local site, no definite commitments can be obtained as to whether or not the local site is seriously being considered over sites offered by Springfield and Cincinnati.

The new plant if built in the Hilltop area would cover an area of approximately 1,900,000 square feet.

As a result of questions concerning the site, Grover Clements, director of regional planning said that he had assured "interested parties" that sewer and water lines could be run to the tract and that eventually New Rome would be included in the city service.

W. Mound St. Traffic Survey Is Considered

A traffic survey for W. Mound-st as a result of complaints lodged last week by the Hilltop Community Council will soon become a reality, according to announcement from Columbus City Hall this past week.

Consideration will be given the points outlined by HCC President Jerry Spears in a letter last week to Mayor James Rhodes, in which he outlined a need for stricter traffic enforcement on the W. Mound-st thoroughfare as well as installation of a traffic light at W. Mound-st and Hague-av.

Columbus Safety Director Donald D. Cook announced this week that a meeting is now being arranged in which Hilltop Community Council and members of the city traffic commission would meet to discuss the problem.

In addition to traffic control and installation of a traffic light at one of the Hilltop's most dangerous intersections, the council has also asked consideration for sidewalks from Central-av west to Hague-av pointing out that none presently exist and that today's conditions make it extremely dangerous for children in the vicinity who attend W. Mound Street Elementary and John Burroughs schools.

At 1 p. m. Thursday members of the Better Business Committee of Hilltop Business Association are to be closeted with the traffic commission to discuss the HBA's proposal for controlled parking on W. Broad-st and Sullivant-av.

License Tag Deadline Is Saturday P. M.

Those 1950 auto license tags your car has been wearing had better be replaced by midnight Saturday or there is a strong possibility of arrest, according to announcement today by city officials.

In the meantime Hilltop Kiwanis Club members conducting sale of the 1951 tags at C. C. Robinson Co. report that business is rushing, with less than 500 plates remaining on hand. Kiwanians in charge report that they will remain open until 8 p. m. Saturday at the C. C. Robinson Co., W. Broad-st and Wayne-av, to accommodate latecomers.

Unless tags are purchased at the local spot Saturday, tags must be obtained at downtown outlets.

Westinghouse May Build Big Plant In Hilltop Area

The possibility that Columbus and the Hilltop in particular is being considered as a site for a new $8,000,000 plant for Westinghouse Electric Co., was revealed during the past week.

Inquiries have been made concerning the possibility of sewage and water service to a 212 acre tract of land opposite the General Motors plant. The area concerned is currently owned by Nan A. Turner, an heiress to the estate of the late Judge Edward C. Turner. It is located north of West Broad-st and east of Phillipi-rd.

According to early reports on the contemplated new industry it would make parts for navy jet planes and employ several thousand persons. Later the plant would be converted to peacetime production.

Last week a meeting of civic leaders, county officials and other interested parties was held to discuss the possibility of bringing Westinghouse to this locality.

Although the rumor is widespread that Westinghouse is considering the local site, no definite commitments can be obtained as to whether or not the local site is seriously being considered over sites offered by Springfield and Cincinnati.

The new plant if built in the Hilltop area would cover an area of approximately 1,900,000 square feet.

As a result of questions concerning the site, Grover Clements, director of regional planning said that he had assured "interested parties" that sewer and water lines could be run to the tract and that eventually New Rome would be included in the city service.

Lewis & Noon Coal Business Sold To McVay

Ray McVay, Sr.

Purchase of the Lewis & Noon Coal Co., 76 N. Sylvan-av, by the Ray McVay Co. has been agreed upon and the transaction will be completed to take effect as of Apr. 2.

The agreement covers the land, buildings and business of the firm.

The Lewis & Noon Coal Co. has been owned and operated by Herbert C. Davis for many years. The new firm is headed by Ray F. McVay, 168 S. Hoyt-av, who also owns and operates the Ray McVay Sand Bunch Coal Co., 817 W. Main-st.

Ray F. McVay, Jr., 208 N. Powell-av, will be the manager of the new firm.

Plans of the firm call for continuing to carry all the types and sizes of coal formerly supplied by Lewis & Noon Coal Co., with the addition of a few other premium grades of coal sold by the McVay Co. for years at their other locations.

Additional new equipment will be added in the future in order to provide better service to the community. A 24-hour stoker and furnace repair service will be instituted by the firm in the near future.

HBA Membership Drive Chairman

Mrs. Eliza Eberhard, above, 5424 W. Broad-st, has been named chairman of the membership drive for the Rome Business Association. The association's drive got under way Wednesday.

W. Mound St. Traffic Survey Is Considered

A traffic survey for W. Mound-st as a result of complaints lodged last week by the Hilltop Community Council will soon become a reality, according to announcement from Columbus City Hall this past week.

Consideration will be given the points outlined by HCC President Jerry Spears in a letter last week to Mayor James Rhodes, in which he outlined a need for stricter traffic enforcement on the W. Mound-st thoroughfare as well as installation of a traffic light at W. Mound-st and Hague-av.

Columbus Safety Director Donald D. Cook announced this week that a meeting is now being arranged in which Hilltop Community Council and members of the city traffic commission would meet to discuss the problem.

In addition to traffic control and installation of a traffic light at one of the Hilltop's most dangerous intersections, the council has also asked consideration for sidewalks from Central-av west to Hague-av pointing out that none presently exist and that today's conditions make it extremely dangerous for children in the vicinity who attend W. Mound Street Elementary and John Burroughs schools.

At 1 p. m. Thursday members of the Better Business Committee of Hilltop Business Association are to be closeted with the traffic commission to discuss the HBA's proposal for controlled parking on W. Broad-st and Sullivant-av.

License Tag Deadline Is Saturday P. M.

Those 1950 auto license tags your car has been wearing had better be replaced by midnight Saturday or there is a strong possibility of arrest, according to announcement today by city officials.

In the meantime Hilltop Kiwanis Club members conducting sale of the 1951 tags at C. C. Robinson Co. report that business is rushing, with less than 500 plates remaining on hand. Kiwanians in charge report that they will remain open until 9 p. m. Saturday at the C. C. Robinson Co., W. Broad-st and Wayne-av, to accommodate latecomers.

Unless tags are purchased at the local spot Saturday, tags must be obtained at downtown outlets.

Attendance Record Set For Easter

Church attendance figures reported for Easter Sunday by pastors of fifteen Hilltop churches indicated that a bit of cold weather is no deterrent to local worshippers.

A survey of the 15 local churches by the Hilltop Record revealed an attendance of 10,885 in the community's houses of worship on Easter Day. The survey covered all services held during the day beginning with the early sunrise services.

Rev. Harold Dutt of Westgate MUB Church reported an all time record attendance at his church for four services. Other local pastors also reported heavier attendance than in previous years.

HBA Advances Meeting Date

Willard Burch, representative of the Columbus Better Business Bureau is scheduled as the principal speaker for the regular monthly meeting of the Hilltop Business Association, Tuesday evening, Apr. 3. The meeting has been advanced one week because of the Hilltop Minstrel Show which is sponsored by the association.

Burch in his address to the association will point out the methods by which the Columbus Better Business Bureau helps business and exercises control over advertising and solicitations.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 8:45 p. m. in Westgate Methodist Church.

Earlier Tuesday a session of the executive committee will be held.

1st Shopping Center Built Here in 1948; Aim at Convenience

Convenience means something different to different people, but Webster sums it up as "trouble saving; well arranged; easy to reach or use; handy; suitable." When applied to shopping, any or all of these definitions might be your own and they all can be used to describe the Big 8 Shopping Centers.

With the big transition to suburban living, suburban stores were a must. A local independent merchant satisfied the demands of the housewife for everyday food and drug necessities. However, this did not eliminate having to get "dressed up" to go to town for shopping trips.

DON M. CASTO and Don M. Casto Jr., developers, conceived and built the first regional shopping center, Town & Country, in 1948. This idea for a shopping center was designed with customer-convenience in mind.

Grouping a variety of stores provided a concentrated shopping area with a diversification of merchandise and services. The housewife could then do all her shopping with only one stop and right in her own neighborhood. Hours were set up for longer shopping periods and evening hours made it possible for the whole family to shop together.

Free parking was provided so you never had to walk more than a few steps from car to store. A casual, friendly atmosphere made shopping a pleasure and eliminated having to get "dressed up."

THE SUCCESS OF this first shopping center was so great that other communities created a demand for similar areas. Central Point opened in 1952 followed by Northern Lights, Graceland, Great Eastern, Great Western, Great Southern and University City.

Today, Columbus is ringed with Casto shopping centers, all located on main arteries where traffic draws not only from the immediate neighborhoods but from surrounding cities as well.

Lift Longest, Steepest

MUNICH—One of southern Germany's top tourist attractions is the new Zugspitze cable car, Europe's longest and steepest gondola-type lift, which climbs to the summit of Germany's highest mountain in less than 9 minutes. Only two towers support the 6500-foot cable, which is traversed by large 44-passenger cars.

NATO Nuclear Force Urged

BONN (UPI)—West German Defense Minister Kai-Uwe VonHassel said a North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) nuclear force must be created to bind Europe and the United States together and end isolationism on both sides of the Atlantic.

He said a growing number of people in the United States preach a new isolationism because they are tired of carrying responsibility for European defense.

1951 Band Variety Show Opens Tonite At West Hi

Nostalgic memories of the days of the early 20's and the "Jazz Age" will be stirred Thursday and Friday night at West High School Auditorium when the annual West Band Parents Variety Show is staged. The hit tunes of that age and the songs of yesteryear along with popular tunes of the present day are on tap for those who like music and appreciate the pleasures of turning back time for a brief period.

Complete with the Charleston, the Blackbottom, Big Apple and other popular dances of the post-war years following World War I, the show this year gives promise of being even bigger and better than ever before.

Twenty-three acts have been scheduled for the performance, which will have a two-night stand, and will follow in somewhat this order:

Donna Theisen, Ann Cockfield, and Ouida McPherson—vocal trio, "I Don't Know Why."

Mary Lou Campbell—jazz toe, "Tiptoe Thru the Tulips."

Bill Crist—sax solo, "Sayonara."

Westinghouse May Build Big Plant In Hilltop Area

The possibility that Columbus and the Hilltop in particular is being considered as a site for a new $8,000,000 plant for Westinghouse Electric Co., was revealed during the past week.

Inquiries have been made concerning the possibility of sewage and water service to a 212 acre tract of land opposite the General Motors plant. The area concerned is currently owned by Nan A. Turner, an heiress to the estate of the late Judge Edward C. Turner. It is located north of West Broad-st and east of Phillipi-rd.

According to early reports on the contemplated new industry it would make parts for navy jet planes and employ several thousand persons. Later the plant would be converted to peacetime production.

Last week a meeting of civic leaders, county officials and other interested parties was held to discuss the possibility of bringing Westinghouse to this locality.

Although the rumor is widespread that Westinghouse is considering the local site, no definite commitments can be obtained as to whether or not the local site is seriously being considered over sites offered by Springfield and Cincinnati.

The new plant if built in the Hilltop area would cover an area of approximately 1,900,000 square feet.

As a result of questions concerning the site, Grover Clements, director of regional planning said that he had assured "interested parties" that sewer and water lines could be run to the tract and that eventually New Rome would be included in the city service.

Lewis & Noon Coal Business Sold To McVay

Ray McVay, Sr.

Purchase of the Lewis & Noon Coal Co., 76 N. Sylvan-av, by the Ray McVay Co. has been agreed upon and the transaction will be completed to take effect as of Apr. 2.

The agreement covers the land, buildings and business of the firm.

The Lewis & Noon Coal Co. has been owned and operated by Herbert C. Davis for many years. The new firm is headed by Ray F. McVay, 165 S. Roys-av, who also owns and operates the Ray McVay Co. and Beech Coal Co., 217 W. Main-st.

Ray F. McVay, Jr., 208 N. Powell-av, will be the manager of the new firm.

Plans of the firm call for continuing to carry all the types and sizes of coal formerly supplied by Lewis & Noon Coal Co., with the addition of a few other premium grades of coal sold by the McVay Co. for years at their other location.

Additional new equipment will be added in the future in order to provide better service to the community. A 24-hour stoker and furnace repair service will be instituted by the firm in the near future.

W. Mound St. Traffic Survey Is Considered

A traffic survey for W. Mound-st as a result of complaints lodged last week by the Hilltop Community Council will soon become a reality, according to announcement from Columbus City Hall this past week.

Consideration will be given the points outlined by HCC President Jerry Spears in a letter last week to Mayor James Rhodes, in which he outlined a need for stricter traffic enforcement on the W. Mound-st thoroughfare as well as installation of a traffic light at W. Mound-st and Hague-av.

Columbus Safety Director Donald D. Cook announced this week that a meeting is now being arranged in which Hilltop Community Council and members of the city traffic commission would meet to discuss the problem.

In addition to traffic control and installation of a traffic light at one of the Hilltop's most dangerous intersections, the council has also asked consideration for sidewalks from Central-av west to Hague-av pointing out that none presently exist and that today's conditions make it extremely dangerous for children in the vicinity who attend W. Mound Street Elementary and John Burroughs schools.

At 1 p. m. Thursday members of the Better Business Committee of Hilltop Business Association are to be closeted with the traffic commission to discuss the HBA's proposal for controlled parking on W. Broad-st and Sullivant-av.

RBA Membership Drive Chairman

Mrs. Eliza Eberhard, above, 5424 W. Broad-st, has been named chairman of the membership drive for the Rome Business Association. The association's drive got under way Wednesday.

License Tag Deadline Is Saturday P. M.

Those 1950 auto license tags your car has been wearing had better be replaced by midnight Saturday or there is a strong possibility of arrest, according to announcement today by city officials.

In the meantime Hilltop Kiwanis Club members conducting sale of the 1951 tags at C. C. Robinson Co. report that business is rushing, with less than 500 plates remaining on hand. Kiwanians in charge report that they will remain open until 8 p. m. Saturday at the C. C. Robinson Co., W. Broad-st and Wayne-av, to accommodate latecomers.

Unless tags are purchased at the local spot Saturday, tags must be obtained at downtown outlets.

Attendance Record Set For Easter

Church attendance figures reported for Easter Sunday by pastors of fifteen Hilltop churches indicated that a bit of cold weather is no deterrent to local worshippers.

A survey of the 15 local churches by the Hilltop Record revealed an attendance of 10,885 in this community's houses of worship on Easter Day. The survey covered all services held during the day beginning with the early sunrise services.

Rev. Harold Dutt of Westgate EUB Church reported an all time record attendance at his church for four services. Other local pastors also reported heavier attendance than in previous years.

HBA Advances Meeting Date

Willard Burch, representative of the Columbus Better Business Bureau is scheduled as the principal speaker for the regular monthly meeting of the Hilltop Business Association, Tuesday evening, Apr. 3. The meeting has been advanced one week because of the Hilltop Minstrel Show which is sponsored by the association.

Burch in his address to the association will point out the methods by which the Columbus Better Business Bureau helps business and exercises control over advertising and solicitations.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 6:45 p. m. in Westgate Methodist Church.

Earlier Tuesday a session of the executive committee will be held.

HOME—Mud, sticks and tin make up the two-room home of this shy little Mexican girl. She and her three brothers have an old tire and a shaggy dog for playthings. The girl is the daughter of a small farmer near Alazan in the northern Tamaulipas state which is the scene of a heart-rending battle of humans against nature.—(AP Wirephoto)

REPORTER MAKES TOUR

Poverty, Illness, Drouth Plague Area in Mexico

The Associated Press correspondent in the lower Rio Grande Valley crossed into Mexico in a jeep and drove more than 200 miles to gather this first-hand report of conditions in northern Mexico, an area plagued by poverty, sickness and drouth.

By BOB M. GASSAWAY

ALAZAN, Mexico (AP)—This small farm community in northern Tamaulipas state is the scene of a battle of humans against nature — and nature appears to have the upper hand.

Virtually all the 750 residents of the Alazan community are ill with diseases ranging from tuberculosis to diarrhea.

THEY ARE among thousands of Mexicans in the northern frontier area suffering from malnutrition and dehydration as the result of a prolonged drouth and heat wave.

The victims are so isolated that doctors and nurses must use pickup trucks and vehicles with four-wheel drive to reach them with medicine, food and health information.

I bounced more than 200 miles over country roads, paths, ditches, and fields observing these poor farmers and their problems. Almost all of them are backward and deprived.

THE MAJORITY know nothing of man's flights into space. A car passing is an important-enough event that they turn and stare. An ice cream stick is a special treat.

I stopped to ask Jose Sanchez directions as he plodded along a dusty road. I offered him a ride.

He hopped in and we drove off, but less than one-half mile down the road, he became so excited and confused that he asked to get out. The jeep was too strange for him.

His son drives a tractor, but Sanchez has never tried it.

THE FARMERS know nothing but tilling the soil. They depend on Mother Nature to make things turn out right. If she fails, they are lost.

This year, she failed them. There has been no major rain.

The people have no corn to grind to make meal for tortillas. Beans, another staple in their diet, are shriveling to nothing on the vine. Cotton, the major cash crop for the small plot owners, is turning yellow less than six inches out of the seed.

WITHOUT corn and beans there is no food. No cotton means no clothes, no oil for lanterns, and no shoes.

Town to these people is Rio Bravo, a settlement of about 20,000 residents 20 miles south of the Rio Grande, and about 45 miles upriver from Brownsville, Tex. It is about 15 miles to Reynosa which borders Texas near McAllen.

When the farm residents make one of their rare trips to Rio Bravo, they find theaters, a small hospital, various shops, a park and the streets with lights that are sometimes left on a late as 11 p.m.

THESE STORES and places to buy things are fine—if you have money. If there was no rain, like this year, and if you could not irrigate your crops, you have no money. The shops are useless.

The people live in shacks built of boards, in adobe huts, in thatched lean-tos, and in one - room shanties made of sticks and mud.

There is irrigation in northern Mexico, but not for the small farmer. He would not know how to handle such water even if it were available.

WHEN THE CROPS die, as they are dying now, there is no way to re-seed the fields, because there is no more seed and no money to buy any.

Farmers in tattered clothes wander through the dusty fields with hoes, tending the few surviving stalks.

The sick persons lie at home, where one well member of a family takes care of the others.

DOCTORS HAVE been unable to attend to the health needs of the isolated farm villages because of great demands in the more populated areas.

However, health teams now are devoting more time to the needs of the small poverty-stricken farmers. Campaigns have been organized across the Rio Grande in Texas to provide food and clothing for the Mexicans.

The people of Alazan have always lived and worked together, much in the way that the American pioneer farmers did. But now they can not help themselves.

Russia Backs China; Reverse Isn't True

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP)—The Chinese Communists have demonstrated in the Communist world one good turn does not necessarily produce another, particularly if it involves giving Soviet Russia a toehold in Asia or Africa.

For years, the Russians have put forward Peking's name for membership in various United Nations organizations.

AS LATE as March, at the height of their acrimonious quarrel with the Chinese over ideological matters, the Russians proposed Red China take the Nationalist China seat in the Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East (ECAFE), then meeting in Manila.

In the past few days in Jakarta, the Russians, through their friends the Mongolians, persistently sought to get into an African-Asian journalists' conference on the ground Russia is an Asian as well as a European country.

The Chinese delegation, one of the largest and most influential there, didn't support the Soviet campaign.

MOSCOW and Peking have buckled down to vigorous campaigns aimed at winning over the newly emerging countries and those still under colonial rule, to their point of view.

The Afro-Asian Journalists Association is an important propaganda forum and Peking wants to use it in the future, as it has in the past, without competition from Moscow.

The Chinese line is to tell the African-Asians the only sure way to remain free and become industrialized is to fight, to struggle against United States "neo-colonialism," and to stage revolutions whenever they are useful.

THE RUSSIAN line gives precedence to world disarmament, tempts the economically backward nations with promises of vast aid programs from the money to be saved through a reduction in arms spending. It says its way is the safest because it avoids the possibility of nuclear war.

At an international youth seminar in Algiers the Chinese delegate, Chien Ta-wei, made a firebreathing speech calling for revolutionary violence against imperialism.

Then, stabbing directly at Russia, he said:

"THOSE WHO allege that there is no longer a distinction between just and unjust wars in a nuclear age and that a spark in the national liberation war might kindle a worldwide nuclear war, in fact are counterposing the national liberation movement to the struggle for world peace . . .

"It is most harmful to cherish the illusion and believe in the pretension that money saved by disarmament would be used for aid to underdeveloped countries."

The last word has not been said in this latest skirmish between the Russians and Chinese. But there are signs Moscow is losing ground on the Asian and African fronts.

Had most of those parents who have asked that question of themselves been here on the Hilltop last Friday—Good Friday—their answer could have been gleaned first hand.

It was just a small incident—but it spoke volumes — it would have undoubtedly brought tears, but it would have also graphically answered the doubts.

A little fellow about 8 or 9 years of age stood on the sidewalk watching the Good Friday worshippers file into a local church. Suddenly he saw an older boy he knew, going into the church with his mother and sister.

Excitedly he shouted, "Hey! What you going in there for?"

The older boy answered disgustedly, "This is Good Friday, stupid. Don't you know you're supposed to go to church and worship?"

A few minutes later, the dirty faced little boy walked slowly down the aisle of the church. Full of wonderment, he squeezed himself into a crowded pew, folded his hands piously and prayed.

People who know that child also know that his parents have never bothered to send him to church. Probably no one will ever know for just what he prayed, but no doubt those who saw him must have thought, "A little child shall lead them."

Revealed in this little incident on the Hilltop was the answer many parents have asked. This country need not worry about the impressions for the good is certain to overbalance the bad.

Binoculars Fail To Locate Prize Egg

An unidentified boy, aided by his father's binoculars, collected a bountiful share of Easter eggs hidden in Westgate Park for the Hilltop Lions Club Easter Egg Hunt Saturday.

Not trusting his eyesight, the youth watched eggs being hidden in the park. Lady Luck deserted the young strategist as he failed to locate the prize golden egg. Another of the 700 participants discovered the prize.

An excellent turnout, despite unpredictable weather, convinced the sponsors of the Hunt that 150 prizes are not enough. Plans are to double the number of eggs and add consolation prizes next year.

Annual Minstrel Show Ducats Are Reported As "Going Fast"

Already the Hilltop folk are getting the fever.

It's time again for the Hilltop Minstrel shows and from early indications this week there are plenty of people here on the Hilltop who like the real "old fashioned" minstrel show idea.

As a matter of fact, since the announcement last week on the mail sale of tickets to the Hilltop's biggest extravaganza, orders have been pouring into the Hilltop Business Association offices at 3183 W. Broad-st requesting reservation of ducats.

"There are still tickets available, however, for the show and if there are still persons who have not as yet mailed orders, to be assured of a seat they had better get orders into the mails at once," said ticket chairman C. H. Campbell.

Campbell pointed out that as of Apr. 2 sales of tickets by mail will cease and at that time mailings will begin on the basis of postmarks appearing on the envelopes. Remaining tickets, if any, will be placed on sale at the association office on Apr. 5.

Reserved seat tickets for the first balcony and main floor cost 75c. General admission tickets for the side and second balcony are available at 50 cents each.

"To be sure of a reserved seat for the show on either Thursday or Friday night, folks had better get those mail orders in before the deadline," Campbell said.

Decomposed Dog's Body on West Broad Street Poses Question on Efficiency of Sanitation

ACTION—QUICK ACTION—by the City Sanitation Department and Board of Health. The decaying body of the black and white dog pictured above has lain near the curb of W. Broad-st, opposite the entrance to the Columbus State School, since Feb. 26. If the City Board of Health cannot take care of dead dogs, then certainly a case may be made for their inability to enforce the rabies quarantine on live ones.

Veteran City Water Engineer J. M. Emrich Retires Apr. 1

J. M. Emrich

Mrs. Margaret M. Emrich has her husband's future all mapped out, "He'll be like me . . . he'll just have to learn to sit home and like it." But after 43 active years working at the City Water Pumping Station, J. M. Emrich, her husband, doesn't think it will be quite that easy.

Emrich, 75, has spent his 43 years with the water department seeing that Columbus residents had the water they needed, when they needed it. Now he's retiring, effective Apr. 1, as chief engineer at the pumping station.

But he's retiring under protest. For years his wife and his family have been trying to talk the vigorous, keen-eyed man into retirement, but he wasn't interested. A recent operation and an onset of the flu changed his mind.

Reminiscing through the years, he told of the job he held as a fireman for the railroad. He tired of the job and went to work for a local industry. There he met and married his wife (they will be married 54 years in April), but again he decided to change jobs and went to work for the city pumping station in February, 1908.

He said, "When I went to work for the station, it was pumping 12 to 14 million gallons of water a day for the city, now it's pumping over 50 millions a day."

When he started on the job the present pumping station had just been completed. At the time there were only two pumps in the building. One was added in 1915.

All three pumps must have been built of the same material from which Emrich was constructed for they're still in operation.

Other pumps were added shortly after 1915, when, because of a huge drain firemen fighting a big fire put on the water supply, a 25 million gallon per day capacity pump was forced to handle 32½ million gallons.

Equipment added in the last two

Cub Scouts Plan Kite Flying Test

Should rain interfere with the Saturday contest, it was announced that the meet would be postponed until Sunday afternoon at the same hour.

Hilltop Man Is Appointed OPS Attorney

Appointment of Walter R. Hill, 196 Highland-av, as an enforcement attorney in the Columbus District Office of Price Stabilization was announced this week by District Director, Edward F. Wagner.

Hill until recently served as an assistant to Herbert S. Duffy, then attorney general of Ohio. He also served as a rent attorney for the old OPA agency and also for the Office of Housing Expediter.

The new OPS officer attended Chicago University and obtained his law degree from Howard University in Washington. A World War I veteran, he is a member of the Columbus Bar Association and the Ohio State Bar Association.

Jones Lumber & Coal Observes Open House Apr. 4

OPEN HOUSE will be held at the Jones Lumber and Coal Company's offices and display room on Apr. 4. The general public is invited to attend and see how utility can be combined with beauty. Plenty of parking space is available. Beginning Apr. 7, the company will open Saturdays from 8 a. m. through noon.

Changes in business buildings are not unusual, but a radical change in the offices of a lumber company is most unusual. One such change will be displayed in an "open house" to be held from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., Wednesday, Apr. 4, at the Jones Lumber and Coal Co.

In contrast to the regular two by four, cluttered and crowded offices of most lumber companies, the new building at 57 N. Sylvan-av, is wide, airy and well lighted.

On entering the modernistic California redwood and Roman brick building, flaunting wide expanses of glass, a visitor first sees a living room with a "real" fireplace, soft easy chairs, old English prints hung on birch paneled walls, and full building plans and suggestion books on a low coffee table.

According to W. H. "Bill" Jones, founder of the business, "We designed this room with the idea of giving our customers an atmosphere that they'll enjoy while they look over housing plans and discuss the materials they'll use. Besides, the room gives the wives a place to relax while they wait on their husbands."

The offices are finished in gum oak, mahogany and poplar with basic trim of gray-toned weldtex.

The main display room is finished in deep-hued plytex and in the same gray-toned weldtex used in the office. Set in balanced groups around the wall area are the paint, hardware, roofing, door, cupboard, corner cabinet and moulding displays. Wide aisles and careful arrangement assure each visitor easy access to each display.

For the carpenter, the lumber company has constructed a warehouse connected with the new building. The 5,000 square feet of its floor area are covered with everything from unfinished doors to an innovation in moulding racks.

The bins of the new rack are finished to the mouldings' length, so a buyer can tell at a glance whether the design and length of moulding he desires are in the rack. The contents of the warehouse are so arranged that a buyer may select his own materials.

The lumber and coal company is managed by Mr. Jones; H. H. Jones, his son, and Harold Greene. Rienand Nash acts as cashier and accountant. The business was opened in February, 1928.

Westinghouse May Build Big Plant In Hilltop Area

The possibility that Columbus and the Hilltop in particular is being considered as a site for a new $8,000,000 plant for Westinghouse Electric Co., was revealed during the past week.

Inquiries have been made concerning the possibility of sewage and water service to a 212 acre tract of land opposite the General Motors plant. The area concerned is currently owned by Nan A. Turner, an heiress to the estate of the late Judge Edward C. Turner. It is located north of West Broad-st and east of Phillipi-rd.

According to early reports on the contemplated new industry it would make parts for navy jet planes and employ several thousand persons. Later the plant would be converted to peacetime production.

Last week a meeting of civic leaders, county officials and other interested parties was held to discuss the possibility of bringing Westinghouse to this locality.

Although the rumor is widespread that Westinghouse is considering the local site, no definite commitments can be obtained as to whether or not the local site is seriously being considered over sites offered by Springfield and Cincinnati.

The new plant if built in the Hilltop area would cover an area of approximately 1,900,000 square feet.

As a result of questions concerning the site, Grover Clements, director of regional planning said that he had assured "interested parties" that sewer and water lines could be run to the tract and that eventually New Rome would be included in the city service.

Lewis & Noon Coal Business Sold To McVay

Ray McVay, Sr.

Purchase of the Lewis & Noon Coal Co., 76 N. Sylvan-av, by the Ray McVay Co. has been agreed upon and the transaction will be completed to take effect as of Apr. 2.

The agreement covers the land, buildings and business of the firm.

The Lewis & Noon Coal Co. has been owned and operated by Herbert C. Davis for many years. The new firm is headed by Ray F. McVay, 1265 S. Roys-av, who also owns and operates the Ray McVay Co. and Enora Coal Co., 317 W. Main-st.

Ray F. McVay, Jr., 208 N. Powell-av, will be the manager of the new firm.

Plans of the firm call for continuing to carry all the types and sizes of coal formerly supplied by Lewis & Noon Coal Co., with the addition of a few other premium grades of coal sold by the McVay Co. for years at their other location.

Additional new equipment will be added in the future in order to provide better service to the community. A 24-hour stoker and furnace repair service will be instituted by the firm in the near future.

Attendance Record Set For Easter

Church attendance figures reported for Easter Sunday by pastors of fifteen Hilltop churches indicated that a bit of cold weather is no deterrent to local worshippers.

A survey of the 15 local churches by the Hilltop Record revealed an attendance of 10,885 in this community's houses of worship on Easter Day. The survey covered all services held during the day beginning with the early sunrise services.

Rev. Harold Dutt of Westgate EUB Church reported an all time record attendance at his church for four services. Other local pastors also reported heavier attendance than in previous years.

W. Mound St. Traffic Survey Is Considered

A traffic survey for W. Mound-st as a result of complaints lodged last week by the Hilltop Community Council will soon become a reality, according to announcement from Columbus City Hall this past week.

Consideration will be given the points outlined by HCC President Jerry Spears in a letter last week to Mayor James Rhodes, in which he outlined a need for stricter traffic enforcement on the W. Mound-st thoroughfare as well as installation of a traffic light at W. Mound-st and Hague-av.

Columbus Safety Director Donald D. Cook announced this week that a meeting is now being arranged in which Hilltop Community Council and members of the city traffic commission would meet to discuss the problem.

In addition to traffic control and installation of a traffic light at one of the Hilltop's most dangerous intersections, the council has also asked consideration for sidewalks from Central-av west to Hague-av pointing out that none presently exist and that today's conditions make it extremely dangerous for children in the vicinity who attend W. Mound Street Elementary and John Burroughs schools.

At 1 p. m. Thursday members of the Better Business Committee of Hilltop Business Association are to be closeted with the traffic commission to discuss the HBA's proposal for controlled parking on W. Broad-st and Sullivant-av.

License Tag Deadline Is Saturday P. M.

Those 1950 auto license tags your car has been wearing had better be replaced by midnight Saturday or there is a strong possibility of arrest, according to announcement today by city officials.

In the meantime Hilltop Kiwanis Club members conducting sale of the 1951 tags at C. C. Robinson Co. report that business is rushing, with less than 300 plates remaining on hand. Kiwanians in charge report that they will remain open until 8 p. m. Saturday at the C. C. Robinson Co., W. Broad-st and Wayne-av, to accommodate latecomers.

Unless tags are purchased at the local spot Saturday, tags must be obtained at downtown outlets.

Burch in his address to the association will point out the methods by which the Columbus Better Business Bureau helps business and exercises control over advertising and solicitations.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 6:45 p. m. in Westgate Methodist Church.

Earlier Tuesday a meeting of the executive committee will be held.

Support Bond Issue April 10

A penny a day for education.

The school bond issue will be voted on in a special election Tuesday, April 10.

Because of the increase in births during the war and post-war years, schools are already bulging, and 1900 more students will enter in September.

Columbus has increased 68,000 in population in the last 10 years, which is equal to moving two cities about the size of Lancaster and Newark into Columbus. Yet no more schools are here than in 1940.

New buildings and remodeling old schools will be covered by this bond issue. West, itself, will get 2 or 3 new classrooms and other miscellaneous remodelings.

Two new schools will be built on the Hilltop, one in Westgate and the other in place of the portable school on West Mound Street. All schools on the West side will receive repairs and improvements.

The cost of this work will be about a penny a day, or $1.13 for a thousand dollars of property evaluation a year.

Two other issues will be voted on in this election. One is to increase Port Columbus by 900,000 acres of land, which will make it surpassed only by La Guardia Field. For every $1 the taxpayers of Columbus spend for this airport, it will be matched by $1 from the Federal Government.

The final issue of this special election is to divert the traffic around the city instead of through the congested downtown area. For each 18 cents the Columbus taxpayers spend on this, the Federal Government will match this with 82 cents.

The greatest need in the world today is universal brotherhood of man founded on friendship and love for our neighbor, whether living next door or in Europe.

The second greatest need in the world is Christian motherhood. There is truth in the old adage, "The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world." The kind of citizen the child becomes depends to a great extent upon the start it has.

The impressions implanted in the mind of a child will go with him through life. If the example of the parent is good, in all probability the child will be just that. The opposite is also true. There may be a few exceptions to the rule, but in general the rule stands.

Take away the refining qualities of women and what have you left? The habits of many women today invite disrespect. Statistics show that more women are tending bar than are enrolled in all the colleges and universities. Many appear in public places almost nude. They smoke and drink with men. Time was when smoking in the presence of women was considered indecent. The standard of womanhood is being lowered.

What about man! Where are the men of today who are honest; who will not lie; who will stand for the right at all times and in all places; who dare to call the hand of the demagogue and condemn his treachery; who live above the fog in public duty and in private thinking. Yes, men have their responsibility as well as women. The influence of both either elevates or degrades.

But we don't want to appear too pessimistic. There are good men and women in the world. One good way of measuring good and bad people is to look at the church record. This is not an accurate measure, for we have hypocrites in the church and good people out of it. Here are the statistics: Approximately 50 per cent of the people are church members, but only 40 per cent of these attend church. Of those who attend regularly only 40 per cent are really working at it. They just go through formality. Not a flattering record. Where are the people on Sunday and what are they doing? You may answer that question for yourself.

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By E. WILSON HARDER

Whatever other business experience enjoyed by Commerce Secretary Sawyer, Washingtonians find ample evidence of his background running a large Midwest amusement park with emphasis on sideshows.

The secret conference with monopoly leaders at Sea Island, Ga., with the press barred, became the greatest peep show on earth.

E. W. Harder

As a barker, he ballyhooed the greatest game of chance on earth. His months of Pollyana assurances that there were no shortages was a gamble with American lives and economy.

Now as a lusty tom-tom beater, Sawyer attempts to finance a half billion dollar plant for Aluminum Co. of Canada—Alcan—subsidiary of America's mammoth Alcoa, with American taxpayers' money.

And thereby hangs the story of reported aluminum shortage.

In northeast states alone in just one industry 15,000 small firms with 150,000 employees face destruction, C. G. Norton, on behalf of Northeastern Roofing, Siding and Insulating Contractors Ass'n informs Senate Small Business Committee.

A proper understanding of this needless shortage and Sawyer's plan requires a brief look at history.

The committee headed by Rep. Celler (D.N.Y.) investigating the aluminum scandal has data showing that from 1888 to 1940 Alcoa and Alcan had almost a 100% worldwide monopoly.

Just prior to World War II Justice Dept. took partial steps to change the picture. Thus, in 1940 Reynolds entered the industry, started giving Alcoa limited competition.

But limited as this competition was, it was sufficient to bring down aluminum prices. The price which from 1929 to 1939 ranged from 20 to 24.3c per pound, dropped in 1941 to 15.5c; dropped during war years to 15c. Thus, aluminum was only major commodity on record to drop in price during the war.

Now, with a shortage alleged, the price has jumped to 19c. There will be more details on the situation next week.

In meantime it is important to bear in mind that Richard Reynolds, Jr. of Reynolds Metals has testified to Rep. Celler's Committee that Alcan, the Alcoa affiliate Sawyer wishes to aid with a half billion American dollars has been shipping aluminum to Russia's satellites.

It is known that the independent weekly and small daily press of America is the bulwark of American freedom of press. The request by the Administration to raise postal rates on newspapers, plus the so-called paper shortages is held by many to be a "squeeze play"; especially since some officials have already stated radio and television might come under strict government control.

Senate Small Business Committee, headed by Sen. John Sparkman (D.Ala.) finds 9,000 weeklies, 750 small dailies use only 3% of newsprint. But newsprint consumption in 1949 was 5,529,206 tons. North American production 6,675,255 tons; 1950 consumption was 5,381,185 tons, production 6,317,000 tons. How can a shortage exist, committee wonders, when production exceeds consumption?

LEARN HOW TO GIVE Artificial Respiration

POINTERS

KEEP PATIENT WARM — use coats, blankets, even in hot weather.

Do not try to give stimulants until the doctor comes. Keep up the rhythmic artificial respiration.

Permit no interruptions by changing operators, moving by ambulance or any means.

Do not stop—natural breathing has been started after eight hours of patient work.

The first thing to do in case of apparent drowning, electrical shock, smothering, strangling, or being overcome by fumes, is to send for a doctor at once. However, the first ten minutes may mean the difference between life and death, and everyone should understand the principles of artificial respiration; and PRACTICE on someone until you are sure you could use it in an emergency.

The above position is correct with patient on stomach, head on one arm with mouth and nose free; worker astride patient with shoulders above lower lungs of patient. ARMS STIFF.

Slowly bring weight of body down on patient's lower lungs, as shown, taking about two seconds for movement. Release pressure entirely, allowing about two seconds for the lungs to fill with air. Repeat without interruption until patient is breathing regularly, or has been pronounced dead by a doctor.

The American Red Cross course in resuscitation has been approved by the American Medical Association, and they give free courses that any child can understand and practice.

Hilltop YMCA Intermediate Cage League Closes With Champs Downing All-Stars

UP, UP, UP . . . went the ball, as the Hoge and Glenwood Methodist teams battled it out in the Hilltop YMCA championship basketball tourney. The result of the shot? Well, Hoge trounced Glenwood, 35-25, to win the Junior League title.

DOWN, DOWN, DOWN . . . came the ball and into the bucket it went. In spite of the successful shot, the "Y" League All-Stars lost to the Hilltop Church of Christ team, 35-19, in a game played Wednesday evening in the West High School gymnasium for the championship of Class B in the "Y" league.

By Dave Miller

The Hilltop YMCA Intermediate and Junior Basketball leagues, holding top interest among over 150 Hilltop youngsters since the first of the year, officially closed its door on the 1951 cage season last Wednesday evening in the West High gym.

Junior High Coach O. D. Lehman and YMCA Secretary Jack Downing, "worked" a deal in which the Hilltop basketballers could complete their season on the West court—and the result was terrific.

In the night's opener, the Hilltop Church of Christ team, Intermediate League Class B winners, toppled the Class B All-Stars, 35-19. In the evening's final, Hoge Memorial, Class A champs, romped over the "A" all-stars, 39-33.

In the second game, the Hoge Memorial junior team captured the YMCA League playoff title by downing Glenwood Methodists, 35-25.

Class B

Bob Shivers of the Hilltop Church of Christ team was the big difference in this game, as his 16 points practically individually paced Hilltop to a 35-19 win over the Class B All-Stars.

The All-Stars stayed alongside the Hilltop team for the first quarter, trailing only 7-10 at the finish, but failed to score a point in the second period while Hilltop was bagging eight points for an 18-7 halftime lead, a margin never threatened seriously afterwards by the All-Star aggregation.

Shivers was high scorer with 16 points while Miller of the All-Stars collected 12. Bill Groomes hit eight for the Hilltop team, in addition to playing a standout rebounding game.

Class A

If shooting percentages were kept in Hoge Memorial's rather easy (and surprising) 39-33 victory over the Class A All-Stars, the number would probably have been 40 percent or more.

The Hoge team probably hit one of their hottest nights of the season, and they couldn't have picked a better evening. They led the entire game, after holding an 8-6 first period lead, but were seriously threatened in the final period when the All-Star aggregation out-tallied the ultimate winners, 12-4, which provided the rather close final score.

Ted Collins of Hoge was especially accurate from mid-court, sinking four of his game's six buckets from 15 feet or farther. Ron Ackers hit nine points for Hoge, four less than Collins.

"Mo" Dobbs was the whole show for the All-Stars. He took high scoring honors with 16 points, although he missed six foul shots. "Big Mo" was also rebounding in fine style for the losing cause.

Glenwood-Hoge

Hoge Memorial's Junior team took the championship of the Hilltop Junior Y League by virtue of its convincing 35-25 decision over Glenwood Methodist.

The game was an even affair for the initial two quarters but Hoge caught fire in the final half to easily walk away with the decision. Bates' three straight buckets for Hoge in the final period also aided matters considerably.

Coach Logie Proper's crew outscored Glenwood, 11-7, in the final period which left little doubt as to the winner. Joe Witter paced Hoge with nine points as Bates and Jimmy Hughes each sank eight, the same number netted by Glenwood's Carl Pressler.

Hilltop Cagers Are Eliminated From Tourney

Hilltop Punks A. C. was eliminated from the Senior Knothole Basketball tournament at Schiller Park last Saturday night, dropping a 49-37 verdict to Borean Cement, from the North-End.

The Punks, winners of their first two games over Bexley Panthers (22-21), and Ryan Hall A.C. (25-22), pulled up to within one point of their conquerors Saturday at 34-33, but the winners finished fast in the final three minutes to sew up the verdict.

Dave Miller topped Hilltop with 11 while Mo Dobbs followed with 10 points. Phil Redick and Sonny Chappalear each bagged six and Eddie Gleibs had four.

SPORT SLANTS

By Dave Miller

Although last Wednesday marked the first day of spring, the spring sports program, oddly enough has to hold for a little while before the weatherman takes time to at least let the baseballers throw a few; the tracksters gallop a few; and the linksmen swing a few.

Despite it all, the gym at West has been taking a beating—that is to the extent of so many athletes cramming its corridors. The final two periods of the day, the track men use for conditioning periods—their regular gym classes—in order to limber themselves for their nightly treks around the school halls before the weatherman finally releases the buzzer for outside duty.

After school, the baseball pitchers and catchers cram the West gym for a working out period, and when the sloppy mud turns to just an "oozing" point, the outfielders trek outside to toss a few and fungo some more.

Track

However, you can talk about baseball until you're blue in the face to Track Coach Rufe Glass out at West, but that running sport is what is interesting Mr. Glass at the present, although right at the moment, he's pretty much concentrated about basketball, keeping statistics at the state tournament.

But you won't see many coaches talk about their sport as much as Coach Glass does. He takes the running sport seriously, and knows whereof he speaks.

This year's track edition has four returning lettermen back in the varsity ranks, and eight returning reserve winners. However, two of those reserves won't be able to participate this season, one didn't report for action, and one other is out because of a football injury.

The varsity returnees are Jerry Witherspoon and Ronnie Coup, in the distance; Kenny Hallam in the pole vault; and Gene Harrison returning in the shot put.

Reserves returnees are John Bolg, Ted Johnson, Cliff Everett, Dick Briggs, Raymond Harper, Bert Heyder, Dave Skipper, and Ronnie Grant. The latter two won't be active this year, Skipper didn't report, and Grant is suffering a knee injury he incurred during football season.

However, Coach Glass figures on 12 other trackmen, who were members of the team last year, but didn't receive awards. They include Bill Hill, Rolland Esly, Jack Delph, Alan Hopkins, Jim Lang (injured), Dick McDermitt, Richard Burnette, Clare Ashton, Jerry Fry, Jim Koontz, and Garland Edwards.

Three managers are back from last year, including Jim Snyder, Joe Wallace and Earl Cline.

In addition Glass has quite a number from last year's junior high team who were city junior High co-champs with Champion Junior.

The season begins for the tracksters Apr. 10 at Upper Arlington for a tri-angular meeting with Arlington, West and South. The complete schedule:

April 10—South, Arlington at Arlington.
April 13—At East.
April 17—Central.
April 21—At Huntington Relays.
April 24—At Marion Harding.
April 28 — Ohio Wesleyan Relays, Delaware.
May 1—At Chillicothe.
May 4—Linden.
May 8—Hilltop Relays.
May 11—North.
May 15—Newark.
Maly 19—District, Delaware.
May 22—City Meet, West.
May 25—State, OSU.

An automobile accident resulted in the death of the driver and the injury of two passengers. The coroner summoned several witnesses, and among them a farmer living near the scene of the accident. There was much testimony about the speed of the car and the sad state of repair of the road. Finally the coroner said to the old farmer: "What would you say caused this accident?"

"Well, if I was writing that young man's epitaph", the witness drawled, "I'd say he died trying to get 75 miles an hour out of a 15-mile road.

Earl Redman, who played on the West reserves til mid-year, played for South against West Saturday night, scoring two points, and fouling out in the final quarter. Trabue did a good job on defense against him, blocking a number of his shots.

The West band was on hand at the Bexley game, and added a lot of spirit . . . Director Clair Barnard announces that the tooters will also appear tomorrow night.

"Here A Chick, There A Chick—Chicks Everywhere"

UP TO HIS NECK IN CHICKS was true last Saturday of Harold Fox of Fox Food Shop, 2422 W. Broad-st, when he followed an annual Easter custom of giving free baby chicks to every boy and girl who came into his store. And the chicks were friendly too, even wanted to pick Harold's teeth for him when the picture was made. All children who received a baby chick are eligible for Foxy's annual poultry contest held the last week in June in which the owner of the prize chicken will be awarded a $5 prize.

The Low Down On High Ridgers

By One of Them

Well, we see that No. 3 has arrived in the CRITES family. Charley and JEAN have three boys now. Both mother and son are home from the hospital doing fine.

Speaking of hospitals, James Kuhn walked into the side of a moving truck and broke his knee cap. The irony of his misfortune was that he spent quite a bit of time in the hospital just as his only brother came to visit him from out West.

They hadn't seen each other for two and a half years, and JIM was looking forward to his visit months ago, and this had to happen. It could have been worse, you know, fellows.

Loads of luck to BUFORD STOUT who is leaving for the navy. He'll no doubt have his turn mopping up the deck and working in the galley. Have fun, BOOTS!

Learning how to smoke a pipe is Mike Sullivan. He claims he's going to get used to it if it half kills him (which it seems to be doing, so far). Puff away MIKE, and we'll see what happens.

Stirring up the soup is little HELENE COPEN. She was married overseas during the last war, and when she and her husband came home up in Linden, her mother did most of the cooking. But now that they're over here on Wrexham, she's using her cook book and learning quite a bit. MRS. COPEN will probably put the rest of the wives to shame if she continues as good as she's doing now.

A few new spring togs were seen during the Easter week. One of the prettiest things seen was a fur piece. MRS. DICK BLAKE's fur scarf looked snappy over her new blue suit. I didn't see very many spring outfits, myself, the cold kept me in.

Quit worrying, neighbors! Give the Gas Co. a little more time. They put in a new gas line on Safford and tore up our streets. No doubt they'll pave over the ruts they made At least—we're hoping!

A few of our neighbors believe in the Easter bunny. The C. F GARDNERS have a live bunny; and the HIGHFILLS have some little chicks. The grandchildren love the live little animals. It's something different to keep them amused.

Postal Notes To Be Discontinued Mar. 31

Postmaster Allen M. Rowe announced today that beginning the first of April, patrons of the Columbus post office will have to buy money orders instead of postal notes. The Postmaster General has ordered that the sale of postal notes be discontinued at the close of business Mar. 31. This is a preliminary step looking to the inauguration of a new money order system, effective July 1, 1951.

As the sale of postal notes will be discontinued Mar. 31, no postal note will be valid for payment after May 31, 1951.

Mr. Norman Christopher, 2344 Cumberland, Houston, Texas, works for the Water Contract Division of the City of Houston, and he says the housetops aren't high enough nor the days long enough for him to praise HADACOL. He says since he has been taking HADACOL he feels mighty good. For Hadacol seemed to be what he needed and Hadacol may bring you the relief you're looking for. If your condition is caused by lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Mr. Christopher says: "After I got out of the Army I was underweight, nervous, couldn't sleep and had a terrible time getting food to agree with me. When I would wake up in the morning I would always be sick at my stomach—I could never eat breakfast—imagine having to wait until noon before eating the first meal of the day. Even then just a few mouthfuls of food would fill me up. At night I couldn't sleep—I would just roll and toss all night. I felt miserable. Nothing seemed to help me until I started taking HADACOL. After the third bottle of HADACOL I could tell a difference in my eating and sleeping habits. Now after a year's time of taking HADACOL I have gained almost 20 pounds. I sleep well—and the most wonderful thing—I can enjoy 3 full meals a day. There is no way I can describe the tremendous improvement in my appetite. I have started my wife taking HADACOL and she, too, is feeling wonderful. If there is anybody who doubts my word about what I have said about HADACOL, they should have seen me before I started taking HADACOL. I sincerely recommend HADACOL to all my friends and urge them to take HADACOL."

All Ages Can Be Helped

HADACOL is simply remarkable, the way it has helped folks of all ages—yes, thousands of men, women and children who have deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. HADACOL is that wonderful new preparation—promising blessed relief for stomach distress, nervousness if caused by an upset stomach, vague aches and pains, or a general run-down condition, when they are due to such deficiencies.

Remember, HADACOL is not a quick-acting product that only attacks the symptoms of the miseries, but actually relieves the real cause of pains and aches due to such deficiencies. Yes, and continued use of HADACOL helps prevent the miseries from coming back.

Start Taking HADACOL Now

Don't go through life putting up with a stomach that is easily upset, that causes you gas pains, heartburn, sour risings after meals; a stomach that will not digest food properly; yes, if due to lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, you can overcome the deficiencies which are causing these miseries by taking HADACOL which contains those precious Vitamins.

Start taking HADACOL right away, and if you do not get the results you expect your money will be immediately refunded. HADACOL costs only $1.25 for a trial-size bottle. Large family or economy size, $2.50.

Mrs. Anna Lavergne, Church Point, Louisiana, says she has a word of advice for those folks who seem always blue, mad at the world, or think cloudy skies are always hanging over their heads. Mrs. Lavergne says most folks when they act that way must not be feeling well . . . 'cause a poor disposition is a sure sign of trouble. Mrs. Lavergne says, just taking herself as an example . . . now that she is taking HADACOL there isn't a person in the world who can make her mad for HADACOL seemed to be what she needed. Yes HADACOL may bring you the relief you are seeking if your condition is due to lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Here is Mrs. Lavergne's own statement: "You don't know how wonderful it feels to be in such good condition— after two years of feeling run-down. I had a very poor appetite—in fact, food didn't agree with me at all. I had a hard time sleeping nights . . . sometimes I would stay awake until 1 or 2 in the morning and then the next day I would feel tired and froggy all day long. You have no idea how terrible I felt. Now all this is gone . . . yes, now that I have been taking HADACOL, I feel wonderful. I get lots of good, sound sleep, have a fine appetite and just lots of energy. I can eat any kind of food now and it doesn't bother me a bit. I just can't begin to thank HADACOL."

Don't Put Off Taking HADACOL . . . do as thousands of others whose systems lacked Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron are doing. The HADACOL formula is very effective for stomach distress, insomnia due to upset stomach, vague aches and pains, and a general run-down condition if they are due to such deficiencies. Make up your mind to give HADACOL a chance to help you as it has helped others whose systems lacked Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL, either the trial size, $1.25, or the large family or economy size, $3.50, and if HADACOL does not help you, your money will be refunded.

Columbus State School Students Are Taught Preparedness For Life And Useful Vocations

SHOWN ABOVE is the miniature grocery store constructed of old orange crates and other scrap materials by students of one of the special classes at Columbus State Hospital. Here they are taught how to make change and to recognize different values that prove helpful to them in assuming a full life as citizens.

By "Pat" Martindale

Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me, for such is the kingdom of heaven. (Matt. 19-14)

And so it is with these words in mind that Dr. Roger Gove and his personnel of doctors, nurses and skilled workers believe that students committed to the Columbus State School should not "while-away" their life but should be taught to become useful citizens even though many will remain at the school their entire life. On the other hand, many will be prepared to take their place in public life as soon as they are taught.

Although Dr. Gove and Roy Ferguson, educational director, have been with the school less than a year, amazing accomplishments have been made. The school proper, in the Administration Building contains regular class rooms where reading, writing and arithmetic are taught. Classes are not divided into age or grades, but by mental standards. Each student is carefully observed and placed in a class according to his mental ability. Arts, crafts, music, manual training, home economics and athletics are taught to students talented inseuh subjects.

Every week dances are held for the teen-agers and just as in any other school the students eagerly look forward to attending.

In one of the special class rooms is a regular grocery store with fruits and vegetables made from paper-mache and lacquered to look almost real, duplicates of popular brands of canned goods and other commodities line the shelves. Students are given money to purchase articles, thus learning to make change and identify various types of merchandise. In this class room they are also taught to dial the telephone and carry on a conversation.

In the rug shop, students weave beautiful rag rugs which are used in the cottages and dormitories. These rugs are also sold to the public to defray material costs, build educational and entertainment funds and to pay the students for their work.

Chair caning and basket weaving classes have a special room where students repair furniture for the school. Here, too, orders will be taken and filled for the public.

The library is one of which any school would be proud. Classes, individuals and the personnel are permitted to borrow books or spend leisure time in this room.

Upon entering the school each student is given a ten week trial in each of many vocations and after being carefully observed is then assigned to the class for which he or she is best suited.

In the spotlessly clean school every one seems satisfied and happy. Students will soon be permitted to select their own wardrobe from the wardrobe room now being stocked by State School Guild sewers.

For entertainment, movies are shown several times a week. Movies are taken to hospitalized patients. Honor students are often taken on shopping trips and it is hoped, that Guild members will find time to occasionally take students for a Sunday afternoon drive.

Catholic, Protestant and Jewish church services are conducted regularly and students are given religious instruction.

Guild meetings are held on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. The guild room is opened at 9 a. m. and groups of individuals are invited to join.

The school now has the largest enrollment in its history.

Camp Fire Girl Activities

On sturday, Mar. 17, the Pat-Ki-Ga Group of Camp Fire Girls and their leader, Mrs. James Matheny, attended the rehearsal of the Mills Brothers Circus at the Ohio State Fairgrounds. Many fine horse and elephant acts were seen, but the girls all agreed it was "Fearless Fagan" who stole the show. "Fearless' is the tame lion which was given to the circus recently by a soldier. After the performance, the girls ate a trail lunch they had prepared.

The Pat-Ki-Ga Group invited two other Camp Fire Groups to their meeting on Wednesday, Mar. 21. One group is under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Boots and the other, Mrs. Eleanor Gaskill. Two ladies from the Columbus Milk Council showed two interesting films, "Whenever You Eat" and "It's Your Health." The knowledge gained from viewing these films will prove very helpful to the girls in earning honors in Home Craft, in planning balanced meals at home, on their hikes and overnight trips. Also, this is one of the requirements in the Wood Gatherer Rank which the girls are working on at the present time. Suzanne Elliott, Linda Matheny, Judy Edwards and Barbara Wilson served cookies they had made to the girls and their guests.

A new girl, Barbara Herbster from West Junior High, has recently joined the Pat-Ki-Ga group, making a total of 21 members.

The store is a combination of retail store and display center for all products handled by Farm Bureau Cooperatives throughout the state. It offers for retail a complete line of lawn and garden supplies, seeds and garden tools, as well as home appliances.

Facts About The April 10 Election—No. 1

WHY DO WE NEED NEW SCHOOLS?

AN INTERVIEW WITH NOVICE G. FAWCETT, SUPT. OF COLUMBUS SCHOOLS

(Final installment of this article will appear in the Apr. 5 edition of this newspaper.)

Fast-growing Columbus has far out-stepped the facilities of its city school system.

War-retarded school building, steadily-increasing population and the concentrated pressure of the high birth rates of the '40's have brought about over-crowded classrooms and temporary school housing. New residential sections, spreading into unsettled areas of the city, have created new housing headaches for school officials.

To find out how serious the problem is, and what Columbus school officials are doing to solve it, a local reporter reviewed the entire situation with Novice G. Fawcett, superintendent of Columbus public schools.

Q. Are buildings in the Columbus school system inadequate?

A. Yes. Many of our buildings date back almost to Civil War days. They are neither fireproof nor adequate educationally. They're lacking in special facilities needed today—no multiple-purpose rooms or gymnasium-auditorium, no lunch rooms or health rooms, out-dated toilet facilities.

Q. Would these old buildings, remodeled, meet the need?

A. No. To meet the school population need with just classrooms alone, we should have a minimum of 250 classrooms, distributed over the city, in addition to the number we have now.

Q. Why has the situation become so serious.

A. Because we've already done very little about a problem that was serious in 1940. The need was relatively serious then, when a study of projected school enrollments was completed to show how much space was needed to house children adequately for the next 10 to 15 years.

Q. What did that study recommend?

A. It called for three new buildings—parts of which have been built for Indian Springs, Fairmoor and North Linden. It recommended four new buildings downtown to replace seven old buildings to be abandoned —not necessarily to gain classrooms but to replace unsafe housing in densely populated areas where the increased birth rate keeps up the need.

It recommended remodeling for 32 buildings, again not to gain classrooms but to bring buildings up to satisfactory educational and safety standards. It also called for additions to junior high schools and enlarged sites where space around schools is limited.

Q. Wasn't the 1945 school bond issue designed to carry out these recommendations?

A. Yes, but the bond issue was voted late, several years after the survey was completed. When school officials moved into the program that the $6,500,000 bond issue was to solve, costs of labor and materials had about doubled. And the need was increasing all the time.

Q. How has the picture changed?

A. All of that 1945 program was based on Columbus needs before World War II. With increased population and birth rate, the problem has become more and more acute each year.

It was like picking up a city the size of Springfield and setting it down in Columbus with no additional facilities provided for the increase.

Q. Do you have figures showing the extent of growth?

A. Yes, the new survey showed that population of the city increased by 67,734 in the last decade, and birth rate figures are significant, too. From 1931 to 1940, there were 49,324 children born in the city. In the next decade, '40 to '50, there were 74,013 births recorded.

In the same 10-year period, the study showed, 17,999 dwelling units were constructed—most of them in outlying areas where space was available—and where there were no school buildings.

Q. How was the 1945 bond money allotted?

A. When the program was voted, the board made a commitment to the people to do a certain number of projects—as the recommendations of the building study indicated. As costs increased, it would have been impossible to complete the projects as planned without leaving others untouched.

Where $150,000 had been allotted to remodel a building, it would have cost twice as much to do the job completely. The same was true for new buildings. Rather than do this, the board stuck to its promise and tried to do a partial job in all of the areas involved in the 1945 program.

Q. Has all the 1945 money been spent?

A. No. That program never really got under way until 1948, and approximately $4,300,000 remains to be spent on projects not yet started.

Q. What has the board done to meet the present situation?

A. This emergency situation has been growing for several years, and the board realized that the old program was no longer adequate to meet unanticipated growth in the city and in the birth rate. Before asking support for any additional financial program, the board spent 10 months making a detailed study with best research techniques to determine building needs to meet minimum requirements for the next 15 years. The re-study was completed last June.

Q. What did the study cover?

A. It included all population trends, birth rate statistics, figures on construction of new housing units in the last 5-10 years, distribution of enrollments, where children are today and where they're going to be, downtown enrollments and so on.

Youngest Census Takers In U. S. Go To Work In Hilltop School District This Week

The youngest census takers in the United States will be knocking on Hilltop doors this week when the sixth graders at West Broad Street Elementary School conduct a survey of their school district.

The survey, required by law, will be made to learn the names and addresses of all children presently attending the school; those who cannot attend due to physical impairments, and those who will attend the school next year.

Of the three points, the latter is the most important to the school itself. The figures the sixth graders bring back on children who will be enrolled at the school, will allow Matilda Stuart, principal of the West Broad Street School, to decide before the school year's beginning how many teachers she will need to meet the ever rising number of students.

Miss Stuart lists three other reasons for the survey:

A bulletin prepared by the school will be distributed to all parents of next year's enrollees explaining the things each child should be taught before he begins to attend classes and requesting that the parents make an appointment to bring their child to the school. During the appointment, Miss Stuart introduces the youngster to his teacher, shows him his room and takes him on a tour of the building, thus eliminating one of the child's major fears of school years.

The bulletin also explains that the child should be taught how to cross the street alone, to care for his clothes and to recognize his clothing by reading markings on it.

An appointment will be made for the child to be checked by the school's nurse, for conditions that need correction before he enrolls.

The sixth graders are permitted to make the survey only if the school receives written permission from the parents of each youngster. If the permission is received, the child is teamed with another from his grade and sent to check a one or two block area near his own home.

Here come the census takers again.

A Yellowed Newspaper

Recall Events Of Thirty Years Ago

Shades of the gas-light era and the day of the human, non-mechanical washing machine . . .

Sage philosophers say a newspaper is a lively place, full of the unexpected. They're right and to prove it, we're using some of the material one of our friends brought in.

A bundle given The Hilltop Record by Fred H. Raether, owner of the Economy Variety Store, 2402 W. Broad-st, was wrapped in a Dec 2, 1918 copy of the New York Journal. Three boxes of engravings used by Raether in the pre-invention were inside the paper.

The banners (top headlines on page 1) in the Journal announced "Hindenburg Balks Ex-Kaiser's Plotting", "City Welcomes Joyously First Troops From Overseas" and "President Goes Before Congress."

The Hindenburg story tells of an attempt to restore "Kaiser Bill" to power in a coup aimed at overthrowing the democratic Ebert government of Germany.

The story on the first troops returning from overseas illustrated the enthusiasm with which the people of New York greeted the Yanks. Mayor Hylan of New York was battling red tape to allow the 3,999 men returned on the Mauretania "to march up Fifth-av today as the recipients of what will be the greatest spontaneous ovation accorded any body of men in the memory of any living man."

However, his desires (and apparently those of other New Yorkers) were being blocked by military routine, which called for the soldiers to go to a camp and be inspected before being given the freedom of the city. The late Harry Lauder, famous Scotch comedian was on the Mauretania to entertain the troops on the trip back from Europe.

Also on Dec. 2, 1918, President Woodrow Wilson was preparing to leave for Europe to meet with heads of the allied governments to negotiate a peace based on his magnanimous "fourteen principles." He was to leave after delivering his annual "State of the Union" speech to Congress.

Buried in the midst of the crumbling pages of the Journal was a story about Alexander Kerensky, pre-revolution Russian premier, who fled to London when Lenin and Stalin came to power. The reporter interviewing him said that "although he was extremely pessimistic as to Russia's immediate future, Kerensky said that he had no doubt whatever that Russia's democracy would ultimately triumph over anarchy and Bolshevism."

On the other side of the news, the paper carried a story about a man who installed gas-light in his new home because "electricity is a passing fancy"; one about Father Duffy, chaplain of the Sixty-Ninth, who offered his thanks to the ladies who sent the "boys over there" gifts, including "100 flannel jackets"; an ad that shouted in huge type that "The Boys Have Been Used to MUSIC 'over There'," and then asked "Are they going to find music at home?" It continued, "They'll come back in a blaze of light and music. And, surely, not one of them will be asked to step over the threshold of a home in which there is no music—no piano or player piano to play again the songs they sang in France." The ad ended its tirade by demanding that "you buy your pianos here."

But the story that really brought 1918 up to 1951 was one that announced that the city of New York would go into the egg business and sell eggs at 50 cents a dozen, hoping to bring the current price of 66 cents a dozen, down.

The names and events differ greatly, but the prices still look the same.

Residents Stage Bobby Jones Day At Grove City

Residents of Grove City staged a "Bobby Jones Day" Easter Sunday, when members of Happiness Anonymous sponsored a program of prayer and material aid for the little boy. Bobby was accidentally shot in the abdomen by a playmate last Dec. 23.

Since his injury, Bobby has remained in the hospital and has undergone four operations. Mt. Carmel Hospital reports his condition as good.

Special prayers were offered for Bobby's recovery in the community's churches, and a special collection was taken. Several local businessmen placed barrels for donations to his fund in their stores.

March Double Ring Ceremony Unites Well Known Couple.

Mrs. Philip Foster Fulton

Miss Katherine Jane Lorenz and Mr. Philip Foster Fulton exchanged wedding vows Mar. 18 in Community Christian Church at a 4 p. m. double-ring ceremony performed by the bride's father, the Rev. Mr. James F. Lorenz, pastor of the church. The chancel was decorated with huckleberry foliage, palms, candelabra, tall baskets of white gladioli and stock, and altar vases of white gladioli and pompons.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her grandfather, Mr. John E. Blenkner. Her gown was of sheer marquisette with mandarin collar of hand-made Belgian lace, long sleeves ending in a point over the hand, and a fitted bodice with self buttons extending from neckline to point of bodice. A narrow full peplum of Belgian lace circled the waist while the bouffant skirt swept gracefully into a cathedral train. From a helmet of net and matching lace fell a circular two-tier veil, fingertip in length. The bride's bouquet of white shattered carnations was centered with a purple-throated white orchid corsage. As her only jewelry the bride wore tiny pearl earrings, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Diane Fulton, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Bill Hall were bridesmaid and bridesmatron. They wore pale yellow gowns with lace bodices, full floor-length net skirts with a hip band of matching satin, and wide satin sashes tied in butterfly bows in back. Headpieces of matching net finished with full bow on one side were worn. Their flowers were yellow roses and white sweet peas.

Miss Ruth Lorenz attended her sister as maid of honor. Her orchid gown was identical in style to those of the other attendants. Her flowers were yellow roses and orchid sweet peas.

Serving as flower girls were Joan Lorenz, another sister of the bride, and Marilyn Fish the bride's cousin. Their dresses, also of yellow, were designed like those of the attendants and similar head pieces, tied under the chin and into a bow at one side, were worn. Each carried a bouquet of yellow roses and orchids sweet peas.

Mr. Herbert Schneider served Mr. Fulton as best man and the wedding guests were seated by Mr. Bill Hall, Mr. James Remington, Mr. Robert Mack and Mr. James Lorenz, Jr., the bride's brother.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Ilonka's Provincial House. For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose a dress of soft blue lace with navy and pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink camellias. The mother of the bridegroom wore beige taffeta shantung, mauve hat, and gloves, and an orchid corsage. Assistant hostesses at the reception were Miss Betty Caldwell, Mrs. Daniel McPherson, Mrs. John Wade and Mrs. Jack Wagner.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from West High School and in June will receive their degrees from the College of Education at Ohio State University.

For her going-away outfit the bride wore a brown suit with matching brown and gold accessories and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

After a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., the couple will make their home at 303 N. Harris-av.

Hilltop Easter Parade Spotlights Many Fashions

A fair and sunny Sunday led many Hilltoppers out into the Easter Parade this year. Although the brisk breeze forbade anyone forgetting it was an early Easter, brave souls bedecked themselves in Spring finery.

The almost-traditional Easter suit was very much in evidence, topped by a fur cape or stole or a topper of wool. Hats for the most part were conservative as were milady's flowers. Some very brilliant colors were visible and probably herald a trend which will gain fervor in the warmer months. Tangerine, mustard, and shades of purple are the most popular "bright" colors.

Mrs. C. M. Stevens, 259 S. Westmoor, wore a biege suit under her fur cape, and sparked her outfit with violet accessories. This combination of a soft color with bright color always creates an attractive ensemble.

A picture of spring was Mary Lou Leech, 442 S. Terrace-av, who wore a blue and white checked topper over basic navy. Even her shoes were navy!

Lois Farrand, 2438 Steele-av, wore a pink coat and hat with navy accessories in the Easter parade. Her corsage of pink and white carnations was the frosting on the cake.

Martha Merriman, 44 Sylvan-av, looked as crisp as the morning in a navy suit with a matching hat.

An eye-catcher was the cocoa colored coat worn by Mrs. Mary Price, 2438 W. Broad-st. White accessories and a gardenia corsage highlighted this warm color.

The coat-and-hat duo worn by Helen B. Tingley, 3089½ W. Broad-st, was quite stunning. The coat was of a gold color and the hat was of matching and contrasting colors.

Mrs. Walter Tilton, 728 Racine-av was attractively garbed in a navy suit with matching accessories. To her fur cape was pinned a corsage of pink glamillias.

A toupe suit worn with accents of black was the choice of Edith Mae Wilkins, 89 Eldon-av. Her black hat was attractively decorated with lily of the valley and she wore an orchid corsage.

One of the most attractive and springy ensembles was worn by Mrs. Fred Deubner, 172 S. Brinker-av. Her hat was a creation of orchid enhanced with chartruse, fuschia and pink flowers with a halo effect veil. Her dark navy suit was worn with a blouse of orchid stripes shading to blue and topped by a fur cape. Her purse and shoes were of dark wine leather. Pink gloves completed this illusion of spring.

Small-Fry Are Fashion Wise

Featured in the news we find small-fry fashions. Little girls in the Easter Parade were as proud this year as their mommys of their bonnets and bows.

Little Vickey Kegg, 219 S. Richardson-av, was as fresh as a daffodil in her yellow pique dress. Eileen Ansley, 463 Nashoba-av, was sporting a navy topper in the heighth of style.

The Bergman girls, Phylis and Diane, 121 S. Eureka-av, wore pastel dresses suited to spring.

Nancy Ann Pfaltzgraf, 200 N. Warren-av, stepped into the Easter Parade with a navy Eton suit with which she wore a white hat, black patent shoes and a red shoulder bag. Vera and Mardel Dixon, 205 Eldon-av, were attention-getters in dresses of aqua and rose.

An Easter bonnet of banana straw bedecked with flowers was a true sign of spring as worn by Beverly Waltman, 238 Wrexham-av.

MARCH

When Spring awakes she's like someone I know—
Big blow,
Bombast,
All show,
And her rough ways will last
Till she's expressed her woe
And everyone about has felt the blast;
But when she's up a while
How she will melt you with her smile!

"Our Gal Sandy" Sanford (one of my most dependable scouts) tells this story of a four-year-old, who was afraid of the dark. Her mother had explained that God is in the dark as He is in the light. To prove this to the child she sent her into a dark room and heard her say "God, I know You are in here 'cause Mommie said so, but please don't move or You will scare me to death!"

Flash—I scooped my own boss! Just don't know my own siren'th, seems if. Here Mr. Hartley, Columnist-par-excellence, has used "The Legend of the Dogwood Tree" in his column lo, these many years. It is too bad he didn't use it before Easter this year because it would have been read in HIS column. Don't start cheering yet because maybe I won't get fired.

Excerpts from mail—From Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kemp who recently celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary: "The years have not all been happy but we have been together. 'Together' is a beloved word" . . . From my stepmother: "The Kefauver Investigation is quite a study in mutual admiration, sarcasm, side-stepping of issues and scrambled king's English" . . . From William Bowser, New York: "My wife and I intended to be married in The Little Church Around the Corner but when we pooled our liabilities and discovered how forbidding they were and that our assets were practically nil, we were married in Central Park. Nobody notices you there, though the park is usually crowded."

My own private Waterloo department: Remembering how to shift gears; remembering to listen to a radio program that somebody warns me not to miss; remembering not to interfere when my granddaughter (who never deserves it!) is being scolded; remembering to fire the furnace.

Disraeli said it—"No government can be long secure without a formidable opposition"; Thomas Jefferson said "The will of the people is the only legitimate foundation of government; and to protect its free expression should be our first object."

Back-fencing: Mr. Cramer (Pharmacy, Kiwanis, etc.) has the same trouble I do, saying "governing," so now I don't feel so badly; Mrs. Dora McCandlish of Hawkes-av, who is my granddaughter's "other" (and pretty) grandma, said she knows spring has come because she killed a mosquito and saw one of her small neighbors barefooted; the newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. William Pridemore, 257 S. Terrace-av, have taken an apartment on Clark-pl, but still like to come home often to the Hilltop.

Sorry that this Easter poem was overlooked last week. It is lovely and will be as much appreciated today:

THE EASTER LILY

Simple, white and clean
With dignity towers,
Having a splendor not yet seen
In the most beautiful of flowers.
Carrying a fragrance of spring.
Blessed be the words of Jesus—
"I tell thee that not even Solomon
In all his glory was not arrayed
Like one of these";
Looked upon with pride until
The world ceases.
In words of simplicity and majesty
Will reign as flower supreme,
The Easter Lily—Flower of the King.

Girl Scout News

Troop 338, under the leadership of Mrs. John Holzapfel, presented Mrs. Herbert White, a native of Denmark, before the Girl Scouts and Brownies of West Broad Street School, Mar. 21. Mrs. White gave an interesting talk on Denmark. Troop 338 also has prepared dressings for sterilizing at White Cross Hospital.

Troop 295 of West Broad Street School spent the week-end of Mar. 17-18 at Camp Ken-Jockety. The troop leaders are Mrs. Harold Frechter and Mrs. Cleo Smith.

Each month four John Burroughs Brownie troops make tray favors for rest homes or hospitals. Making Easter favors this month were Troop 149, under Mrs. Don Frazier for the Wilson Rest Home; Troop 178, under Mrs. Howard McVey for the Community Hospital; Troops 110 and 100 under Mrs. Lucien Ward and Mrs. Joseph Chesser, respectively, for the Bellevue Rest Home.

It's time to think of day camp! All Girl Scouts and Brownies should begin dreaming and planning for that week in the woods when we shall have as much camping fun as can be crowded into every single day. Each registered Scout and Brownie has by now received her camp bulletin and knows the Hilltop day camp dates are June 14, 15, 18, 19, 20, 21 for the Brownies and for Intermediates and Seniors, June 22, 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29. But you Hilltop girls have a surprise in store. There will be a new camp site this summer, a wooded area about 11 miles out in the country, with a stream for fishing.

Please note an error in the day camp folder. Mrs. Frank O. Frazier is District 8 Day Camp chairman, and her phone is JO. 4134. Reservations for intermediates and seniors must be called in to her or to Mrs. Arthur Rismiller, District 10 chairman, RA. 8696, by June 1. Mrs. Raymond Hanglin, RA. 4386, is camp director.

Troop 110, with troop mother, Mrs. Alma Morris, in charge, recently collected clothes for a family whose home and possessions were destroyed by fire.

Six members of Troop 113, West Junior High, assisted at the Glenwood Shelter House Easter party and egg hunt. Troop 113 has been taking handicraft from Pat Mathews at the recreation center during March. They have made metal bracelets, reed baskets, etched glasses and made shell jewelry and langards.

Grandmother Keeps Busy Feels Good; Took Hadacol

When She Heard How HADACOL Was Helping People Suffering From Deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin And Iron

Keeping up with two small grandchildren as well as doing your housework can keep one woman mighty busy. And Mrs. B. R. Battle, 807 Archer, Houston, Texas, does just that. There was a time when Mrs. Battle didn't feel up to all this though. She was bothered with stomach disturbances and vague aches and pains. Then she heard the news about how Hadacol was helping relieve conditions caused by deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron.

Here is her statement:
"I had been troubled with indigestion and aches and pains. I heard about HADACOL and began taking it. After the fifth bottle I began to feel better. I could eat better and rest better and the pains and aches were less. I have now taken 12 bottles and can truthfully say that HADACOL has helped me a lot."

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the cause of vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin, but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus—elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come in Liquid Form

There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be A "Doubting Thomas"

After reading Mrs. Battle's wonderful experience with HADACOL—how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula may help you if your system lacks Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Battle, it may do for you if you're troubled with vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia, when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress and a general run-down weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need—the kind you should have and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sold On a Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful!

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest druggists if you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron. This great HADACOL is inexpensive too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size, only $1.25. Large family or economy size $2.50.

The Alumni Association presented a plaque to West High School on the school's twenty-fifth anniversary. The name of a teacher is inscribed on it, as a teacher reaches his twenty-fifth year of service at West High School.

Six teachers have achieved this goal. They are: Arnet B. Cole; George F. Neeb, Orville G. Montgomery, Christy W. Michel, Emma L. Uncapher, and Blanche M. Kern.

The Alumni Association presented the plaque in June, 1935.

West High PTA Mothers Express Opinions Toward TV In The Home

Students at West High School in a recent survey on television—its use, practice and effects—frankly stated many points of view. Results were published in The Record.

Last week at the West High PTA study assembly, held in the school apartment, 56 mothers also expressed their opinions on various phases of television and how it affects family life. Whether the results are typical of homes of West High students may be conjectural.

The poll, conducted among the West High PTA study group, may or may not be indicative of a current trend. At any rate, it is highly interesting and for all intent and purposes, is probably comparable to a majority report of this group.

Here's how "Moms" voted on the many current TV issues:

Do you have television? 39, yes; 17, No.

Do your teen-agers use it much? 30, yes; four, no; three, some.

Is it enjoyed by all the family? 39, yes; two, no.

Does it keep your boys and girls home? 24, yes; four, no; four, some.

What things are sacrificed for television watching? School studies, three; helping with home duties, seven; sleep, 20; outdoor activities, eight; church, no; leisure time reading, 23; movies, 22.

Does television cause repeated difficulties? Three, yes; 33, no.

How do you as a mother feel about the types of programs offered? Programs are satisfactory, six, yes; six, some programs could use a great deal of improvement; 27 declared they need improvement.

If you had it to do over again would you buy a television set? 35, yes; one, no.

What rule regarding the use of television do you find helps most in avoiding disagreements in the family.

Here are many concrete responses made by parents: 1 "Before 8 o'clock children choose; after 8, adults choose. 2 "Do without if completely if difficulties arise." 3. "Study first—then television." 4. "Bed time set before television begins." 5. "Mother in room prevents disagreements." 6 "Family selects programs for a schedule for evening." 7. "Television turned off at a pre-arranged time." 8 "Turned off at mealtime." 9. "Children of different ages take turns seeing favorites when programs come at same time." 10. "Watch programs all enjoy." 11. "Allow each one to select a program he enjoys." 12. "Take vote—majority wins in selecting program."

FEET EXAMINED

Boys' gym instructor, Mr. Carl Smith, held a foot examination in all classes in order to find any foot ailments. Those who had any trouble were either sent to the family doctor or to the school nurse.

Do-Nut Sale Scheduled

Louisiana Mother Says Housework is Much Easier

Mrs. Leo Picard, Church Point, Louisiana, is mighty proud of her two daughters, Wilma Jean, 5 years old, and Juanita Marie, 4. She says it's a full-time job just keeping track of them. It wasn't too long ago when it was all Mrs. Picard could do to just barely get her work done. Now all that is changed . . . now that she has been taking HADACOL. for Hadacol seemed to be what Mrs. Picard needed and Hadacol may bring you the relief you are seeking if your condition is due to a lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron.

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the cause of vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down, weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus—elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come in Liquid Form

There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be a "Doubting Thomas"

After reading about Mrs. Picard's wonderful experience with HADACOL—how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula will help you if your system lacks Vitamins B_1, B_2, Iron and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Picard it may do for you if you're troubled with vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress, and a general run-down, weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need—the kind you should buy and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sold On a Strict Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful.

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest drugstore if you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron. This great HADACOL is inexpensive too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size only $1.25 Large family or economy size, $3.50.

HER BIRTHSTONE
Attractively set in the mounting of her choice,
ROY B. SMURR
CREATIVE JEWELERS
46 E. Broad St. FL. 3587

can you spare 9 minutes to read a message 19 centuries old?
The Sermon on the Mount is for everyone.
Anyone who reads it will be happier during the next 24 hours.
Anyone who carries it in his heart will be happier forever.
Read . . . re-read . . . and understand its words.
No speech ever promised . . . or delivered . . . so much.

WHEN he saw the crowds of people he went up on the mountain. There he seated himself, and when his disciples had come up to him, he opened his lips to teach them. And he said:
★ Blessed are those who feel their spiritual need, for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to them! Blessed are the mourners, for they will be consoled! Blessed are the humble-minded, for they will possess the land! Blessed are those who are hungry and thirsty for uprightness, for they will be satisfied! Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy! Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God! Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called God's sons! Blessed are those who have endured persecution for their uprightness, for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to them! Blessed are you when people abuse you, and persecute you, and falsely say everything bad of you, on my account. Be glad and exult over it, for you will be richly rewarded in heaven, for that is the way they persecuted the prophets who went before you!
★ You are the salt of the earth! But if salt loses its strength, how can it be made salt again? It is good for nothing but to be thrown away and trodden underfoot. You are the light of the world! A city that is built upon a hill cannot be hidden. People do not light a lamp and put it under a peck-measure; they put it on its stand and it gives light to everyone in the house. Your light must burn in this way among men so that they will see the good you do, and praise your Father in heaven.
★ Do not suppose that I have come to do away with the Law or the Prophets. I have not come to do away with them but to fulfill them. For I tell you, as long as heaven and earth endure, not one dotting of an i or crossing of a t will be dropped from the Law until it is all observed. Anyone, therefore, who weakens one of the slightest of these commands, and teaches others to do so, will be ranked lowest in the Kingdom of Heaven; but anyone who observes them and teaches others to do so will be ranked high in the Kingdom of Heaven. For I tell you that unless your uprightness is far superior to that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never even enter the Kingdom of Heaven!

★ You have heard that the men of old were told "You shall not murder," and "Whoever murders will have to answer to the court." But I tell you that anyone who gets angry with his brother will have to answer to the court, and anyone who speaks contemptuously to his brother will have to answer to the great council, and anyone who says to his brother "You cursed fool!" will have to answer for it in the fiery pit! So when you are presenting your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother has any grievance against you, leave your gift right there before the altar and go and make up with your brother; then come back and present your gift. Be quick and come to terms with your opponent while you are on the way to court with him, or he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. I tell you, you will never get out again until you have paid the last penny!

★ You have heard that men were told "You shall not commit adultery." But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman with desire has already committed adultery with her in his heart. But if your right eye makes you fall, tear it out and throw it away, for you might better lose one part of your body than have it all thrown into the pit! If your right hand makes you fall, cut it off and throw it away! For you might better lose one part of your body than have it all go down to the pit!
★ They were told, "Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce." But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife (on any ground, except unfaithfulness) makes her commit adultery, and anyone who marries her after she is divorced commits adultery.
★ Again, you have heard that the men of old were told, "You shall not swear falsely, but you must fulfill your oaths to the Lord." But I tell you not to swear at all, either by heaven, for it is God's throne, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great king. You must not swear by your own head, for you cannot make one single

TAKE THE ADVICE OF A TRUST OFFICER — THE TIME TO PLAN YOUR BURIAL ESTATE IS NOW

Your trust officer knows, better than any other man, the advantages of planning in advance. Arranging estates is his business. He'll tell you, "like any estate, your cemetery lot or family burial estate should be planned NOW—not left until the time when good judgment may be warped by grief, confusion, pressure of time and, all too often, the absence of the head of the family!" DECIDE TO TAKE HIS ADVICE AND ACT NOW.

Youth Fellowship Agenda Plans To Be Told Sunday

Major plans for the youth program of the next three months at Burgess Avenue EUB Church will be presented this Sunday night to the Youth Fellowship Society.

These plans have been worked out by the youth executive council of this past week and are to be approved or modified by the Youth Fellowship Society.

Plans for attending the Youth Training Camp at Camp Otterbein are shaping up also as the young people keep record of their attendance from week at various meetings in compliance with requirements for candidates to the camp.

Highland Friends Church Schedules Choir Program of Sacred Music

The Bethel College a cappella choir, Mishawaka, Ind., consisting of 35 members and under the direction of Willard R. Hallman, chairman of the college music department, will present a program of sacred music at 7:30 o'clock, Sunday, April 1, at the Highland Avenue Friends Church.

Professor Hallam, the director, is a graduate of Westminster Choir College, Princeton, N. J., and Willamette University, Salem, Ore.

The program will include well-known hymns and selections by great composers, including Beethoven, Christiansen, Brahms and Dvorak.

In previous years, the choir has toured Michigan, Ohio, and Ontario, Canada. This year the choir has appeared in various Indiana churches and is now touring Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Michigan.

Bethel College is a co-educational institution at Mishawaka, near South Bend, Indiana. The college emphasis is upon liberal arts, Bible and music.

Adventists To Open Mission Appeal Sunday

Seventh-day Adventists will launch their annual world Mission Appeal here Mar. 31, Richard T. Minesinger, pastor of the Eastwood Seventh-Day Adventist Church, announced today.

Last year residents contributed liberally to this world-wide drive which helps support the medical, educational and other activities carried on by Seventh-Day Adventists around the world.

"Members in North America themselves each gave $138.20 to the work of the church last year," Pastor Minesinger explained, "but the need is so great that our own gifts are not enough." This annual Ingathering Campaign for Missions was begun by the denomination 48 years ago.

The Seventh-Day Adventist Church has carried its work of mercy into 228 of the 282 officially listed countries of the world. To promote this program, the organization maintains 551 major institutions, including hospitals, schools and publishing houses. More than 2,900 Seventh-Day Adventist mission schools are also in operation.

hair white or black. But your way of speaking must be "Yes" or "No." Anything that goes beyond that comes from the evil one.

★ You have heard that they were told, "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." But I tell you not to resist injury, but if anyone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other to him too; and if anyone wants to sue you for your shirt, let him have your other too. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go two miles with him. If anyone begs from you, give to him, and when anyone wants to borrow from you, do not turn away.

★ You have heard that they were told, "You must love your neighbor and hate your enemy." But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for your persecutors, so that you may show yourselves true sons of your Father in heaven, for he makes his sun rise on bad and good alike, and makes the rain fall on the upright and the wrongdoers. For if you love only those who love you, what reward can you expect? Do not the very tax-collectors do that? And if you are polite to your brothers and no one else, what is there remarkable in that? Do not the very heathen do that? So you are to be perfect, as your heavenly Father is.

★ But take care not to do your good deeds in public for people to see, for, if you do, you will get no reward from your Father in heaven. So when you are going to give to charity, do not blow a trumpet before yourself, as the hypocrites do, in places of worship and the streets, to make people praise them. I tell you, that is all the reward they will get! But when you give to charity, your own left hand must not know what your right hand is doing, so that your charity may be secret, and your Father who sees what is secret will reward you.

★ When you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites, for they like to pray standing in places of worship and in the corners of the squares, to let people see them. I tell you, that is the only reward they will get! But when you pray, go into your own room, and shut the door, and pray to your Father who is unseen, and your Father who sees what is secret will reward you. And when you pray, do not repeat empty phrases as the Heathen do, for they imagine that their prayers will be heard if they use words enough. You must not be like them. For God, who is your Father, knows what you need before you ask him. This, therefore, is the way you are to pray:

'Our Father in heaven, Your name be revered!
Your kingdom come!
Your will be done on earth as it is done in heaven!
Give us today bread for the day, and forgive us our debts, as we have forgiven our debtors,
And do not subject us to temptation,
But save us from the evil one.'

For if you forgive others when they offend you, your heavenly Father will forgive you too. But if you do not forgive others when they offend you, your heavenly Father will not forgive you for your offences.

★ When you fast, do not put on a gloomy look, like the hypocrites, for they neglect their personal appearance to let people see that they are fasting. I tell you, that is all the reward they will get. But when you fast, perfume your hair and wash your face, so that no one may see that you are fasting, except your Father who is unseen, and your Father who sees what is secret, will reward you.

★ Do not store up your riches on earth, where moths and rust destroy them, and where thieves break in and steal them, but store up your riches in heaven, where moths and rust cannot destroy them, and where thieves cannot break in and steal them. For wherever your treasure is, your heart will be also.

The eye is the lamp of the body. If then your eye is sound, your whole body will be light, but if your eye is unsound, your whole body will be dark. If, therefore, your very light is darkness, how deep the darkness will be! No slave can belong to two masters, for he will either hate one and love the other, or stand by one and make light of the other. You cannot serve God and money. Therefore, I tell you, do not worry about life, wondering what you will have to eat or drink, or about your body, wondering what you will have to wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body than clothes? Look at the wild birds. They do not sow or reap, or store their food in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more account than they? But which of you with all his worry can add a single hour to his life? Why should you worry about clothing? See how the wild flowers grow. They do not toil or spin, and yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his splendor was never dressed like one of them. But if God so beautifully dresses the wild grass, which is alive today and is thrown into the furnace tomorrow, will he not much more surely clothe you, you who have so little faith? So do not worry and say, "What shall we have to eat?" or "What shall we have to drink?" or "What shall we have to wear?" For these are all things the heathen are in pursuit of, and your heavenly Father knows well that you need all this. But you must make his kingdom, and uprightness before him, your greatest care, and you will have all these other things besides. So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will have worries of its own. Let each day be content with its own ills.

★ Pass no more judgments upon other people, so that you may not have judgment passed upon you. For you will be judged by the standard you judge by, and men will pay you back with the same measure you have used with them. Why do you keep looking at the speck in your brother's eye, and pay no attention to the beam that is in your own? How can you say to your brother, "Just let me get that speck out of your eye," when all the time there is a beam in your own? You hypocrite! First get the beam out of your own eye, and then you can see to get the speck out of your brother's eye.

★ Do not give what is sacred to dogs, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, or they will trample them under their feet and turn and tear you in pieces. Ask, and what you ask will be given you. Search, and you will find what you search for. Knock, and the door will open to you. For it is always the one who asks who receives, and the one who searches who finds, and the one who knocks to whom the door opens. Which of you man when his son asks him for some bread will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a snake? So if you, bad as you are, know enough to give your children what is good, how much more surely will your Father in heaven give what is good to those who ask him for it! Therefore, you must always treat other people as you would like to have them treat you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.

★ Go in at the narrow gate. For the road that leads to destruction is broad and spacious, and there are many who go in by it. But the gate is narrow and the road is hard that leads to life, and there are few that find it.

★ Beware of the false prophets, who come to you disguised as sheep but are ravenous wolves underneath. You can tell them by their fruit. Do people pick grapes off thorns, or figs off thistles? Just so any sound tree bears good fruit, but a poor tree bears bad fruit. No sound tree can bear bad fruit, and no poor tree can bear good fruit. Any tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and burned. So you can tell them by their fruit. It is not everyone who says to me "Lord! Lord!" who will get into the Kingdom of Heaven, but only those who do the will of my Father in heaven. Many will say to me on that Day, "Lord! Lord! Was it not in your name that we prophesied, and by your name that we drove out demons, and by your name that we did many mighty acts?" Then I will say to them plainly, "I never knew you! Go away from me, you who do wrong!"

★ Everyone, therefore, who listens to this teaching of mine and acts upon it, will be like a sensible man who built his house on rock. And the rain fell, and the rivers rose, and the winds blew, and beat about that house, and it did not go down, for its foundations were on rock. And anyone who listens to this teaching of mine and does not act upon it, will be like a foolish man who built his house on sand. And the rain fell and the rivers rose, and the winds blew and beat about that house, and it went down, and its downfall was complete.

★ When Jesus had finished this discourse, the crowds were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them like one who had authority and not like their scribes.

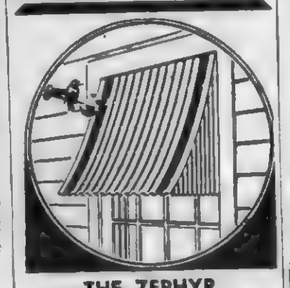
Bible Comment:

Christianity Is Not an Easy Life Though One of Joy

THE late C. Sylvester Horne, famous minister of Whitefield's Tabernacle in London, England, wrote a book under the title, "The Life That Is Easy." It was the Christian life of which he was writing and so the title proved misleading to many.

True Christianity is not an easy religion. Jesus never offered his disciples ease or pleasure. He offered them joy.

He bade them in a very dark hour to be of good cheer. He spoke of rich rewards of service in the Kingdom of Heaven. But He always spoke of sacrifice. Did not He describe the Kingdom as a pearl of great price which one should be willing to sell all for?



The distinctive thing about the religion of the Jews from early times was the insistence upon the supreme demands of a righteous God. Clear and plain was the commandment, "Thou shalt have no other Gods before me." Holiness was the law of life.

In this, Jesus fulfilled the law and the prophets. He gave His followers no formal tasks and set up no artificial observances or duties. He demanded no allegiance to Himself, except in the same way He gave allegiance to the Father.

And so the life of Christianity should not be construed as an easy one. The ease that Rev. Horne wrote of was the ease of mastery through long and intimate fellowship with the Master.

There is no half-way place in Christianity and that is why so many professing Christians never find either ease or happiness in their religion. It is in the lives of those who have given themselves fully to Christ that the power, beauty and true satisfaction of the Christian way are found and revealed.

A highway in the Netherlands with a surface of rubber mixed with the asphalt was constructed prior to the recent war and withstood well heavy German wartime traffic.

THE ZEPHYR DOOR HOOD AND AWNING IS cool and very, very beautiful

Zephyr awnings do more than make a home look cool, starchy-crisp, and new. They also reflect harsh summer heat and glare—but admit light and air! Zephyr's patented construction helps pull stale air out of hot, stuffy rooms. Zephyrs can help lower room temperatures up to 12°. Made of fine California redwood for permanence and beauty. Available in many styles and all colors. F.H.A. terms:

We will demonstrate Zephyr awnings in your home, at your convenience.

decades has raised the pumping limit of the station to a maximum output of 70,000,000 gallons of water a day. Emrich feels that this will meet present demands, but more equipment is needed to replace the old and to meet the needs of the expanding city.

The city's need for water was emphasized in Mrs. Emrich's stories about her husband's work. She told how he was on constant call for emergencies and "often worked 'til midnight or perhaps all night to make repairs." Then there was the winter a few years ago when the city suffered from a lack of water and Emrich had to supervise the installation of temporary pumps to divert water from any source into the Scioto.

Recalling the city's troubles with its water supply, Emrich told how the 1913 flood broke the 48-inch water main that crossed the Scioto. The break cost the city its water, and repair work was hindered by lack of communication from the pumping station to the East side of the river. Telephone contact was finally established when a line was tapped and a call made to Dayton where the call was relayed back to the east side of the river to the water commisioner. Emrich got to work that day by walking around the flood and groping his way across the Pennsylvania railroad bridge.

"But," Mr. Emrich emphasized, "the city was never out of water because of trouble or a breakdown at the pumping station in the 43 years I've worked there. Breaks in the lines, etc., in the city have been responsible for shorting the water supply but the station has never gone out."

But now Emrich has gone out of the station. He plans to do a little fishing after he regains his strength, he'll see a little more of his three sons and a daughter and his two granddaughters, and he'll be able to spend a little more time in the house in which he and his wife reside at 501 S. Warren-av. The couple have been Hilltoppers for 44 years.

Future Medical Vocations Planned By More Than 40 West Students

By Myron T. Seifert

To become nurses and doctors is the ambition of more than two score West Senior High Students.

A legion of West High graduates in its 43-year history, have entered these important fields of service, many of whom are at present serving the Hilltop community and bringing relief to human suffering.

Present students who are aware of the hard work, perseverance and sacrifice needed to achieve their goal, have already set out on their quest of these two noble professions.

On "Election Course Sheets" at West High these students have indicated a desire to enter the dual professions of nursing or medicine.

Prospective "M.D.'s" include: Dick Briggs, Carl Cline, Jack Conrad, Chuck Leibensperger, Don Rings, James Schuman, Harold Stout, James Thompson, Don Whipple, George Marduf, Bob Griffin, Dave Green, David Gurley, Gary Underwood, Dick Miesse, and Bill Hensel.

The Gate Post

By Pat Martindale

Believe it or not spring is here. This means that a complete new schedule is under way at the Glenwood Recreation Center. A print of all schedules can be found posted on the center's bulletin board and in the April "Echo."

The Glenwood Recreation Center played host to two Easter parties last Saturday. An Easter egg hunt started at 9 a. m. followed by the Hilltop Community Council party at 10 a. m. A very large crowd was in attendance and everyone enjoyed the puppet show, entertainment by the Camp Fire Girls, the treat and movies.

If your group needs a meeting place, one can be had for the asking. Arrangements should however be made several days in advance. Social rooms, cooking facilities, play or dancing space and the gymnasium are available to our community. Consult "Doc" Reister on this matter.
